Politics of Nostalgia in the Arabic Novel Wen-chin Ouyang, 2013-01-31 Explores the work of novelists including Naguib Mahfouz Abd al Khaliq al Rikabi Jamal al Ghitani Ben Salem Himmich Ali Mubarak Adonis Mahmoud Darwish and Nizar Qabbani to show how the development of the Arabic novel has created a politics of nostal A Poetics of Jesus Jeffrey F. Keuss, 2018-10-24 This title was first published in 2002 A Poetics of Jesus explores the act of writing within and between the boundaries of 19th century biblical criticism and fiction Reflecting on the work of Christian poetics after Augustine to Baur Feuerbach Friedrich Strauss and Victorian novelists of the eighteenth and nineteenth century this book breaks new ground in juxtaposing the evoked image of Christ arising from Victorian biblical criticism against the image of Christ within fiction letting both these images and the words that figured them interact This book offers a highly accessible introduction to 19th century literature and theology through comparisons made to contemporary post modern theorists Demonstrating how literature can inform theology without itself becoming theology this book constitutes an important contribution to the literature theology debate and a much needed contribution to contemporary Christology through its introduction to the literature and the writers central to the beginnings of the historical quest for Jesus      Selected Studies on Genre in Middle Eastern Literatures Hülya Çelik, Petr Kučera, 2023-07-07 The examination of literary genres in the Middle East opens the possibility of gaining new insights into the intellectual universe of Middle Eastern societies the question of production of meaning what literature meant in different historical periods and the underlying epistemology of producing knowledge and how this epistemology has changed over time This book comprises 12 case studies from the three major Middle Eastern languages Arabic Persian and Turkish written by experts in the field It brings together a wide range of approaches from the study of epics to an analysis of travelogues and from classical poetry to novels Instead of focusing on one period or juxtaposing the classical genres and the West induced development of modern genres the studies in their totality apply a broad diachronic and synchronic perspective with the potential to create a comparative framework for the study of the sociocultural and narratological dimensions of genre in the Middle East      Journey Towards Home S. Steve Park, 2017-03-14 Clives Staples Lewis 1898 1963 called his theological writings as that of a layman and an amateur who merely attempted to restate ancient and orthodox doctrines However S Steve Park argues that Lewis s theological reflections are well informed thoughtful and weighty For instance Lewis s notion of mere Christianity consistently shows his commitment to supernaturalism vs naturalism and eucatastrophic salvationism vs ethical developmentalism in sharp contrast to many prevailing theologians of his time In this book the author expounded Lewis s theological writings rather comprehensively and organized the results according to Lewis s signature literary motif of the journey towards home in four stages Away from Home Homeward Turning Home Away from Home and The Final Home Under these headings Lewis s major theological and literary themes find illuminating treatments with rich contents and penetrating analyses In so doing the author presents to the readers probably for the first time a systematic theology of C S Lewis It turns out that Lewis more than just a storyteller was a significant participant in the world of theological reflections demonstrating himself to be a rather formidable theological mind to be reckoned with      Secularism and the Pursuit of Transcendence, Volume II Stanley E. Porter, Wendy J. Porter, 2025-02-19 We live in a secular age or so we have been told Nevertheless the Christian church strongly believes that we still experience and in fact are surrounded by acts of transcendence encounters with God that often defy imagination and explanation And yet we do try to explain such phenomena whether theologically experientially biblically historically philosophically literarily or even or especially artistically These two volumes are more than just papers from a major conference on secularism and the pursuit of transcendence held at McMaster Divinity College in Hamilton Ontario They contain genuine attempts by people deeply engaged with their secular surroundings to explain what we mean by transcendence Transcendence has been a longstanding topic among the best thinkers of this and previous ages and the same is true for these volumes which include contributions by Charles Taylor Robert Wuthnow Merold Westphal and Christina Gschwandtner but also by a wide range of others who address the question from divergent vantage points The responses vary as much as the orientations of those involved in the pursuit of defining not only what it means to live in our secular age but to be involved in the pursuit of transcendence or even to perceive the