Pressing Problems In The Law Vol 2 What Are Law Schools For:

The Law School - Global Issues, Local Questions Fiona Cownie, 2019-01-04 First published in 1999 this international collection of essays on legal education addresses the following issues The Law School and the University Research into legal education has often been regarded as a marginal activity as compared with research into substantive areas of law However recent years have seen a growing interest in discussions about the purpose of the university law school and the ways in which law is taught within it Are we educating professional lawyers or legal scholars What do we really mean when we say we want to offer a liberal education in the law What effect are the current changes in higher education funding and policy having on law schools and what takes place within them The international group of scholars who have contributed to this collection come from very different jurisdictions but they have written about topics which while they have local resonances are of concern globally Global Issues Local Questions addresses matters which concern all law teachers whatever their field of substantive legal expertise

Rethinking the Law School Carel Stolker, 2015-10-15 Written by a former dean this book offers a unique understanding of challenges facing legal education research publishing and governance

What is Legal Education for? Rachel Dunn, Paul Maharg, Victoria Roper, 2022-09-30 How we interpret and understand the historical contexts of legal education has profoundly affected how we understand contemporary educational cultures and practices This book the result of a Modern Law Review seminar both celebrates and critiques the lasting impact of Peter Birks influential edited collection Pressing Problems in the Law Volume 2 What is the Law School for Published in 1996 his book addresses many critical issues that are hauntingly present in the 21st century amongst them the impact of globalisation technological disruption and the tension inherent in law schools as they seek to balance the competing interest of teaching research and administration Yet Birks collection misses key issues too The role of wellbeing of emotion or affect the relation of legal education to education the status of legal education in what since his volume have become the devolved jurisdictions of Northern Ireland Wales and Scotland these and others are absent from the research agenda of the book Today legal educators face new challenges We are still recovering from the effects of the Covid 19 pandemic on our universities In 1996 Birks was keen to stress the importance of comparative research within Europe Today legal researchers are dismayed at the possibility of losing valuable EU research funding when the UK leaves the EU and at the many other negative effects of Brexit on legal education The proposed Solicitors Qualifying Examination takes legal education regulation and professional learning into uncharted waters This book discusses these and related impacts on our legal educations As law schools approach an existential crossroads post Covid 19 it seems timely to revisit Birks fundamental question what are law schools for Understanding the Law of Obligations Andrew S. Burrows, 1998-06-19 Through studies of the law of contract tort and restitution this text describes the law of obligations and how it is likely to develop in the future providing a view of the main reforms needed

Structure and Justification in Private Law C.E.F. Rickett, Ross Grantham, 2008-02-27 Peter

Birks's tragically early death and his immense influence around the world led immediately to the call for a volume of essays in his honour by scholars who had known him as a colleague, teacher and friend. One such volume published in 2006 contained essays largely from scholars working in England. Mapping the Law: Essays in Memory of Peter Birks, edited by Andrew Burrows and Lord Rodger, contains the essays of those outside England who chose to honour Peter and appears later than the English volume, reflecting the far-flung habitations of its authors. The essays contained in this volume are focussed around the law of unjust enrichment but are not narrowly preoccupied; instead they move freely from unjust enrichment to some of the most profound questions in private law concerning taxonomy, the relationship between contract, property and unjust enrichment, and the place of remedies within private law. This volume, featuring the work of some of the world's great private lawyers, provides a fitting tribute to a great scholar and a series of thought-provoking essays inspired by his example. Contributors: Kit Barker, Michael Bryan, Peter Butler, Hanoch Dagan, Simone Degeling, Daniel Friedmann, Mark Gergen, Ross Grantham, Steve Hedley, John McCamus, Mitchell McInnes, Eoin O'Dell, Charles Rickett, Struan Scott, Emily Sherwin, Stephen Smith, Richard Sutton, Michael Tilbury, Stephen Waddams, Peter Watts, Ernest Weinrib, Eric Descheemaeker.

French Law Eva Steiner, 2018. This book provides an ideal introduction to the French legal system and its internal workings, replete with the latest case law and developments.

Emotions in the Law School Emma Jones, 2019-08-23. Law schools are failing both their staff and students by requiring them to prize reason and rationality and to suppress or ignore emotions. Despite innovations in terms of both content and teaching techniques, there is little evidence that emotions are effectively acknowledged or utilised within legal education. Instead, law schools are clinging to an out-dated and erroneous perception of emotions as at best irrational and at worst dangerous. In contrast to this educational and scientific developments have demonstrated that emotions are a fundamental, inescapable part of learning, teaching and skills development. Harnessing these emotions will therefore have a transformative effect on legal education and enable it to adapt to the needs and demands of the twenty-first century. This book provides a theoretical overview of the role played by emotions in all aspects of the life of the law school. It explores the relationship emotions have with key traditional and contemporary approaches to legal education, the ways in which emotions can be conceptualised, their interaction with the politics and policies of legal education, and their role within teaching and learning. The book also considers the importance of emotional wellbeing for both law students and legal academics. Overall, this book argues for a more holistic form of legal education in which emotions play a valuable and valued role. This requires a new vision for law schools in which emotions are acknowledged and embedded at all levels, institutional and personal.

Exploring the 'Socio' of Socio-Legal Studies Dermot Feenan, 2017-03-01. In this insightful collection, a broad range of scholars analyzes a core issue for socio-legal studies: what is understood by the socio of the socio-legal? Drawing from legal theory, cultural studies and social policy, the collection's wide scope of themes and topics provides an important stock take and analysis of the socio-legal field.

