Preparing Sunday Without the Eucharist Andrew Britz, Zita Maier, 1997 Using basic principles of good liturgy this book helps Catholic communities facing the reality of meeting for worship without the eucharist to continue to prepare spiritually nourishing celebrations

Liturgical Catechesis of Sunday Celebrations in the Absence of a Priest Veronica C. Rosier, 2002 The number of Catholic communities with no priest available to celebrate Sunday Eucharist has increased steadily over 60 years For many other forms of Sunday celebration are the statistical norm This dramatic development coincides with Vatican II's insistence on liturgical catechesis for the baptised the main source of their Christian spirit comes from active participation in the liturgy especially the Sunday Eucharist Celebrating the liturgy in all its symbolic fullness leads to inner participation in the mystery A more profound appropriation of this living relationship with Christ comes about through well celebrated rites and reflection on personal experience of the rites Yet liturgical catechesis is largely ignored or dismissed because it is not understood Liturgical celebrations frequently lack the vitality capable of leading people into the depth of the sacred mysteries they celebrate Sunday celebrations in the absence of a priest are no exception This book presents a systematic treatment of the modern church's teaching on liturgical catechesis It proposes ten general principles of liturgical catechesis These principles are used to explore and criticize the Directory for Sunday Celebrations in the Absence of a Priest 1988 as well as the rituals prepared from the Directory by the USA and Canada Even when there can be no Sunday Mass in parishes hospitals and nursing homes navy ships and jails liturgical prayer is to be a privileged place of evangelisation catechesis spirituality and discipleship in Christ

The Theory and Practice of Extended Communion Phillip Tovey, 2016-02-24 Three churches have recently produced liturgies for extended communion This is the distribution of previously consecrated elements at a public service by lay people or a deacon in the absence of a priest This development began in the Roman Catholic Church with the Vatican Directory on Sunday Worship in the absence of a priest in 1988 The Methodist Church produced a service of Extended Communion in 1999 and the Church of England authorized Public Worship with Communion by Extension in 2001 In this book Phillip Tovey examines these churches to discover the reasons for the production of these services and their theological rationale An in depth examination of case studies draws conclusions highly relevant to the wider church
