Precolonial Black Africa:

Precolonial Black Africa Cheikh Anta Diop, 1987 Diop compares the political and social systems of Europe and black Africa from antiquity to the formation of modern states Throughout his intent is not to provide a history as such but rather guidelines for historians and others who seek a scientific understanding of precolonial societies in Africa the Mediterranean and Europe and their links with the earliest known stages of human development Students and scholars of Africa and world history will be challenged by Diop's original thought controversial analysis of the similarities and striking differences between black Africa and the West Back cover Precolonial Black Africa Cheikh Anta Diop, 2012

Precolonial Black Africa Cheikh Anta Diop, 1987 Black Africa Cheikh Anta Diop, 1987 This expanded edition continues Diop's campaign for the political and economic unification of the nations of black Africa It concludes with a lengthy interview with Diop A Theory of African Constitutionalism Berihun Adugna Gebeye, 2021-07-08 A Theory of African Constitutionalism asks and seeks to answer why we need a new theoretical framework for African constitutionalism and how this could offer us better theoretical and practical tools with which to understand improve and assess African constitutionalism on its own terms By locating constitutional studies in Africa within the experiences interactions and contestations of power and governance beginning in precolonial times the book presents the development and transformation of African constitutional systems across time and place along with the attendant constitutional designs and practices ranging from the nature and operation of the African state to its vertical and horizontal government structures to its constitutional rights regime This title offers both a theoretically and comparatively rich historically and contextually informed and temporally and spatially extensive account of the nature travails and incremental successes of African constitutionalism with detailed case studies from Nigeria Ethiopia and South Africa A Theory of African Constitutionalism provides scholars policymakers governments and constitution builders in Africa and beyond with new insights for reimagining the purpose substance and scope of constitutions and constitutionalism An Introduction to African Philosophy Sam O. Imbo, 1998-03-26 Organized topically rather than historically this book provides an excellent introduction to the subject of African Philosophy Samuel Oluoch Imbo synthesizes the ideas of key African philosophers into an accessible narrative The author focuses on five central questions What are the definitions of African philosophy Is ethno philosophy really philosophy What are the dangers of an African philosophy that claims to be unique Can African philosophy be done in foreign languages such as English and French Are there useful ways to make connections between African philosophy African American philosophy and women's studies By making cross disciplinary and transnational connections Imbo stakes out an important place for African philosophy Imbo's book is an invaluable introduction to this dynamic and growing area of study

Ancient Egypt in Africa David O'Connor, Andrew Reid, 2003-08-13 The discipline of Egyptology has been criticised for being too insular with little awareness of the development of archaeologies elsewhere It has remained theoretically underdeveloped For example the role of Ancient Egypt within Africa has rarely been considered jointly by Egyptologists and Africanists Egypt's own view of itself has been neglected views of it in the ancient past in more recent times and today have remained underexposed Encounters with Ancient Egypt is a series of eight books which addresses these issues The books interrelate inform and illuminate one another and will appeal to a wide market including academics students and the general public interested in Archaeology Egyptology Anthropology Architecture Design and History Geographically Egypt is clearly on the African continent yet Ancient Egypt is routinely regarded as a non African cultural form The significance of Ancient Egypt for the rest of Africa is a hotly debated issue with complex ramifications This book considers how Ancient Egypt was dislocated from Africa drawing on a wide range of sources It examines key issues such as the evidence for actual contacts between Egypt and other early African cultures and how influential or not Egypt was on them Some scholars argue that to its north Egypt's influence on Mediterranean civilization was downplayed by western scholarship Further afield on the African continent perceptions of Ancient Egypt were coloured by biblical sources emphasizing the persecution of the Israelites An extensive selection of fresh insights are provided several focusing on cultural interactions between Egypt and Nubia from 1000 BCE to 500 CE developing a nuanced picture of these interactions and describing the limitations of an Egyptological approach to them

Great Books Written by Africans across the Academic Disciplines Emmanuel D. Babatunde, Abdul Karim

