Presences New Selected Poems:

A Poetry of Presence Bernard I. Duffey, 1986 William Carlos Williams was an inventive writer never confined by any static genre or aesthetic postulate In this authoritative study Bernard Duffey recognizes that literary dynamism as he approaches the full breadth of Williams's work including his poetry prose fiction and drama as an interrelated and interdependent web of writing The result the first truly comprehensive examination of a major American author and his kinetic art will interest students and scholars of Williams American literature and modern poetry and criticism Central to Duffey's study is a critical framework based on Kenneth Burke's A Grammar of Motives and the perception of the poet as an agent working in relation to a scene and its content in this case the geographical and cultural locale that Williams clung to Williams's work Duffey argues was informed by the dramatic sense of himself as a literary actor seeking embodiment of a dynamic altering whole and his present condition of being Ultimately he stresses the writer was more engaged in expressing literary action than in forging literary objects Duffey amplifies this critical view through a close reading of specific works Examining Williams's principal writings in the lights that seem most immediate to them he tackles a variety of themes the pervasiveness of scene in In the American Grain and the fiction the role of agent or poetic person in Kora in Hell A Voyage to Pagany Paterson and Pictures from Brueghel the function of poetic agency in the short poems and of poetic action in Williams's drama

Indigenous Education and the Metaphysics of Presence Carl Mika, 2017-03-16 Indigenous Education and the Metaphysics of Presence A worlded philosophy explores a notion of education called worldedness that sits at the core of indigenous philosophy This is the idea that any one thing is constituted by all others and is therefore educational to the extent that it is formational A suggested opposite of this indigenous philosophy is the metaphysics of presence which describes the tendency in dominant Western philosophy to privilege presence over absence This book compares these competing philosophies and argues that even though the metaphysics of presence and the formational notion of education are at odds with each other they also constitute each other from an indigenous worlded philosophical viewpoint Drawing on both Maori and Western philosophies this book demonstrates how the metaphysics of presence is both related and opposed to the indigenous notion of worldedness Mika explains that presence seeks to fragment things in the world underpins how indigenous peoples can represent things and prevents indigenous students critics and scholars from reflecting on philosophical colonisation However the metaphysics of presence from an indigenous perspective is constituted by all other things in the world and Mika argues that the indigenous student and critic can re-emphasise worldedness and destabilise presence through creative responses humour and speculative thinking This book concludes by positioning well being within education because education comprises acts of worldedness and presence This book will be of key interest to indigenous as well as non indigenous academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of philosophy of education indigenous and Western philosophy political strategy and post colonial studies It will also be relevant for those who are interested in philosophies of language

ontology metaphysics and knowledge The Medieval Presence in Modernist Literature Jonathan Ullyot, 2016 This book rethinks the influence that early medieval studies and Grail narratives had on modernist literature Through examining several canonical works from Henry James The Golden Bowl to Samuel Beckett's Molloy Ullyot argues that these texts serve as a continuation of the Grail legend inspired by medieval scholarship The Doctrine of the Real Presence Edward Bouverie Pusey, 1855 Romantic Presences in the Twentieth Century Mark Sandy, 2016-04-08 Concerned with the intermingled thematic and formal preoccupations of Romantic thought and literary practice in works by twentieth century British Irish and American artists this collection examines the complicated legacy of Romanticism in twentieth century novels poetry and film Even as key twentieth century cultural movements have tried to subvert or debunk Romantic narratives of redemptive nature individualism perfectibility and the transcendence of art the forms and modes of feeling associated with the Romantic period continue to exert a signal influence on the modern moment both as a source of tension and as creative stimulus As the essays here show the exact meaning of the Romantic bequest may be bitterly contested but it has been difficult to leave behind The contributors take up a wide range of authors including Virginia Woolf F Scott Fitzgerald W H Auden Doris Lessing Seamus Heaney Hart Crane William Faulkner Don DeLillo and Jonathan Franzen What emerges from this lively volume is a fuller picture of the persistence and variety of the Romantic period's influence on the twentieth century

