Prehistoric Women:

Lady Sapiens Thomas Ciotteau, Jennifer Kerner, Eric Pincas, 2022-09-12 45 000 years ago rare and precious statues of faceless women with hourglass figures sturdy hips and generous breasts surfaced across Europe Evaluating Evidence in Biological Anthropology Catherine M. Willermet, Cathy Willermet, Sang-Hee Lee, Sang-hŭi Yi (Professor of anthropology), 2020 A critical assessment of how evidence in biological anthropology is discovered collected and interpreted Uncredited Allison Tyra, 2025-05-06 Containing the histories of over 600 overlooked or disregarded women Uncredited is a testament to women's perseverance and the recognition they deserve for their accomplishments Women's accomplishments across history are showcased as aberrations or surprising facts Little thought is often given to the reasons why most of our lauded scientists reporters sports stars politicians and businesspeople all seem to be men Uncredited proves that not only have there been hundreds of ground breaking women in all professions but that their accomplishments have been overlooked denigrated or downright repressed by their male colleagues or historians Uncredited explores why women have not been properly acknowledged for their accomplishments both historically and today This book combines research and statistics with the stories of more than 600 women and is both an academic source and a fascinating read Prepare to be frustrated with the history you've been denied but also inspired by these hidden trailblazers Library of Congress Subject Headings

Library of Congress, 1994 Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress. Cataloging Policy and Support Office, 2009 Factory Girls Paul Chrystal, 2022-12-01 Ever since there have been factories women and children have more often than not worked in those factories What is perhaps less well known is that women also worked underground in coal mines and overground scaling the inside of chimneys Young children were also put to work in factories and coalmines they were deployed inside chimneys often half starved so that they could shin up ever narrower flues This book charts the unhappy but aspirational story of women and children at work through the Industrial Revolution to the beginning of the 20th century Without women there would have been no pre industrial cottage industries without women the Industrial Revolution would not have been nearly as industrial and nowhere near as revolutionary Many women and children were obliged to take up work in the mills and factories long hours dangerous often toxic conditions monotony bullying abuse and miserly pay were the usual hallmarks of a day's work before they headed homeward to their other job keeping home and family together This long overdue and much needed book also covers the social reformers the role of feminism and activism and the various Factory Acts and trade unionism We examine how women and children suffered chronic occupational diseases and disabling industrial injuries life changing and life shortening and often a one way ticket to the workhouse The book concludes with a survey of the art literature and the music which formed the soundtrack for the factory girl and the climbing boys Epic

Films Gary Allen Smith, 2009-02-05 Epic films those concerned with monumental events and larger than life characters cover the period from the Creation to the A D 1200s and have been churned out by Hollywood and overseas studios since the dawn of filmmaking Cecil B DeMille a master of the genre hit upon the perfect mixture of sex splendor and the sacred to lure audiences to his epic productions The 355 film entries include casts and credits plot synopsis and narratives on the making of the films There are 190 photographs in this edition Female Agency in Manuscript Cultures Eike

Grossmann,2024-06-17 Manuscript cultures have frequently forgotten neglected or even erased women s contributions from memory Women s agency has also been a glaring blind spot in the scholarly pursuit of gender perspectives on the production of written artefacts This volume addresses these lacunae by highlighting manuscripts and inscriptions by and for women their active participation and enabling sponsorship and their role in the circulation and dissemination of written artefacts Seven papers present case studies from East Asian inscriptions to ancient cuneiform epigraphic Egyptian graffiti from late antiquity to individual specimen and large scale collections in medieval Europe focusing on how women participated in and contributed to those How did they assert their involvement their claims and their aspirations By what rationales and mechanisms were they excluded or their contribution marginalised How did they react to structures that discriminated against them eventually circumventing subverting and transforming them The present volume sheds light on new findings gives unique insights and discusses methodological considerations in the budding field of women s manuscript studies