Political Theory and

Power Joseph,2023-08-07 Subversive Legal History Russell Sandberg,2021-07-29 Provocative audacious and challenging this book rejuvenates not only the historical study of law but also the role of Law Schools by asking which stories we tell and which stories we forget It argues that a historical approach to law should be at the beating heart of the Law School curriculum Far from being archaic elitist and dull historical perspectives on law are and should be subversive Comparison with the past underscores how the law and legal institutions are not fixed but are constructed that every line drawn in the law and everything the law holds as sacred is actually arbitrary and how the environment into which law students are socialised is a historical construct A subversive approach is needed to highlight question de construct and re construct the authored nature of the law revealing that legal change on a larger scale is possible Far from being archaic this recasts legal history as being anarchic Subversive Legal History is not a type of Legal History but is its defining characteristic if it is to be a central part of Law School life It describes a legal method that should not be the preserve only of specialist legal historians but rather should be part of the toolkit of all law students teachers and researchers This book will be essential reading for all who work and study in Law Schools proposing a radical new approach not only to the historical study of law but also to the content purpose and ambition of legal education A subversive approach can revolutionise Law Schools providing a more ambitious legal education which is grounded in the socio legal reality helping to ensure that today s law students are better equipped to be the professionals and citizens of tomorrow Legal Academics Fiona Cownie,2004 This book explores the culture of legal academia the professional identities of law teachers and the issues facing the discipline of law A Conspiracy Against Obamacare R. Barnett,J. Adler,D. Bernstein,O. Kerr,D. Kopel,I. Somin,2013-11-12 The Affordable Care Act debate was one of the most important and most public examinations of the Constitution in our history At the forefront of that debate were the bloggers of the Volokh Conspiracy who from before the law was even passed engaged in a spirited erudite and accessible discussion of the legal issues involved in the case Web Journal of Current Legal Issues Yearbook 1997 Michael John Allen,Allen (Michael J.),1998-03-31 Contains articles from the 1997 issues including ten questions for unjust enrichment theorists is he our sister sex gender and transsexuals under European law in defence of Ireland the ends of legal studies law undergraduates and the tutorial legal education in Greece the law and ethics deriving from the Parthenon marbles cases beyond Woolf the virtual court house consumer guarantees the EC s Draft Directive UK Government policy on encryption the consequence of incapacity holocaust denial in England Lome V towards a new trade horizon and the rise and rise of legal education Current Developments in Monetary and Financial Law, Volume 2 International Monetary Fund,2003-10-20 The papers published in this volume are based on an IMF seminar held in 2000 that covered a broad range of topics on monetary and financial law such as the liberalization of capital movements data dissemination responsibilities of central banks and the IMF s goals in financial surveillance and architecture Participants addressed recent issues in the financial sector including those related to payment systems and supervision of financial institutions Updates dealt with Internet banking bank secrecy and currency arrangements including dollarization Participants discussed the recent activities of the other international financial institutions which included the European Central Bank and the International Finance Corporation Prevention of financial crises was also discussed with reference to the distinct roles of the IMF and the private sector Rethinking Historical Jurisprudence Samuel, Geoffrey, 2022-10-18 This stimulating book considers the ways in which historical jurisprudence deserves to be rethought arguing that there is much more to the history of legal thought than the ideas and ideology of the nineteenth and early twentieth century jurists such as Karl von Savigny and Sir Henry Maine The Digital Rights Delusion Andrea Monti, 2023-03-31 This book examines the ever increasing impact of technology on our lives and explores a range of legal and constitutional questions that this raises It considers the extent to which concepts such as cyberspace and digital rights advance or undermine our understanding of this development and proposes a number of novel approaches to the effective protection of our rights in this rapidly evolving environment Finally it shows how the abuse of the adjective digital has demoted legal rights into subjective and individual claims The work will be of particular interest to scholars of privacy artificial intelligence and free speech as well as policymakers and the general reader Teaching Family Law Henry Kha, Mark Henaghan, 2023-08-25 This book provides a comprehensive analysis of the teaching of an eclectic range of family law topics and the unique opportunities and challenges of teaching family law in different jurisdictions from a varied international perspective Written by leading legal scholars the book addresses a gap in the scholarship to comprehensively and systematically analyse the teaching of family law The first part of the book explores ways of teaching the varied range of topics under the heading of family law and captures the diverse approaches to the discipline Chapters illustrate how the subject can be best taught in an interdisciplinary way that considers feminist perspectives and the philosophy of teaching while encompassing legal positivism empirical research and critical legal theory The second part of the book examines teaching in different jurisdictions and illustrates policy and practice in Australia New Zealand the United States Canada the United Kingdom Hong Kong and South Africa Showcasing examples of best practice of teaching family law the book will be an essential reading for legal scholars as well as researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of family law and legal education Contemporary Issues in Finance and Insolvency Law Volume 1 Leon Trakman, Robert Walters, 2022-08-17 There is increasing regulatory interdependence amongst Central East and South East Asian European and North American financial markets and these markets account for over one third of the world's population and global financial markets As Asian markets become more integral to global financial economy more cohesive compatible and integrated insolvency and restructuring laws are essential This two volume work reviews why we should internationalise current cross border insolvency and how we could restructure laws to address inadequacies The two volumes evaluate international regulatory reforms directed at detecting and managing cross border insolvency and restructuring crises across the entire economy including financial markets The authors call for schemes of arrangements and letters of comfort to be formally accepted as international legal tools The work also assesses recent but as yet largely unregulated developments in financial agreements particularly the use of close out netting provisions that serve as significant protective mechanisms prior to the declaration of an insolvency It discusses international arbitration data protection and artificial intelligence in crossborder insolvency and restructuring Finally the book seeks a meaningful balance between self regulation through financial contracts and other party practices and regulation imposed by governments and international financial regulators This extensive work will be a useful reference for legal practitioners policy makers and scholars working on financial regulation and international financial laws
