Sanctioning Pregnancy Harriet Gross, Helen Pattison, 2007-05-07 Pregnancy provides a very public visual confirmation of femininity It is a time of rapid physical and psychological adjustment for women and is surrounded by stereotyping taboos and social expectations This book seeks to examine these popular attitudes towards pregnancy and to consider how they influence women s experiences of being pregnant Sanctioning Pregnancy offers a unique critique of sociocultural constructions of pregnancy and the ways in which it is represented in contemporary culture and examines the common myths which exist about diet exercise and work in pregnancy alongside notions of risk and media portrayals of pregnant women Topics covered include Do pregnant women change their diet and why Is memory really impaired in pregnancy How risky behaviour is defined from exercise to employment The biomedical domination of pregnancy research Different theoretical standpoints are critically examined including a medico scientific model feminist perspectives and bio psychosocial and psychodynamic approaches The Countess of Pembroke's Arcadia Philip Sidney, 2007-02-22 Basilius a foolish old duke consults an oracle as he imperiously wishes to know the future but he is less than pleased with what he learns To escape the oracle s horrific prophecies about his family and kingdom he withdraws into pastoral retreat with his wife and two daughters When a pair of wandering princes fall in love with the princesses and adopt disguises to gain access to them all manner of complications both comic and serious ensue Part pastoral romance part heroic epic Sidney s long narrative work was hugely popular for centuries after its first publication in 1593 inspiring two sequels and countless imitations and contributing greatly to the development of the novel Secrets Margaret Elizabeth, 2019-04-15 Maggie and Violet grew up in a small town in the south called Friendly They were best friends as far back as they could remember They were inseparable during their youth sharing all their memories and secrets Just before graduation Violet disappeared Maggie stayed home for a year hoping to find out more about her best friend s disappearance but eventually after no progress she moved to New York to join the FBI as a detective solving cold cases During those years she always hoped one of her cases would lead to learning more about Violet's disappearance but they never did. Now after twenty years with the FBI, Maggie has not been able to shake the feeling that something bad is going to happen if she doesn't return home to solve her childhood friend's disappearance. While taking a year off from the FBI, Maggie returns to Friendly only to find out that the night her best friend came up missing, Violet had a secret to tell her. What was this ever so important secret Violet had to tell Maggie moments before she came up missing? Could it be the cause of her disappearance? What really did ever happen to Maggie?

Handbook of Terror Management Theory Clay Routledge, Matthew Vess, 2018-11-13 Handbook of Terror Management Theory provides an overview of Terror Management Theory (TMT) including critical research derived from the theory, recent research that has expanded and refined the theory, and the many ways the theory has been utilized to understand domains of human social life. The book uses TMT as a lens to help understand human relationships to nature, cultural worldviews, the self, time, the body, attachment, group identification, religion, and faith, creativity, personal growth, and the brain. The first section reviews theoretical and methodological issues; the second focuses on basic research showing how TMT enhances our understanding of a wide range of phenomena; and the third section, Applications, uses TMT to solve a variety of real-world problems across different disciplines and contexts, including health, behavior, aging, psychopathology, terrorism, consumerism, the legal system, art, and media, risk-taking, and communication theory. Examines the three critical hypotheses behind Terror Management Theory (TMT). Distinguishes proximal and distal responses to death thoughts. Provides a practical toolbox for conducting TMT research. Covers the Terror Management Health Model. Discusses the neuroscience of fear and anxiety. Identifies how fear motivates consumer behavior. Relates fear of death to psychopathologies.

Pandemic John Mills, 2010-02 The trafficking, abuse, and addiction to illicit drugs have reached pandemic proportions, destroying many inner-city neighborhoods. Law-abiding citizens have locked themselves behind steel doors and barred windows. Open-air illicit drug markets are fueling the growth of violent street gangs and murders. National law enforcement agencies make thousands of illicit drug-related arrests daily. Countless narcotics, cocaine, and alcoholics' anonymous self-help meetings are held every day. However, the actions of these groups have done little to eliminate or curtail the trafficking and abuse of illicit drugs. The term "war on drugs" announced a campaign by the United States government to stop the flow of drugs into the country. In the first eight months of this year, the federal and state governments have spent 32 billion unsuccessfully fighting that war.

1. The forces that drive this pandemic are evil; they are demonic in nature. Therefore, this spiritual war can only be won with spiritual weapons.