Bangura, 2022-07-04 This volume is the first text to provide a comprehensive account of the great books across the academic disciplines written by Africans born in the continent and those who became naturalized citizens of African countries These great books are those that have had a powerful important or affecting influence on the author of a chapter in this book as an individual and on society The books included here are mostly of the storytelling type and thus not representative of most of the academic disciplines This volume allows each contributor to write a chapter on a discipline showcasing five great books written by African authors Each selection is appraised and suggestions made by other experts in a discipline while every chapter entails an introduction to the topic a conceptual discussion of the discipline a book by book review of the five books and a conclusion and recommendations for research using the selected books A Roadmap for Understanding African

Politics Victor Oguejiofor Okafor, 2013-09-13 This book examines the impact of post colonial leadership on political integration in Nigeria offering an in depth understanding of the historical and contemporary forces that shape Nigeria's national politics as well as African politics generally Okafor discusses how Nigeria's pre colonial and colonial political histories along with contemporary external forces like neo colonialism as well as internal social economic and political structures and developments have affected emerging post independence politics in the country The study climaxes with an Africa centered theory of political and integrative leadership and then uses it as a prism for analyzing six Nigerian post independence political leaderships encompassing Nigeria's First and Second Republics along with their military interregna The concluding chapter includes a discussion of the implications of the study for leadership and political integration in Africa

Faith and Freedom in Galatia and Senegal Aliou Cissé Niang, 2009 Faith and Freedom in Galatia and Senegal reads Galatians 2 11 15 and 3 26 29 through the lens of the 19th 20th century experiences of French colonialism by the Diola people in Senegal West Africa and portrays the Apostle Paul as a sociopostcolonial hermeneut who acted on his self understanding as God's messenger to create through faith in the cross of Christ free communities a self definition that is critical of ancient Graeco Roman and modern colonial lore that justify colonization as a divine mandate Aliou C Niang ingeniously compares the colonial objectification of his own people by French colonists to the Graeco Roman colonial objectifications of the ancient Celts Gauls Galatians and Paul's role in bringing about a different portrayal     When We

Ruled Paula Akpan, 2025-06-03 Discover the reigns of twelve African queens and warriors from across the continent in this immersive and pioneering history Njinga Mbande Nana Yaa Asantewaa Makobo Modjadji VI Ranavalona the First These queens and warriors ruled vast swathes of the African continent where they led loved and fought for their kingdoms and people Their impact can still be felt today and yet beyond the lands they called home so few of us have ever heard their names In When We Ruled historian Paula Akpan takes us into the worlds of these powerful figures following their stories and how they came to rule and influence the futures of their people Through deep research and discovery Akpan will uncover new truths and grapple with uncomfortable realities allowing us to be immersed in countless moments of bravery intrigue and for some the unravelling of their rule With reigns spanning from pre colonial Nigeria to the rich lands of Rwanda and from Ancient Egypt to apartheid South Africa these rulers shed a new light on gender politics in these regions showing how women were celebrated and revered before colonising powers took hold and continue to be long after In this game changing narrative of twelve lives Akpan takes us on a spellbinding enrapturing and immersive history that is nothing short of revelatory

Trends and Issues in African Philosophy F. Ochieng'-Odhiambo, 2010 This book provides an excellent orientation to and a logical development of the major trends and issues that have dominated discussions in African philosophy since the publication of Placide Tempels Bantu Philosophy in 1945 Views of some of the best known African philosophers such as Kwasi Wiredu Paulin Hountondji H Odera Oruka Peter Bodunrin and D A Masolo are discussed in detail The text takes into account in the form of quotations or referencing the views of several other philosophers who have had something to say about African philosophy This book facilitates an excellent orientation on African philosophy at the undergraduate level Those pursuing African philosophy at the graduate level will find the text refreshingly novel

The End of Racism Dinesh D'Souza, 1996-09-30 The first comprehensive inquiry into the history nature and ultimate meaning of racism

African American Studies Jeanette R Davidson, 2010-10-19 This book presents the diverse expansive nature of African American Studies and its characteristic interdisciplinarity It is intended for use with undergraduate beginning graduate students in African American Studies American Studies and Ethnic Studie

