Preaching Through Matthew Expository Reflections On The Gospel Of Matthew:

Preaching Through Matthew Robert Edward Luccock, 1980-01-01 Preaching God's Transforming Justice Ronald J. Allen, Dale P. Andrews, Dawn Ottoni-Wilhelm, 2013-01-01 This is the final volume in a unique new commentary series that helps the preacher identify and reflect on the social implications of the biblical readings in the Revised Common Lectionary. The essays concentrate on the themes of social justice in the weekly texts and how those themes can be teachable moments for preaching social justice in the church. In addition to the lectionary days there are essays for twenty-two Holy Days of Justice including Martin Luther King Day, Earth Day, World AIDS Day, and Children's Sabbath. These days are intended to enlarge the church's awareness of God's call for justice and of the many ways that call comes to the church and world today.

A Thematic Access-Oriented Bibliography of Jesus's Resurrection Michael J. Alter, 2019-12-31 The keystone of Christianity is Jesus's physical bodily resurrection. Present-day scholars can be significantly challenged as they forage through voluminous documents on the resurrection of Jesus. The literature measures well over seven thousand sources in English language books alone. This makes finding specific sources that are most relevant for specific scholarly purposes an arduous task. Even when a specific book is relevant, finding the parts of the book that are most relevant to the resurrection rather than other topics often requires additional effort. A Thematic Access-Oriented Bibliography of Jesus's Resurrection addresses these challenges in several ways. First, the bibliography organizes more than seven thousand English sources into twelve main categories and then thirty-four subcategories which are designed to help you find the most relevant literature quickly and efficiently. Embedded are pro and con arguments which support efficient access through brief annotations and then annotate the diversity and complexity of the field of religion by including sources that represent a diverse range of views: theistic (e.g., Christian, Jewish, Muslim, etc.), agnostic, and nontheistic. The objective of this bibliography is to provide convenient access to relevant sources from a variety of perspectives, allowing you to browse or find the one source accurately and with ease. Expository thoughts on the Gospels, with the text complete John Charles Ryle (bp. of Liverpool.), 1856

Shedlock,2012-03 With Christ in the Voting

Booth is not a dated Voter's Guide that promotes certain candidates and after the election becomes as useful as day old toast. Instead, Shedlock has written a book that addresses issues that crop up in every election. What if the candidate isn't fully pro life? What if he or she wants to raise my taxes? What about third parties or sitting it out altogether? Governor Mike Huckabee. Know who to vote for doesn't always come easy for the Christian. No unambiguous voice from heaven whispers, "This is my candidate, vote for him." Even though almost every candidate in America makes a Christian profession, most of us know some Christians we wouldn't trust with a loaded BB gun, let alone access to the launch button of the world's largest cache of nuclear weapons. Thankfully, God has given us His Word. The Ultimate Voter's Guide: Using the Bible With Christ in the Voting Booth provides us tools to resist Government Too Small and Government Too Big while embracing Government Just Right, not based on false promises and Christian utopian fantasies but rather the most important political success story of all: The Voter and Governor Who Pleases God. David Shedlock graduated from Central Bible College in Springfield, Missouri, and received his Master's Degree in English as a Second Language from Minnesota State University, Mankato. He is a leading contributor and assistant editor to the blog Caffeinated Thoughts and its companion site Caffeinated Theology. He has been a member of Trinity Presbyterian Reformed Church in Johnston, Iowa, since 1996. He and his wife Judy have five children and 16 grandchildren. Shedlock may be contacted at djshedlock@gmail.com or through www.turretinpress.com.
