, 1984 ULU: Bread of Life B. David Williams, 2003-12-15 Stories examples parables metaphors and humor support the sixty three reflections on biblical texts from the Revised Common Lectionary The author uses a theme approach addressing issues and questions sometimes overlooked in preaching balancing private personal spirituality with the social and corporate Open minded and ecumenical in tone ULU reflects the theology of one firmly planted in the Wesleyan tradition where scripture tradition experience and reason insist upon openness to the new things that God is doing and where believers seek to work actively for the transformation of creation according to the values and the vision of the realm of God Twenty original monochrome photos by the author are distributed between chapters AUTHOR S INTRODUCTION I m convinced that the Gospel enters our experience with the most sharpness and clarity at the points of the pain and passion of our life encounters As a comfortable middle class straight white male American Christian I ve had virtually everything to learn from the people to whom I ve been sent Experiences in the Philippines and Pacific Islands those while working with the World Hunger Emphasis of The United Methodist Church and while assigned to ecumenical organizations have had profound impact upon my faith and my approach to Bible study and worship preparation Serving as pastor of congregations that openly welcomed gay and lesbian persons into a full participation have extended this experience I m also convinced that the Gospel most powerfully enters the experience of those to whom we ve been sent when it speaks practical hope to vulnerabilities and pain At their best and as they were intended to be ministries of service are a vital integral part of the task of evangelization which not only involves preaching Good News but BEING Good News Preaching and reflecting are meaningless without serious engagement with real life The simplest of traditional cultures to which I was introduced have helped me in my spiritual journey As a Filipino anthropologist friend said after spending some weeks with the so called Lost Tribe the Tasaday in South Cotabato We ll not realize how much we have to learn from them until we admit to what we ourselves have lost My friends in traditional indigenous cultures have made me more sensitive to deeper meanings in stories and parables Perhaps they re more aware than we so called educated folk that this is how we transmit our culture and values It s in the stories where we find the greatest richness of the Bible in both the old and New Testaments Jesus constantly taught through story parable and metaphor Taking a shallow literal approach to these causes us to miss the many layers of meanings and themes which the writers intended to be addressed While stories may not prove something they illustrate something and they carry their own conviction It s up to us to incorporate them into our insight and understanding Hearing the stories of others has put me in closer touch with my own May mine do the same for you

Advent, Christmas, Epiphany, 1984 Texts for Preaching: Year A Walter Brueggemann, Charles B. Cousar, 1995-01-01 Based on the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible this third in a series of three volumes provides resources for an entire year of sermons and offers practical help for preachers and others who use the Revised Common Lectionary Beginning with Advent this unique and comprehensive resource deals with lectionary texts for Year A Each of the four texts the Old Testament Psalter Gospel and Epistle for each Sunday and important festival day including Christmas Ash Wednesday and Good Friday is treated A brief introduction for the day indicates the general thrust of the texts and the relationships among them emphasizing the interpretation of the texts themselves Also included are suggestions concerning the implications of the texts for life today Preaching the New Common Lectionary, Year A: After Pentecost, 1986 Lectionary Preaching

Workbook, Series IX, Cycle B for the Revised Common Lectionary Mark Ellingsen, 2011-09-01 When it comes to preaching from a lectionary it can often be a daunting task to create new ways of preaching about a passage that has been around for thousands of years It would seem that after a while there would be no new ways of looking at a scripture passage A different perspective however can be most beneficial in finding a new way to help your congregation see each of the readings This is the inspiration behind the Lectionary Preaching Workbook series By providing new insights into each of the readings in the Revised Common Roman Catholic and Episcopal Lectionaries Mark Ellingsen has given pastors everywhere the tools they need to effectively relate the heart of the scriptures to their congregations combining the best of scholarly techniques with pastoral experience Each of these illustrations and thematic explorations provide the perfect jumping point for pastors to take a text and create thought provoking inspirational messages Its easy to use format and illuminating commentary make the Lectionary Preaching Workbook an essential addition to any pastor s library Each Sunday s material includes a listing of applicable lectionary texts for all the major lectionaries a daily theme commentary on each lesson Old Testament New Testament and Gospel various preaching approaches a collection of illustrations to help explain the message Mark Ellingsen a minister in the Evangelical Lutheran Church of America ELCA has been a professor and department chair at International Theological Center in Atlanta Georgia since 1993 He graduated magna cum laude from Gettysburg College Pennsylvania and Yale University from which he received three master s degrees in divinity arts and philosophy as well as his Ph D He has authored sixteen books He and his wife have three grown children When he is not writing or teaching Ellingsen enjoys discussing politics sports and playing guitar
