Spaces of Spirituality Nadia Bartolini,Sara MacKian,Steve Pile,2018-02-15 Spirituality is too often subsumed under the heading of religion and treated as much the same kind of thing Yet spirituality extends far beyond the spaces of religion The spiritual makes geography strange challenging the relationship between the known and the unknown between the real and the ideal and prompting exciting possibilities for charting the ineffable spaces of the divine which lie somehow beyond geography In setting itself that task this book pushes the boundaries of geographies of religion to bring into direct focus questions of spirituality By seeing religion through the lens of practice rather than as a set of beliefs geographies of religion can be interpreted much more widely bringing a whole range of other spiritual practices and spaces to light The book is split into three sections each contextualised with an editors introduction to explore the spaces of spiritual practice the spiritual production of space and spiritual transformations This book intends to open to up new questions and approaches through the theme of spirituality pushing the boundaries on current topics and introducing innovative new ideas including esoteric or radical spiritual practices This landmark book not only captures a significant moment in geographies of spirituality but acts as a catalyst for future work subsequent attempt to erase her from a significant leadership position and the pages of history This case underscores how Pentecostalism which presents as egalitarian engages in and perpetuates gender disparity revealing the realities that are crashed every day This book further explores the profound ambiguities that result from an underlying commitment to patriarchy making the calls to inclusivity illogical In contrast she proposes the advantages of the Pentecost Experience as favorable background to gender inclusivity and in turn human flourishing Lady's Realm ,1903 Changing the Subject Mary McClintock Fulkerson,2001-01-25 The author shows the many ways in which women s scriptural performances are liberating Shifting decisively from women s experience to discursive practices she offers three sample readings of emancipatory discourses from diverse social locations that better display the variety of ways in which women are oppressed and resistant

Public Theology and the Challenge of Feminism Stephen Burns,Anita Monro,2015-05-01 Public Theology is a rapidly growing international field of study which focuses on how Christian belief and practice engage with wider social issues Yet whilst the ultimate concern of public theology is the well being of society this body of theology has largely developed without integrating the thinking of feminist theology and its insights into womens lives and experience Public Theology and the Challenge of Feminism argues that public theology risks re inscribing traditional constructs of public and private civic and domestic and uncritical notions of gender and the work and worth of people The book brings together both theory and case material to expose how public theology has actively downplayed or ignored feminist perspectives and to reveal how constructive feminism can be for the future of public theology Picturing Faith Colleen McDannell,2004-01-01 Henri Peyre 1901 1988 a giant figure in French studies did more to introduce Americans to the modern literature and culture of French than any other person Sterling Professor and chair of the French Department of Yale University for more than four decades Peyre was also the author of forty four books a brilliant speaker and a mentor to two generations of students He left enormous legacies as both teacher and scholar Peyre also left a large and fascinating body of correspondence This collection of his letters documents the era in which he lived His lively letters also bear witness to the vast network of his friends and colleagues including such major post war literary figures as Robert Penn Warren Andre Gide and Andre Malraux
