The Sketch ,1908 Venus in India, or Love Adventures in Hindustan Charles Devereaux,2020-09-28 The war in Afghanistan appeared to be coming to a close when I received sudden orders to proceed at once from England to join the First Battalion of my regiment which was then serving there I had just been promoted Captain and had been married about eighteen months It pained me more than I care to express to part with my wife and baby girl but it was agreed that it would be better for all of us if their coming to India were deferred until it were certain where my regiment would be quartered on its return to the fertile plains of Hindustan from the stones and rocks of barren Afghanistan Besides it was very hot being the height of the hot weather when only those who were absolutely forced to do so went to India and it was a time of year particularly unsuitable for a delicate woman and a babe to travel in so burning a climate It was also not quite certain whether my wife would join me in India as I had the promise of a staff appointment at home but before I could enter upon that I had of necessity to join my own battalion because it was at the seat of war Thus it was annoying to have to go all the same as it was clear that the war was over and that I should be much too late to participate in any of its rewards or glories though it was quite possible I might come in for much of the hardship and experience of the sojourn for a wild and not to say rough and inhospitable country is Afghanistan besides which it was quite possible for an Afghan knife to put an end to me and that I might fall a victim to a common murder instead of dying a glorious death on the battlefield Altogether my prospects seemed by no means of a rosy color but there was nothing for it but to submit and go which I did with the best grace possible but with a very heavy heart      Shattered Syed Abbas Rizvi, S.
