Preparing For Christian Ministry An Evangelical Approach:

Preparing for Christian Ministry David P. Gushee, Walter C. Jackson, 1996-09-01 Encouragement for students to reflect on the nature and task of ministry in the 21st century and to seek education to equip them for ministry Preparing for Ministry George M. Hillman, Most seminaries now require their students to get real world training by way of supervised theological field education This volume presents the wide array of issues that must be understood in order to integrate theological education and practical ministry including the importance of theological field education its purpose and challenges the need for flexibility in meeting different students needs and the resources available to create a meaningful and educational experience Developing a Process for Christian Leaders Dr. Johnny J. Boudreaux, 2009-12-30 This book will lower your excitement about religion but will intensify your pursuit to establish the kingdom here on earth I never cease to be amazed at how so many who say they are followers of Jesus Christ can believe that Jesus has stopped forgiving healing and calling leaders into His vineyards when there is so much to do This book is here to let everyone know that He Jesus has not returned yet but His power still generates in those who have accepted Him as their Lord and savior and are willing to hold on to the faith Leadership style does not mean that the agenda is different Many leaders today are uncomfortable with the presence of another approach to ministry It calls for us to observe that all the apostles had different styles in approaching situations and difficulties yet the ministry of Jesus was their priority alone Leadership just as everyone else will have to make adjustments as long as leading is on the agenda and in process A critical engagement with theological education in Africa Johannes J. Knoetze, Alfred R. Brunsdon, 2022-02-07 The higher education landscape has arguably become one of the most arduous to traverse More so in the African context where a host of variables continuously challenge educators to reflect critically on their philosophies and practices as they engage an ever changing audience In this book a critical engagement with theological education in Africa is offered As the book originates from South Africa it is presented as a South African perspective although contributors are situated accross the African continent and abroad The common denominator is that all contributors are in some way or another invested in theological education in Africa The main contribution of this collaborative work is to be sought in the insights it offers on four main areas of theological education A historical and current orientation on theological education in Africa some paradigm shifts in theological education in Africa ministerial formation needs versus theological education challenges and a critical reflection on elective models and methods The book presents the original and innovative research of scholars for fellow scholars involved in theological higher education as it is grounded in the respective fields of interest of each contributor It contributes to a better understanding of the complex African theological higher education landscape that is also mindful of post COVID 19 realities Methodologically the work draws on a combination of methods including literature studies empirical work and in some cases sectional offerings from doctoral studies as indicated in the various chapters Changing Our Mind David P. Gushee, 2017-05-31 Every generation has its hot button issue writes David P Gushee For us it s the LGBT issue In Changing Our Mind Gushee takes the reader along his personal and theological journey as he changes his mind about gay lesbian bisexual and transgender inclusion in the Church With 19 books to his name Gushee is no stranger to the public arena He is the author of the Evangelical Declaration Against Torture and drafted the Evangelical Climate Initiative For decades now David Gushee has earned the reputation as America s leading evangelical ethicist In this book he admits that he has been wrong on the LGBT issue writes Brian D McLaren author and theologian In the definitive third edition of this book David Gushee issues a scholarly response to his critics Brian D McLaren says it best Not only is David Gushee s work deep thoughtful and brilliant and not only is David philosophically and theologically careful and astute he is also refreshingly clear and understandable by common people who know neither philosophical nor theological mumbo jumbo

The New Guidebook for Pastors Mac Brunson, James W. Bryant, 2007 The New Guidebook for Pastors is written in the tradition of classics like Criswell s Guidebook for Pastors But since most pastoral guidebooks available today date back to 1980 or earlier this new resource by Mac Brunson and James W Bryant will offer fresh experience based encouragement to all pastors in their pursuit of excellence and development in their God called profession Among the twenty chapters are The Pastor and His Call The Pastor and His Family The Pastor and His Staff The Pastor and Worship The Pastor and Finances The Pastor Wedding and Funerals The Pastor Politics and Moral Issues and The Pastor and His Denomination

In the Fray David P. Gushee, 2014-05-12 In the Fray collects David Gushee s most significant essays over twenty years as a Christian intellectual Most of the essays were written in situations of ethical conflict on the highly contested ground of Christian public ethics Topics addressed include torture climate change marriage and divorce the treatment of gays and lesbians in the church war genocide nuclear weapons race global poverty faith and politics Israel Palestine and even whether Christian ethics is a real academic discipline Quite visible in the collection is Gushee s deep research interest in the Nazi era in Germany and how the churches fared in resisting Nazi intimidations and seductions and finally the Holocaust All essays reflect the desire for a church that has learned the lessons of that period a church with resistance to racism militarism nationalism and other social ideological toxins and with the discernment and courage to resist these in favor of a courageous allegiance to the lordship of Christ at the time of testing Considerable attention is directed to contesting some of the public ethics found in the author s own US evangelical Christian community Concluding reflections on Gushee s ethical vision are offered in an illuminating essay by senior Christian ethicist Glen Harold Stassen

Towns,2009-09-15 The early believers of Jesus Christ knew that they were not just members of an organization nor were they just an extension of Old Testament Judaism They knew that they were followers of the living Lord Jesus Christ They were members of a thing called the church Through the centuries the church has been the most powerful transforming force in history Yet in America many observe it as anemic and powerless Author Elmer Towns contends that there is good news there are many things that are still right with the church What Is Right with the Church affirms the positive things that are present in the church today and what will carry it forward as a transforming force This book is not a defense of the traditional church nor does it run to embrace all new forms of worship Rather this book examines the biblical nature of church allowing the best to come forth It is not a book about old churches new churches or home churches It is a book about what is right about every true church no matter the expression history or culture A growing number of people are not aware of the enduring strengths of the church The author contends that if believers in Christ are to effectively move forward with healthy communities and a vibrant faith in this new century they must be established on foundational biblical truths and core values And when this happens the church thrives as a transforming force Encyclopedia of Christian Education George Thomas Kurian, Mark A.