Transcendent's pursuit of us      These Poems Those Times This God Believer Mitchell, 2010-06-15 In a world that is yet cold and without mercy and that is so full of despair and pain now comes a hope of healing that is transferable through the powerful words of this book In this impactful and life affirming book These Poems Those Times This God you'll take an inspirational journey through the life of a poet who documents and recounts the trying times of life that can easily crush us all if not then combated This referential book covers various topics of life such as Inspiration from God the state of our nation the state of the family the circle of love past hurts meeting future blessings religion versus relationship with God and praise and adoration for our creator in life The purpose of this book These Poems Those Times This God is to serve as a reference of truth and guidance for any man or woman boy or girl who then seeks direction when feeling misguided and to encourage the discouraged in life to yet keep their faith and trust in God For truly it's not about what a person has done or can do that then determines your future but rather how you respond to what they have done that then ultimately determines your fate      A Comet of the Enlightenment Johan C.-E. Stén, 2014-05-22 The Finnish mathematician and astronomer Anders Johan Lexell 1740-1784 was a long time close collaborator as well as the academic successor of Leonhard Euler at the Imperial Academy of Sciences in Saint Petersburg Lexell was initially invited by Euler from his native town of Åbo Turku in Finland to Saint Petersburg to assist in the mathematical processing of the astronomical data of the forthcoming transit of Venus of 1769 A few years later he became an ordinary member of the Academy This is the first ever full length biography devoted to Lexell and his prolific scientific output His rich correspondence especially from his grand tour to Germany France and England reveals him as a lucid observer of the intellectual landscape of enlightened Europe In the skies a comet a minor planet and a crater on the Moon named after Lexell also perpetuate his memory      Romanticism and Transcendence J. Robert Barth, 2003 Grounded in the thought of Samuel Taylor Coleridge Romanticism and Transcendence explores the religious dimensions of imagination in the Romantic tradition both theoretically and in the poetry of Wordsworth and Coleridge J Robert Barth suggests that we may look to Coleridge for the theoretical grounding of the view of religious imagination proposed in this book but that it is in Wordsworth above all that we see this imagination at work Barth first argues that the Romantic imagination with its profound symbolic import of its very nature has religious implications and notes parallels between Coleridge's view of the imagination and that of Ignatius Loyola in his Spiritual Exercises He then turns to the role of religious experience in Wordsworth using The Prelude as a privileged source Next after comparing the conception of humanity and God in Wordsworth and Coleridge Barth considers the role of religious experience and imagery in two of Coleridge's central poetic texts The Rime of the Ancient Mariner and Christabel Finally Barth examines the continuing role of the Romantic idea of the religious imagination today in literature and all the arts linking it with the thought of theologian Karl Rahner and literary critic George Steiner Romanticism and Transcendence brings together literary theory poetry and religious experience areas that are interrelated but are often not seen in relationship By exploring levels of Wordsworth s and Coleridge s poetry that are often ignored Barth provides insight into how and why the imagination was so important to their work He also demonstrates how rich with religious value and meaning poetry and the arts can be The interdisciplinary nature of this important new study will make it useful not only to Wordsworth and Coleridge scholars and other Romantic specialists but also to anyone concerned with the intellectual history of the nineteenth century and to theologians in general     Mentoring with Morgan Karen Schlack,2020-08-12 Our journey began the first day I preached a sermon in front of people Morgan told me after that sermon You must free yourself from the manuscript I couldn t imagine doing that and asked Morgan for help Our journey continued for fifteen years I shared my sermons written and video with Morgan and we engaged in conversations about preaching congregations struggles God and life Join us and watch as I learn to preach Morgan shares a lifetime of wisdom with me and we both receive the blessing of friendship and sharing ministry For anyone who presumes to preach and those who listen to their sermons this book peeks behind the screen to the place where sermons are made     The Journey Begins Maureen Reid,2020-02-08     The Sunday Magazine ,1876     The Poetics of Islamic Legitimacy Suzanne Pinckney Stetkevych,2002-10-17 transcends the realm of literature and poetic criticism to include virtually every field of Arabic