

A Pregnancy Poem

Her body contorts, it stretches and marks.
The pain in her back growing as it arcs.
"It's natural", "it's beautiful" is all she is told.
It will all be worth it when you have a baby to hold.

It doesn't seem long and third trimester is here.

She grows more exhausted as the due date draws near.

The house is ready & bags are packed.
Their lives are about to change, that's a fact.

The first contractions begin and she thinks... they're okay.

Manageable with an hours drive to get out of the way.

As things progress it becomes quite intense.

Those labour stories once told were now making sense.

Pregnant Poems:

Pregnant Poems Anne Frances Walker, 1994-01-01      Wild Blessings Hilary Holladay, 2012-05-16 This book offers the first full length study of Lucille Clifton's poetry drawing on a broad knowledge of the American poetic tradition and African American poetry In addition to a new preface written after Clifton's death in 2010 this updated edition includes an epilogue that discusses the poetry she published after 2004 Page 4 of cover      She is Peace Anna Brown, 2023-06-28 She is peace Is a captivating collection of poetry designed exclusively for pregnant and expecting mothers It captures the profound essence of motherhood from conception to the cherished moment of childbirth Within the beautifully crafted verses mothers will find solace inspiration and celebration of the incredible journey they embark It goes beyond the physical aspect of pregnancy delving into the emotional and psychological aspect Ps Safe for mothers pregnant or not      Poems Matthew Arnold, 1896

Poems by Matthew Arnold Matthew Arnold, 1896      The Cracks Between What We Are and What We Are Supposed to Be Harryette Mullen, 2012-08-06 The Cracks Between What We Are and What We Are Supposed to Be forms an extended consideration not only of Harryette Mullen's own work methods and interests as a poet but also of issues of central importance to African American poetry and language women's voices and the future of poetry Together these essays and interviews highlight the impulses and influences that drive Mullen's work as a poet and thinker and suggest unique possibilities for the future of poetic language and its role as an instrument of identity and power      Modern Confessional Writing Jo Gill, 2006-03-29 A comprehensive and scholarly account of this popular and influential genre the essays in this collection explore confessional literature from the mid twentieth century to the present day and include the writing of John Berryman Anne Sexton Ted Hughes and Helen Fielding Drawing on a wide range of examples the contributors to this volume evaluate and critique conventional readings of confessionalism Orthodox humanist notions of the literary act of confession and its assumed relationship to truth authority and subjectivity are challenged and in their place a range of new critical perspectives and practices are adopted Modern Confessional Writing develops and tests new theoretically informed views on what confessional writing is how it functions and what it means to both writer and reader When read from these new perspectives modern confessional writing is liberated from the misconception that it provides a kind of easy authorial release and readerly catharsis and is instead read as a discursive self reflexive sophisticated and demanding genre      Poems at the Edge of Differences Renate Papke, 2008 This study consists of two parts The first part offers an overview of feminism's theory of differences The second part deals with the textual analysis of poems about mothering by women from India the Caribbean and Africa Literary criticism has dealt with the representation of mothering in prose texts The exploration of lyrical texts has not yet come Since the late 1970s the acknowledgement of and the commitment to difference has been foundational for feminist theory and activism This investigation promotes a differentiated locational feminism Friedman The comprehensive theoretical discussion of feminism's different concepts of gender race ethnicity and mothering builds the foundation for the main part the presentation and analysis of the poems The issue of mothering foregrounds the communicative aspect of women s experience and wants to bridge the gap between theory and practice This study however does not intend to specify mothering as a universal and unique feminine characteristic It underlines a metaphorical use and discusses the concepts of nurturing maternal practice and social parenthood Regarding the extensive material this study understands itself as an explorative not concluding investigation placed at the intersections of gender studies postcolonial and classical literary studies Most of all it aims at initiating a dialogue and interchange between scholars and students in the Western and the Third World

My Mother's Christian Poems Evangelist L.R. Beebe,2020-06-05 My mother Ida Laura Ann Beebe was a very devout Christian for the last eighteen years of her life After she rededicated her life to Jesus she read her Bible every day and wrote a lot of poems Her love for Jesus inspired her to write these poems and I m sure you will agree as you read them that her love is reflected in them and that you will be inspired to feel that love too and to give your heart to Jesus
