President Citizen:

A Citizen's Guide to Presidential Nominations Wayne P. Steger, 2015-04-10 Presidential nominations in the United States can sometimes seem like a media circus over hyped and overly speculative Even informed citizens might be tempted to tune them out Yet understanding the process one distinct to American politics is crucial for civic participation If presidential elections are about who will lead the nation presidential nominations are about who appears on the ballot This concise and coherent Citizen's Guide examines who has power in presidential nominations and how this affects who we as citizens choose to nominate and ultimately to sit in the Oval Office Political scientist Wayne Steger defines the nominating system as a tension between an insider game and an outsider game He explains how candidates must appeal to a broad spectrum of elected and party officials political activists and aligned groups in order to form a winning coalition within their party which changes over time Either these party insiders unify early behind a candidate effectively deciding the nominee before anyone casts a vote or they are divided and the nomination is determined by citizens voting in the caucuses and primaries Steger portrays how shifts in party unity and the participation of core party constituencies affect the options presented to voters Amidst all this the candidate still matters Primaries with one strong candidate look much different than those with a field of weaker ones By clearly addressing the key issues past and present of presidential nominations Steger's guide will be informative relevant and accessible for students and general readers alike Global Citizen's Manifesto

eShan, 2024-02-26 On the tranquil morning of August 9 1965 an island awakened to the dawn of its sovereignty as Singapore became an independent nation The atmosphere was charged with both anticipation and uncertainty setting the stage for a transformation that would shape the nation's future Over the ensuing decades Singapore underwent a remarkable metamorphosis driven by the visionary policies of the People's Action Party PAP The nation emerged as a shining symbol of progress and modernity characterized by stability economic growth and a distinctive brand of governance that garnered admiration worldwide However as time passed the prolonged tenure of the PAP raised questions about the vitality of democracy in Singapore Through this Manifesto eShan advocates that Singapore needs to be compulsorily brought under President Rule while all other aspects of democracy are reviewed reconstituted and modernized apparent to the current generation