Presences and Absences - Transdisciplinary Essays Katarína Labudová, Nóra Séllei, 2013-10-03 This volume discusses the question of presence and or absence from a transdisciplinary perspective and intends to provide insights into how a wide range of disciplines addresses this issue which has been at the centre of philosophical theoretical and critical debates in the past decades As the essays in the volume prove apparently diverse areas can have a lot in common and talk to each other in sometimes surprising ways The topics discussed include modals in various languages and black slave funeral sermons pragmatic markers and the Australian Stolen Generation the transcendental in poems by Ann Bradstreet Arthur Symonds and Philip Larkin short stories by Katherine Mansfield generic presences in Virginia Woolf and contemporary journalism haunting presences in fin de siècle ghost stories and in a contemporary horror film mythical structures in John Cowper Powys and Margaret Atwood and gender politics in Pat Barker and Sarah Waters The analyses as they talk to each other create multiple dialogues without imposing closures and ultimate interpretations on the plethora of possible meanings emerging from the juxtaposition of these essays This transdisciplinary volume written in an erudite but reader friendly language will be of great interest to both the academic world as well as a broader readership interested in how linguistic phenomena in general cultural myths of all kinds various cinematic literary and journalistic genres from diverse periods can be approached and opened up to new readings and meanings from the perspective of presences and absences Whitman's Presence Tenney Nathanson, 1994-03 Nathanson addresses with renewed insight a problem that has vexed Whitman scholars at least since James E Miller Jr's A Critical Guide to Leaves of Grass turned Whitman into a respectable academic subject that is the unusual status of Whitman's poetic voice. The overall result is the finest articulation of Whitman's project in existence. Donald Pease, Department of English, Dartmouth College. What enables Nathanson to perform a feat no other critic has accomplished depends as much on his awareness of a range of thinkers from Wittgenstein to J. L. Austin and Derrida as on his sense of the qualities of poetry he gives the term presence a cultural as well as poetic significance which opens out to cultural history and makes Whitman as much a representative presence in the culture as our unequalled poet. I see this as a central book about our literature. Quentin Anderson, J. C. Levi, Professor in the Humanities Emeritus, Columbia University.

The Presence of Pessoa George Monteiro, 2021-12-14. Fernando Pessoa 1888-1935 is perhaps the most engaging of the great Western modernists of this century. Born in Portugal but raised and educated in southern Africa, Pessoa wrote poetry, fiction, and nonfiction. George Monteiro provides refreshingly new interpretations of Pessoa's Mensagem (Message) and the modernist novella O Banqueiro Anarquista (The Anarchist Banker). But he is primarily interested in tracing Pessoa's influence on a wide range of contemporary writers. Among those Monteiro finds putting Pessoa's work to their own surprising and sometimes comic uses are Joyce, Carol Oates, Allen Ginsberg, John Wain, Lawrence Ferlinghetti, and earlier poets including Thomas Merton, Edouard Roditi, and Roy Campbell. In addition, the complete text of Campbell's pioneering biocritical study of Pessoa is published here for the first time.

The Presence of Nature S. James, 2009-11-19. Are any nonhuman animals conscious? Why, if at all, should we strive to conserve natural environments? In what sense are we parts of nature? Simon James draws on a range of philosophical and literary sources to develop original answers to these and other questions, setting out a refreshingly new approach to environmental philosophy.

The African Presence in Black America Jacob U. Gordon, 2004. Accepting the basic premise that Africa is the ancestral homeland of black Americans raises questions as to how much, if any, of African cultural heritage remains within that community. Some claim that the severity of the plantation system and the acculturation process of the slaves could not have left any Africanism in the New World, while others argue that African cultural heritage can still be seen today in many aspects of American life and thought. This volume revisits the debate, examining the ways in which this alleged cultural heritage manifests itself.

Poetic Images, Presence, and the Theater of Kenotic Rituals Enikő Sepsi, 2021-09-29. This book explores the interrelation of contemporary French theatre and poetry. Using the pictorial turn in the various branches of art and science, its observable features, and the theoretical framework of the conceptual metaphor, this study seeks to gather together the divergent manners in which French poetry and theatre address this turn. Poetry in space and theatricality of poetry are studied alongside theatre, especially to the performative aspect of the originally theological concept of kenosis. In doing so, the author attempts to make use of the theological concept of kenosis of central importance in Novarina's oeuvre for theatrical and dramaturgical purposes. Within poetic rituals, kenotic rituals are also examined in the book in a few theatrical practices. János Pilinszky and Robert Wilson, Jerzy Grotowski, and Eugenio Barba, facilitating a better understanding of Novarina's works. Accompanied by new English translations in the appendices, this is the first English language monograph related to the French essayist dramaturg and director Val re Novarina s theatre and will be of great interest to students and scholars in theatre and literature studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

Personhood and Presence Ewan Kelly,2012-03-08 The greatest asset which people in pastoral care offer in a caring relationship is themselves or to be more precise the aspects of self which they have reflected upon Offering oneself to other people in order to provide companionship along the road of life especially when the particular stage on the journey is one of anticipated or actual loss is an act which is both challenging and yet potentially life enhancing for a carer The purpose of this book is to offer an aid to those who seek to understand themselves better with a view to enhancing the quality of spiritual and pastoral care they offer Here the reference point for reflexivity is the caring relationship Yet as we are fundamentally the same beings in personal and professional relationships readers may also find stimulus to reflect on what they bring to a variety of relationships including that with the Sacred and indeed themselves