and Islamic studies Roger Allen Throughout the classical Arabic literary tradition from its roots in pre Islamic Arabia until the end of the Golden Age in the 10th century the courtly ode or qasida dominated other poetic forms In The Poetics of Islamic Legitimacy Suzanne Stetkevych explores how this poetry relates to ceremony and political authority and how the classical Arabic ode encoded and promoted a myth and ideology of legitimate Arabo Islamic rule Beginning with praise poems to pre Islamic Arab kings Stetkevych takes up poetry in praise of the Prophet Mohammed and odes addressed to Arabo Islamic rulers She explores the rich tradition of Arabic praise poems in light of ancient Near Eastern rites and ceremonies gender and political culture Stetkevych s superb English translations capture the immediacy and vitality of classical Arabic poetry while opening up a multifaceted literary tradition for readers everywhere     Romanticism, Rhetoric and the Search for the Sublime, 2nd Edition Craig R. Smith,2023-01-23 Relying on the author s established expertise in rhetoric and political communication this book re contextualizes Romantic rhetorical theory from the late 18th and early 19th centuries to provide a foundation for a Neo Romantic rhetorical theory for our own time In the process it uses a unique methodology to correct misconceptions about the rhetorical theories of many writers Using a dialectical approach the early chapters trace Romanticism through its opposition to the industrial revolution and the Enlightenment back through Humanism and its opposition to Scholasticism to its roots in St Augustine s writing These chapters include a revisionist analysis of the church s treatment of Galileo in the course of showing how difficult it was for scientific study to be accepted in Scholastic circles The study goes on to argue that Jean Jacques Rousseau David Hume and Edmund Burke were bridge figures to the Romantic Era

This move throws new light on exemplary painters composers writers and orators of the Romantic Era who are examined in chapters eight and nine Chapter ten focuses on Percy Bysshe Shelley and his development of the rhetorical poem and thereby provides a new genre in the Romantic catalogue Chapter Eleven turns to the Romantic rhetorical theories of Hugh Blair and Thomas De Quincey to empower those seeking to save the environment The concluding chapter then synthesizes their theories with relevant contemporary rhetorical theories thereby constructing a Neo Romantic theory for our own time In the process the book links the Romantics love of nature to the current environmental crisis

Landscapes of Movement James E. Snead, Clark L. Erickson, J. Andrew Darling, 2011-09-01 The essays in this volume document trails paths and roads across different times and cultures from those built by hunter gatherers in the Great Basin of North America to causeway builders in the Bolivian Amazon to Bronze Age farms in the Near East through aerial and satellite photography surface survey historical records and excavation

Gaining a Face James Prothero, Donald T. Williams, 2013-11-18 Contrary to the popular perception that C S Lewis was merely a religious writer there is a good case to be made for Lewis being one of the major British writers of the twentieth century if we look at him as a prime member of a resurgent Romantic movement after the Second World War Much has been written on Lewis's thoughts on joy a central aspect of his Romanticism However Lewis was at the same time a rationalist and managed to merge his Rationalism with his Romanticism in a unique and original manner And his Romanticism likewise was complex and owed much to both George MacDonald and through the medium of MacDonald's thought to the Romanticism of William Wordsworth This study traces the aspects of Lewis's romantic thought as it is drawn from MacDonald Wordsworth and other influences and traces how beyond his fascination with joy Lewis constructed a consistent romantic vision that allowed for a balance with reason and stood in contradiction to the literary movements of his time

Pindar's Poetics of Immortality Asya C. Sigelman, 2016-07-19 Modern scholarship tends to focus on the social political and economic information that can be gleaned from Pindar's treatment of the subject of his victory odes the athlete who brings immortality to his family and polis In this book Asya C Sigelman offers a new approach to the odes exploring the fact that Pindar's language and imagery suggest that the athlete's victory is only a weaker version of the poet's immortalizing feat Examining several central Pindaric images Sigelman shows that they are fundamentally reflexive structured as expressions of poetic creativity engaged in a perpetual synthesis of intra poetic time of the unity of the past present and future of the world of Pindar s song As the book s case studies of several of the odes demonstrate this synthesis is key to Pindar s notion of immortalization and constitutes the central poetic subject of Pindar s song which underlies and informs its praise of the victorious athlete
