Preferential Option For The Poor:

The Preferential Option for the Poor beyond Theology Daniel G. Groody, Gustavo A. Gutiérrez, 2016-10-15 Since the 1973 publication of Gustavo Gutiérrez's groundbreaking work A Theology of Liberation liberation theology's central premise of the preferential option for the poor has become one of the most important yet controversial theological themes of the twentieth century. As the situation for many of the world's poor worsens it becomes ever more important to ensure that the option for the poor remains not only a vibrant theological concept but also a practical framework for living out the gift and challenge of Christian faith. The Preferential Option for the Poor beyond Theology draws on a diverse group of contributors to explore how disciplines as varied as law, economics, politics, the environment, science, liberal arts, film, and education can help us understand putting a commitment to the option for the poor into practice. The central focus of the book revolves around the question: How can one live a Christian life in a world of destitution? The contributors address the theological concept of the option for the poor as well as the ways it can shape our social, economic, political, educational, and environmental approaches to poverty. Their creative examples serve as an inspiration to all those who are seeking to put their talents at the service of human need and the building of a more just and humane world. Preferential Option for the Poor Usccb, 1996-12 Book 4 in the Faith Sharing series leads small groups through an examination of the theme in Catholic social teaching, centering on preferential options for and with the poor. The Formulation and Development of the Preferential Option for the Poor in Catholic Social Teaching Brendan Connell, 2020 The Preferential Option for the Poor is an official teaching of the Catholic Church and as such forms part of the lexicon of Catholic Social Teaching. This thesis pays homage to the teachings, theological and pastoral heritage, but then focuses on the Church's historical effectiveness to disseminate the teaching throughout the Catholic world. A Reader in Latina Feminist Theology María Pilar Aquino, Daisy L. Machado, Jeanette Rodríguez, 2010-01-01 Speaking for the growing community of Latina feminist theologians, the editors of this volume write: With the emergence and growth of the feminist theologies of liberation we no longer wait for others to define or validate our experience of life and faith. We want to express in our own words our plural ways of experiencing God and our plural ways of living our faith. And these ways have a liberative tone. With twelve original essays by emerging and established Latina feminist theologians, this first of its kind volume adds the perspectives, realities, struggles, and spiritualities of U.S. Latinas to the larger feminist theological discourse. The editors have gathered writings from both Roman Catholics and Protestants and from various Latino/a communities. The writers address a wide array of theological concerns: popular religion, denominational presence and attraction, methodology, lived experience, analysis of nationhood and interpretations of life lived on a border that is not only geographic but also racial, gendered, linguistic, and religious. The Preferential Option for the Poor and the Church in North America Darryl William Reed, 1987 Essential Writings Gustavo Gutiérrez, Part of The Making of Modern Theology series. This thorough introduction includes in one volume the whole range of Gutiérrez's thought: biblical theological methodological and historical This work also features a select bibliography of works by and on Gutierrez

Catholic Social Teaching, 1891-Present Charles E. Curran, 2002-03-30 Charles E Curran offers the first comprehensive analysis and criticism of the development of modern Catholic social teaching from the perspective of theology ethics and church history Curran studies the methodology and content of the documents of Catholic social teaching generally understood as comprising twelve papal letters beginning with Leo XIII s 1891 encyclical Rerum novarum two documents from Vatican II and two pastoral letters of the U S bishops He contends that the fundamental basis for this body of teaching comes from an anthropological perspective that recognizes both the inherent dignity and the social nature of the human person thus do the church s teachings on political and economic matters chart a middle course between the two extremes of individualism and collectivism The documents themselves tend to downplay any discontinuities with previous documents but Curran s systematic analysis reveals the significant historical developments that have occurred over the course of more than a century Although greatly appreciative of the many strengths of this teaching Curran also points out the weaknesses and continuing tensions in Catholic social teaching today Intended for scholars and students of Catholic social ethics as well as those involved in Catholic social ministry this volume will also appeal to non Catholic readers interested in an understanding and evaluation of Catholic social teaching