Sacramental Presence Ruthanna B. Hooke,2023-05-22 Drawing on performance studies and sacramental and liturgical theology Ruthanna B Hooke develops a theology of proclamation grounded in the body s experience of preaching The author explores the claim that preaching is a sacramental event of communion with the triune God by comparing the steps involved in voice production with the fourfold shape of the Eucharist. This comparison yields a description of preaching as an event of self offering that allows space for the humanity of the preacher and as an encounter with the Holy Spirit that is communal and prophetic. Preaching draws participants into Christ's dying and rising and hence into a mode of power known in vulnerability. Calling hearers into the eschatological event of the resurrection, preaching inherently moves toward proclamation on political and ethical issues. Hooke uses this theological framework to offer ways of preaching on environmental crisis and on racism. The author calls preachers to embodied engagement with preaching and describes a way for preachers to bear witness to Jesus Christ not only in the content of their proclamation but in their way of being in the preaching event. God's Wider Presence Robert K. Johnston, 2014-10-14. What are we to make of those occasional yet illuminating experiences of God's presence that occur outside both church and Scripture? We may encounter God's revelatory presence as we experience a beautiful sunset, the birth of a child, or a work of art, music, or literature. While theologians have tended to describe such experiences abstractly as mere traces or echoes, those involved often recognize such moments of transcendence as transformative. Here senior theologian Robert Johnston explores how Christians should think theologically about God's wider revelatory presence that is mediated outside the church through creation, conscience, and culture. The book offers a robust, constructive biblical theology of general revelation, rooting its insights in the broader Trinitarian work of the Spirit. Drawing in part from the author's theological engagement with film and the arts, the book helps Christians understand personal moments of experiencing God's transcendence and accounts for revelatory experiences of those outside the believing community. It also shows how God's revelatory presence can impact our interaction with nonbelievers and those of other faiths. Kathleen Jamie Rachel Falconer, 2014-12-09. No detailed description available for Kathleen Jamie. International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004-08-02. The 13th edition of the International Who's Who in Poetry is a unique and comprehensive guide to the leading lights and freshest talent in poetry today. Containing biographies of more than 4,000 contemporary poets worldwide, this essential reference work provides truly international coverage. In addition to the well-known poets, talented up-and-coming writers are also profiled. Contents: Each entry provides full career history and publication details. An international appendices section lists prizes and past prize winners, organizations, magazines, and publishers. A summary of poetic forms and rhyme schemes. The career profile section is supplemented by lists of Poets Laureate, Oxford University professors of poetry, poet winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature, winners of the Pulitzer Prize for American Poetry, and of the King's/Queen's Gold medal and other poetry prizes. Thinking Its Presence Dorothy J. Wang, 2013-12-04. When will American poetry and poetics stop viewing poetry by racialized persons as a secondary subject within the field? Dorothy J. Wang makes an impassioned case that now is the time. Thinking Its Presence calls for a radical rethinking of how American poetry is being read today, offering its own reading as a roadmap. While focusing on the work of five contemporary Asian American poets, Li Young Lee, Marilyn Chin, John

Yau Mei mei Berssenbrugge and Pamela Lu the book contends that aesthetic forms are inseparable from social political and historical contexts in the writing and reception of all poetry Wang questions the tendency of critics and academics alike to occlude the role of race in their discussions of the American poetic tradition and casts a harsh light on the double standard they apply in reading poems by poets who are racial minorities This is the first sustained study of the formal properties in Asian American poetry across a range of aesthetic styles from traditional lyric to avant garde Wang argues with conviction that critics should read minority poetry with the same attention to language and form that they bring to their analyses of writing by white poets

A Gift of Presence Jan Heiner Tück, 2018-06 Jan Heiner Tück presents a work that explores the sacramental theology lived spirituality and Eucharistic poetry of the Church's doctor communis St Thomas Aquinas Although Aquinas Eucharistic poetry has long occupied an important place in the Church's liturgical prayer and her repertoire of sacred music the depth of these poems remains hidden until one grasps the rich sacramental theology underlying it Consequently Tück first offers a detailed but approachable primer of Aquinas theology of the sacraments before diving deeply into the Angelic Doctor's theology and poetry of the Eucharist The Scriptural accounts stand at the heart of the systematic framework developed by Aquinas and thus significant attention is devoted to showing the harmony between the accounts of Christ's passion and the detailed exposition of the Summa theologiae Moreover the Eucharistic controversies of the ninth and eleventh centuries provide the contrapuntal context in which Aquinas did his thinking praying and writing Not surprisingly therefore the response he crafts to these controversies draws upon both speculative powers and contemplative prayer brought together in the unity of Aquinas theology and spirituality The net result is a twofold treasure for the Church a careful systematic presentation of Eucharistic theology and the lived devotional expression of the same in the carefully constructed and now much beloved stanzas of Pange lingua gloriosi Lauda Sion Adoro te devote etc By revealing the lively interplay of the saint's powerful speculative intellect and a heart steeped in love for the Eucharistic Lord Tück offers a sophisticated exposition of Aquinas Eucharistic poetry and the roots it sinks into a wider theological framework Finally the contemporary significance and power of Aquinas work is drawn out not only in the rarefied realm of intellectual inquiry but also in the everyday expanse of ordinary life