The Handbook of Global Interventions in Communication Theory Yoshitaka Miike, Jing Yin, 2022-03-11 Moving beyond the U S Eurocentric paradigm of communication theory this handbook broadens the intellectual horizons of the discipline by highlighting underrepresented especially non Western theorists and theories and identifies key issues and challenges for future scholarship Showcasing diverse perspectives the handbook facilitates active engagement in different cultural traditions and theoretical orientations that are global in scope but local in effect It begins by exploring past efforts to diversify the field continuing on to examine theoretical concepts models and principles rooted in local cumulative wisdom It does not limit itself to the mass interpersonal communication divide but rather seeks to frame theory as global and inclusive in scope The book is intended for communication researchers and advanced students with relevance to scholars with an interest in theory within information science library science social and cross cultural psychology multicultural education social justice and social ethics international relations development studies and political science      The Negritude Movement Reiland Rabaka, 2015-05-20

The Negritude Movement provides readers with not only an intellectual history of the Negritude Movement but also its prehistory W E B Du Bois the New Negro Movement and the Harlem Renaissance and its posthistory Frantz Fanon and the evolution of Fanonism By viewing Negritude as an insurgent idea to invoke this book's intentionally incendiary subtitle as opposed to merely a form of poetics and aesthetics The Negritude Movement explores Negritude as a traveling theory la Edward Said's concept that consistently crisscrossed the Atlantic Ocean in the twentieth century from Harlem to Haiti Haiti to Paris Paris to Martinique Martinique to Senegal and on and on ad infinitum The Negritude Movement maps the movements of proto Negritude concepts from Du Bois's discourse in The Souls of Black Folk through to post Negritude concepts in Fanon's Black Skin White Masks and The Wretched of the Earth Utilizing Negritude as a conceptual framework to on the one hand explore the Africana intellectual tradition in the twentieth century and on the other hand demonstrate discursive continuity between Du Bois and Fanon as well as the Harlem Renaissance and Negritude Movement The Negritude Movement ultimately accents what Negritude contributed to arguably its greatest intellectual heir Frantz Fanon and the development of his distinct critical theory Fanonism Rabaka argues that if Fanon and Fanonism remain relevant in the twenty first century then to a certain extent Negritude remains relevant in the twenty first century      African Traditional Religion in the Modern World, 2d ed. Douglas E. Thomas, 2015-05-11 African traditional religion encompasses a variety of non dogmatic spiritual practices followed by millions around the world Some scholars argue it is related to the Nubian religion of Egypt's Dynastic Period In an expanded second edition this book examines the nature of African traditional religion and describes common attributes of various cultural belief systems with an emphasis on West Africa Principal elements studied include sacrifice salvation and culture modes of revelation divination and African resilience in the face of invasion and colonization The religious experiences of black people throughout the Americas are also covered The author finds the cosmology symbolism and rituals of the Yoruba culture to be the fundamental bases of African traditional religion and draws similarities between the oral and written literature of West Africans and that of New World practitioners The influence of Islam and Christianity is also discussed Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here      Men to Men Lee N. June, Matthew Parker, 1996 A powerful collection of essays by black male scholars written to black men on issues that concern them today Titles include Risk and Failure as Preludes to Achievements The Criminal Justice System A Message to Young Black Males Keys to Sound Financial Planning and more      Africa's Slaves Today Jonathan Derrick, 2022-09-21 Africa's Slaves Today first published in 1975 examines the question of the persistence of slavery in modern Africa It concludes that slavery is by no means dead in certain regions but that at the same time clear cut definitions of slave and free are often impossible to establish In the Sahara particularly centuries of tradition involving slavery or semi slavery have ensured a persistence of the status quo in all but name Recent instances of Africans sold into slavery in Arabia are discussed together with a detailed survey of slavery throughout North Africa and Ethiopia At what stage forced labour becomes slavery is a difficult question raised by the discussion of the white South The whole subject of slavery is put into perspective by contrasting examinations of the historical situation throughout the book
