most intimate and most banal moments of our lives are constantly recorded for public consumption In The Reality Effect Joel Black argues that the desire to make visible every aspect of our lives is an impulse derived from cinema one that has made life both more graphic and less real He approaches film as a documentary medium that has obscured if not obliterated the line between reality and fiction To illustrate this effect Black traces the uncanny interplay between movies and real life

Clinton scandal to Crash and Princess Diana s violent death Impeachment of President William Jefferson Clinton ,1999
