 Jones, 2010-03-17 The study of liturgy has received criticism from scholars and practitioners alike the academic discipline of liturgiology has been compared to the hobby of stamp collection and proponents for liturgical renewal argue that worship

this volume dedicated to the liturgies of Byzantium Armenia Syria and Palestine Passion and Resurrection Narratives Andrew M. Bain,2019-01-03 By grasping how the church of a particular time period reads the Scriptures we can understand much of the Christianity of that age This volume examines how the Gospel accounts at the heart of the Christian faith the passion and resurrection of Christ were interpreted by four key authors from late antiquity In analyzing the readings and methods of Hilary of Poitiers Ambrose Jerome and Augustine this work advocates for a reshaping of the categories commonly used to understand Latin patristic exegesis It also prompts reflection upon habits of biblical interpretation and the pastoral application of Scripture in our own time Standing Together in the Community of God Paul Janowiak,2011 We are here on earth not to guard a museum but to cultivate a garden flourishing with life and promised to a glorious future John XXIII exhorted the Church at the dawn of the Second Vatican Council In an age when some skeptics suggest that the reformed liturgy has lost the wonder and spiritual depth of previous ages Standing Together in the Community of God affirms that we need not look back the Sacred Mysteries are already in our midst Their wellspring and summit is the heart of God shared in the Trinity s own communion announced now as pure Gift Praising God for God s saving acts in Jesus as Vatican II reminded us we encounter Christ s sacramental presence in four modes in the person of the priest who gathers the community into communion in the elements and actions of the sacraments in the word proclaimed and preached and in the assembly praying and singing SC 7 In rhythm and harmony these modes invite us to encounter the multivalent depth of the Mysteries that announce Christ in you the hope of glory Col 1 27 Together they proclaim the Risen One among us the totus Christus hope for a hungry world Allowing each mode its respect as a bearer of the sacred these focal words and actions in the liturgy echo a communion song that announces Christ s real presence to us and for us and with us Beginning deep within this is a spirituality and piety for the twenty first century ever ancient and ever new Organic Homiletic Richard Hee-Chun Park,2006 Organic form theory of Romanticism helps writers artists and preachers free themselves from potentially limiting norms and rules of form Organic Homiletic Samuel T Coleridge Henry G Davis and the New Homiletic will inspire preachers to express their individual voices and create their own authentic forms by offering preachers innovative methods to creatively imitate blend and mix a wide variety of sermon forms The book is a motivator for preachers to intuitively discover sermon content in the rhetorical context of a given preaching situation and to develop that content utilizing organic form in the process of sermon preparation Organic Homiletic is a must read for seminarians experienced preachers creative writers and artists all those who seek to be fresh authentic creative liberated and organic Wisconsin Lutheran Quarterly ,1997

Thresholds of the Sacred Sharon E. J. Gerstel,2006 This collection of essays considers the development and meaning of the iconostasis the screen used in churches to separate the sanctuary from the nave The contributors approach the history of the icon screen from a variety of disciplines including art history theology and architecture Preaching Christology in the Roman Near East Philip Michael Forness,2018-10-25 Preaching formed one of the primary regular avenues of communication between ecclesiastical elites and a wide range of society Clergy used homilies to spread knowledge of complex theological debates prevalent in late antique Christian discourse Some sermons even offer glimpses into the locations in which communities gathered to hear orators preach Although homilies survive in greater number than most other types of literature most do not specify the setting of their initial delivery dating and authorship Preaching Christology in the Roman Near East addresses how we can best contextualize sermons devoid of such information The first chapter develops a methodology for approaching homilies that draws on a broader understanding of audience as both the physical audience and the readership of sermons The remaining chapters offer a case study on the renowned Syriac preacher Jacob of Serugh c 451 521 whose metrical homilies form one of the largest sermon collections in any language from late antiquity His letters connect him to a previously little known Christological debate over the language of the miracles and sufferings of Christ through his correspondence with a monastery a Roman military officer and a Christian community in South Arabia He uses this language in homilies on the Council of Chalcedon on Christian doctrine and on biblical exegesis An analysis of these sermons demonstrates that he communicated miaphysite Christology to both elite reading communities as well as ordinary audiences Philip Michael Forness provides a new methodology for working with late antique sermons and discloses the range of society that received complex theological teachings through preaching

Preaching in the Patristic Age David G. Hunter, 1989 From earliest times the Christian church has been devoted to the service of the word by which is meant the scriptures works of the great teachers and theologians and the ordinary preaching through which the church confirmed its faith Preaching was especially crucial in the first days of the church from back cover

God's Great Gospel of Grace in Galatians Herman Bauman, 2009-04-16 This book is an endeavor to present the beauty of God's grace through a careful study of the Book of Galatians My own experience of struggling with righteousness by works trying to be good enough to be saved as well as my observation of other trying to be Christians through the years convinced me that there is a great need for a clear understanding of God's plan to save people and the accompanying assurance of salvation that comes with it Having assurance in Christ then brings much better obedience than a religion of fear ever could

From Legalism to Freedom Dallas R. Burdette, 2008-08 In 1517 Martin Luther took a stand for justification by faith alone in the finished work of Christ upon Calvary As a result of his position he suffered persecution for adhering to the Scriptures alone and not to traditions This book traces my spiritual journey from legalism to freedom in Christ In sixteen chapters I map out my heritage within the Churches of Christ and the motivations that eventually led me out of bondage to liberty One of the lengthiest chapters in this book is Where the Scriptures Speak One objective of this chapter is to help individuals to understand that one may speak where the Bible speaks and not necessarily speak as the Bible speaks Chapters 11 12 and 13 represent the very heart of my escape from authoritarianism to my dependence upon God s righteousness a righteousness from God through faith in Jesus Chapter 14 focuses on preaching in the early church Without an understanding of the Gospel that the apostles proclaimed Christians will never learn the spirit of toleration for differences within the Christian community Chapters 8 15 and 16 give attention to the Last Supper The communion should be a constant reminder of the Cross and true unity among God s children Chapter 1 2 and 3 outline my original journey of faith Dallas Burdette has been a serious student teacher and preacher of the Bible for fifty eight years supporting himself for many years as an agent for AFLAC He has written numerous articles for religious journals as well as many essays and sermons which are available on his website He has developed a keen interest in promoting unity among God s people through a more accurate reading of the Word He has degrees from Amridge University formerly Southern Christian University where he also was Director of Extended Learning for five years He holds the Doctor of Ministry degree 1999 from Erskine Theological Seminary