New Modern Chinese Women and Gender Politics Chen Ya-chen, 2014-07-11 The past century witnessed dramatic changes in the lives of modern Chinese women and gender politics. Whilst some revolutionary actions to rectify the feudalist patriarchy, such as foot-binding and polygyny, were first seen in the late Qing period, the termination of the Qing Dynasty and establishment of Republican China in 1911-1912 initiated truly nation-wide constitutional reform alongside increasing gender egalitarianism. This book traces the radical changes in gender politics in China and the way in which the lives, roles, and status of Chinese women have been transformed over the last one hundred years In doing so it highlights three distinctive areas of development for modern Chinese women and gender politics first women s equal rights freedom careers and images about their modernized femininity second Chinese women s overseas experiences and accomplishments and third advances in Chinese gender politics of non heterosexuality and same sex concerns This book takes a multi disciplinary approach drawing on film history literature and personal experience As such it will be of huge interest to students and scholars of Chinese culture and society women s studies gender studies and gender politics

Reconciling Art and Mothering RachelEpp Buller,2017-07-05 Reconciling Art and Mothering contributes a chorus of new voices to the burgeoning body of scholarship on art and the maternal and for the first time focuses exclusively on maternal representations and experiences within visual art throughout the world This innovative essay collection joins the voices of practicing artists with those of art historians acknowledging the fluidity of those categories The twenty five essays of Reconciling Art and Mothering are grouped into two sections the first written by art historians and the second by artists Art historians reflect on the work of artists addressing motherhood including Marguerite G rd Chana Orloff and Ren Cox from the early nineteenth century to the present day Contributions by contemporary artist mothers such as Gail Rebhan Denise Ferris and Myrel Chernick point to the influence of past generations of artist mothers to the inspiration found in the work of maternally minded literary and cultural theorists and to attempts to broaden definitions of maternity Working against a hegemonic construction of motherhood the contributors discuss complex and diverse feminist mothering experiences from maternal ambivalence to queer mothering to quests for self fulfillment The essays address mothering experiences around the globe with contributors hailing from North and South America Europe Asia Africa and Australia

The Changing Landscape of Work and Family in the American Middle Class Elizabeth Rudd,Lara Descartes,2008-03-14 This collection explores the dynamics of the modern middle class American family and its near constant state of transition The editors introduce the book by situating it within the context of work family and ethnographic research on middle class families in the United States Emerging and established scholars contributed chapters based on their original field research following each chapter with a personal reflection on doing field work The volume concludes with an original essay by Kathryn Dudley an anthropologist who has spent decades studying the intersections of work family and class in American culture As a whole the volume highlights how culture shapes family life amid shifting social and economic landscapes The authors working in the fields of anthropology and sociology observed daily life at workplaces and in homes interviewing people about their work their children and their ideas about what makes a good family They report on their fieldwork in essays rich with the detail of everyday life revealing the fascinating diversity of American middle class families through chapters about gay co father families African American stay at home mothers first time fathers rural refugees from corporate America well off white mothers Taiwanese immigrant churches the fetal ultrasound and more The Changing Landscape of Work and Family in the American Middle Class is an excellent text for classes in anthropology sociology American culture family studies work and family and gender studies A Place Apart Maureen Lennon,2005-04 Fifteen year old Cathy Mugan surrounded by violence longs to find a place apart An unforgettable debut from Canadas next major author Refiguring Motherhood Beyond Biology Valerie Renegar,Kirsti Cole,2023-01-31 This book unpacks and interrogates dominant constructions of mothering making use of interdisciplinary ideological and theoretical perspectives to investigate how new rhetorics of mothering can expand the realm of maternal care givers beyond the biological definitions of motherhood This diverse collection is at the cutting edge of rhetoric feminism and motherhood studies and the chapters challenge the confines of biological parenting as heteronormative within the neo liberal nuclear family The contributors examine how despite the diversity of parental relationships many are excluded by the understanding of mothers biologically tied to their children The volume seeks to expose the underpinnings of biological primacy and argues that 21st century families and familial circumstances are ill served by biological ideology Topics include Re Imagining Queer Black Motherhood Chicana Feminist approaches to reproductive justice the commercialization and medicalization of infertility and ableism and motherhood This is a unique and fascinating book suitable for students and scholars in gender studies sexuality studies communication studies sociology and cultural studies Poets and the Visual Arts in Renaissance England Norman K. Farmer,2014-08-19 In the twentieth century the pioneering work of such art historians as Erwin Panofsky and Edgar Wind heightened our awareness of the relationship between Renaissance literature and the visual arts By focusing on that relationship in the work of such poets as Sir Philip Sidney John Donne Richard Crashaw Edmund Waller and Robert Herrick Norman K Farmer Jr convincingly shows that they and other writers of the late sixteenth and early seventeenth centuries in England wrote with a lively and creative sense of the visual a sense richly informed by the theory and practice of Renaissance art Farmer begins by describing the powerful visual matrix that underlies the narrative structure of Sidney s New Arcadia He compares the role of the visual in the poetry of Donne and Ben Jonson and demonstrates how works by both Thomas Carew and Lord Herbert exhibit poetic invention according to familiar Renaissance pictorial themes Herrick s Hesperides is shown to be the major seventeenth century poetic application of the Horatian idea ut pictura poesis A special feature of this gracefully written and enlightening volume is Farmer's discussion of Lady Drury's oratory at Hawstead Hall Published here for the first time are photographs of this uniquely decorated oratory in which themes from a variety of English and Continental emblem books were painted on the walls of a room apparently designed for private meditation The Andover review, eds. E.C. Smyth [and others]. Egbert Coffin Smyth, 1884
