Preserving Cultural Landscapes In America Centers On Contemporary Landscape Design:

Preserving Cultural Landscapes in America Arnold R. Alanen, Robert Melnick, 2000 Historic preservation efforts began with an emphasis on buildings especially those associated with significant individuals places or events Subsequent efforts were expanded to include vernacular architecture but only in recent decades have preservationists begun shifting focus to the land itself Cultural landscapes such as farms gardens and urban parks are now seen as projects worthy of the preservationist s attention

New Cultural Landscapes Maggie Roe, Ken Taylor, 2014-01-21 While historical and protected landscapes have been well studied for years the cultural significance of ordinary landscapes is now increasingly recognised This groundbreaking book discusses how contemporary cultural landscapes can be and are created and recognised The book challenges common concepts of cultural landscapes as protected or special landscapes that include significant buildings or features Using case studies from around the world it questions the usual measures of judgement related to cultural landscapes and instead focuses on landscapes that are created planned or simply evolve as a result of changing human cultures management policy and practice Each contribution analyses the geographical and human background of the landscape and policies and management strategies that impact upon it and defines the meanings of cultural landscape in its particular context Taken together they establish a new paradigm in the study of landscapes in all forms

Preservation briefs , The Politics and Practices of Cultural Heritage in the Middle East Irene Maffi, 2014-04-21 During the nineteenth century cultural heritage became a dominant feature of the political ideology of the European states and of their colonies It became a new form of legitimization for the rising nation state cementing its inextricable link with that nation's politics and practices The set of concepts and practices defining cultural heritage were exported to and imposed over the colonized populations in North Africa and the Near East The legacy of the colonial period has proven very significant in the domain of cultural heritage which has become a crucial cultural arena in many Arab states As in the majorities of post colonial states in the Arab world the inherited paradigm of cultural heritage has been subject to various forms of adaption and re elaboration that have made it a lively and complex space of negotiations between various actors Thus in The Politics of Cultural Heritage in the Middle East Irene Maffi and Rami Daher draw together expert scholars to unravel these complex processes that are involved in the definition production and consumption of heritage and its material culture in the Middle East and the dynamics of the key actors involved The variety of the cases analysed that cover the region from Morocco to Lebanon as well as the multiplicity of the actors concerned such as the state post colonial or colonial international organizations municipal councils local communities families and even exceptional personalities highlights and explores the complex processes where very local and specific dynamics intertwine with transnational economic political and cultural fluxes In its examination of the workings of cultural heritage in the Middle East this book is an important resource for students and scholars of Middle East Studies Cultural History History of Art and Architecture and for stakeholders involved in the field of cultural heritage

CRM Bulletin United States. National Park Service. Cultural Resources Management Division,1994 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2001 Art and Cultural Heritage Barbara T. Hoffman,2006 Art and Cultural Heritage is appropriately but not solely about national and international law respecting cultural heritage It is a bubbling cauldron of law mixed with ethics philosophy politics and working principles looking at how cultural heritage law policy and practice should be sculpted from the past as the present becomes the future Art and cultural heritage are two pillars on which a society builds its identity its values its sense of community and the individual The authors explore these demanding concerns untangle basic values and look critically at the conflicts and contradictions in existing art and cultural heritage law and policy in its diverse sectors The rich and provocative contributions collectively provide a reasoned discussion of the issues from a multiplicity of views to permit the reader to understand the theoretical and philosophical underpinnings of the cultural heritage debate The Preservation of Historic Architecture ,2004 The National Park Service s official advice on preserving and restoring historic buildings International Concepts in Protected Landscapes ,2001

Landscapes of a New Cultural Economy of Space Theano S. Terkenli,Anne-Marie d'Hauteserre,2006-03-09 The purpose of the book is to tie together various perspectives insights and constructions pertaining to contemporary landscapes and landscape representations from different theoretical and methodological positions as well as from diverse geographical and historical contexts in order to elucidate and illustrate processes of cultural transformation inscribed in space The unifying theme as well as the main goal and prospective contribution then lies in the exploration of these developing forces and characteristics of the new cultural economy of space in the contemporary landscape s The primary objective of bringing together geographical perspectives from various subdisciplinary fields is to examine and discuss ways in which the complexities of this newly emerging cultural economy of space are applied on various sorts of landscapes i e urban and rural landscapes landscapes of everyday life landscapes of tourism and recreation postcolonial and hybrid landscapes landscapes of economic production landscapes of the street and of public life national landscapes and so on The overarching question thus is how do these processes work in different geographical contexts and contribute to place and landscape creation

Landscape Architectural Graphic Standards Leonard J. Hopper, 2006-10-13 Landscape Architectural Graphic Standards is an entirely new definitive reference work for everyone involved with landscape architecture design and construction Based on the 70 year success of Architectural Graphic Standards this new book is destined to become the bible for the landscape field Edited by an educator and former president of the American Society of Landscape Architects it provides immediate access to rules of thumb and standards used throughout the planning design construction and management of landscapes View sample pages from Landscape Architectural Graphic Standards Avery Index to Architectural Periodicals. 2d Ed., Rev. and Enl Avery Library, 1996 Preserving Modern Landscape Architecture Charles A.
