That Which They Can't See David Van Brugge, 2025-01-20 In this retrieval study David Van Brugge addresses how the current understanding of a homiletical use of imagination for expository preaching might be strengthened The current need for strengthening becomes apparent when the various understandings of imagination and their implications for practical theology are realized This is compounded as trends in homiletics seem to minimize the imagination or embrace it in modern or postmodern ways The original contribution of this study is recognizing that the homiletical use of imagination can be strengthened by retrieving the Puritan baroque characteristics of Jonathan Edwards imagination as evidenced in his sermons to the Stockbridge Indians of 1751-1758 Edwards drew on a rich background to display an imagination that synthesized thoughts and ideas thought beyond the senses and that by the grace of God transformed thought and practice Through that creative thought Edwards maintained Biblical exposition and appeal to the affections Van Brugge further develops and evaluates the idea of Puritan baroque characteristics concluding that it is a helpful characterization of Edwards Stockbridge Indian sermons In these sermons Edwards imaginatively used imagery light space movement and glorification for the ultimate goal of directing the affections of his audience towards God Such a use of imagination for affective purpose becomes a key for the strengthening of a homiletical use of imagination today

Imaginative Preaching Geoff New, 2015-10-14 From generation to generation there has been an anguished cry from preachers about preaching there is no imagination The Scriptures present the wondrous hope and vision of Kingdom Come and yet contemporary preaching can often be mute and blind by comparison This book explores what is possible when the Scripture to be preached is prayed through the agency of two ancient prayer disciplines lectio divina and Ignatian Gospel Contemplation Through the experiences of eight vocational pastor preachers this study tracks the difficulties discoveries and delights as they commit to utilizing these prayer disciplines as part of their regular sermon preparation The reader will be orientated to what a biblical imagination entails and how praying the Scriptures affects the preacher sermon and listener Careful explanation of how to pray using lectio divina and Ignatian Gospel Contemplation is included This work is in places a raw examination of the forces that regularly conspire against the preacher as they endeavour to faithfully expound the Scriptures The study is a rousing exclamation of the joy experienced when a preacher's imagination and their preparation is formed by the Spirit bringing the Scriptures to bear on all who speak and hear it

With Wit and Wonder Blayne A. Banting, 2013-10-10 Preachers are often caught in a double bind they would like to be more witty and creative but they aren't sure whether these capacities fit with the serious business of preaching the gospel Pastor and preaching professor Blayne Banting addresses both the why and the how of the roles of humour and imagination in preaching With Wit and Wonder is designed to take the preacher from a solid theological and theoretical grounding in both humour and imagination to how these two God given gifts might be employed to enhance the preaching ministry of today s communicator Preparing for Christian Ministry David P. Gushee,Walter C. Jackson,1996-09-01 Encouragement for students to reflect on the nature and task of ministry in the 21st century and to seek education to equip them for ministry Lament-Driven Preaching Eliana Ah-Rum Ku,2024-03-04 This book challenges Christian communities to engage in lament a mode of existence characterized by impassioned expression witnessing and personal or social protest in the face of evil and injustice reflecting a profound yearning for God s saving presence Divine lament responds to and expresses solidarity with human suffering unveiling multiple facets of God s image and demonstrating a profound sense of divine compassion Drawing on the Book of Lamentations Korean concepts related to suffering han and hanpuri the Paschal Triduum narratives and recent homiletic discourses on suffering the author investigates how complex issues related to grief and hope can be addressed in preaching without diminishing the harsh reality of affliction Designed to assist preachers this book encourages a more intentional approach to addressing suffering specifically by advocating for lament as a transitional space between affliction and hope Furthermore readers are invited to contemplate the significance of the church which within a world in decline embodies the body of Christ manifesting both the demise and resurrection of God Equipped for Good Work Cothen, Th.D., Joe H.,2002 Anointed Expository Preaching Stephen Olford,2003-09 This book equips and encourages preachers of all kinds to respect their calling and minister God s inerrant Word Equipped for Good Work Joe H. Igniting the Heart Kate Bruce, 2015-09-30 Kate Bruce argues that imagination can help to engage the hearer in a sermon which seeks to evoke rather than to inform Imagination frames how we see the world and ourselves in it As such it has a vital role in how preachers see the preaching task itself which in turn affects how we go about the task

Leadership Mosaic Daniel Montgomery, Jared Kennedy, 2016-10-13 There s a leadership crisis in the church Every leadership model claims to have all the answers to the challenges of leadership Each perspective emphasizes certain qualities and we search desperately for answers in the absence of clear direction But there s no simple leadership formula that meets every need we have in life and ministry Challenging the conventional wisdom about what makes for a good leader Daniel Montgomery calls us to a countercultural perspective on leadership rooted in our Creator He presents a new framework for leadership not just a beckoning to further pragmatism
