Preventing Interpersonal Violence Among Youth William DeJong,1994
Youths ,1994 Face to Face ,1996 Face to Face Workbook ,1996 Preventing Interpersonal Violence Among Key Behavioral Effects of the Mass Media
Roger Haney,2024-05-09 This text provides empirical research on some of the most controversial media issues of our times The first chapter investigates such issues as the effects of viewing erotica How are users affected Are rapists users and are they affected Are there therapeutic effects of viewing erotica The second chapter covers how violent depictions affect violence in society What are the findings of various government commissions and other research on depictions of media violence The third chapter presents theories on causes and prevention of violence Are viewers desensitized to violence in society Does long term viewing affect more aggressive behavior Are there ways to mitigate the effects of viewing violence The final chapter covers how political content affects voters How are receivers socialized politically What is the hereditary vote What knowledge is gained from political content What are the effects of political debates What is the nature and effect of bias in the media What role does Internet content play The Crisis of School Violence Marianna King,2020-12-01 The Crisis of School Violence is the only interdisciplinary book about school violence It presents a broad and in depth approach to the key questions about why bullying continues at an unprecedentedly high rate and why rampage school shootings continue to shock the nation Based on extensive research The Crisis of School Violence investigates human nature and its relation to aggressive behavior with a special focus on the culture of violence that predicates school violence including rampage shootings and perpetuates industries that profit from violence Marianna King presents the considerable psychological and neuroscientific research that investigates the effects of violent entertainment media on the brain and subsequently on behavior which clearly reveals a causal connection between exposure to violent electronic entertainment media especially violent video games and increased aggressive and violent behavior The book also reveals a more specific connection between exposure to violent video games and rampage school shootings Ultimately this volume is a call to action that includes recommendations for parents teachers decision makers and citizens alike Resources in Education ,1998 Waging Peace in Our Schools Linda Lantieri,Janet Patti,1998-07-01 From the largest and most successful school initiatives in social and emotional learning in the country The Resolving Conflict Creatively Program now active in more than 350 schools nationwide comes a powerful practical guide for teaching young people to empathize mediate negotiate and create peace The authors address everything from minor schoolyard conflicts to violent outbursts and offer educators and parents proven strategies for enhancing children s emotional social and conflict resolution skills School Safety Management Richard L. Glover, Henry R. Murphy,2003 Minimizing Harm Edward Rubin,2018-04-24 This book represents an effort by a number of leading criminologists to articulate a pragmatic crime policy for America a policy that combines academic insights about crime prevention with the realities of contemporary politics Preventing Interpersonal Violence Among Youth William DeJong,1994 Topics covered include violent behavior Resolving Conflict Creatively Program New York NY and the Violence Prevention Project Boston MA Diverting Children from a Life of Crime: Measuring Costs and Benefits Peter Greenwood (W.),1998 In combating crime in America little attention has been paid to keeping children from becoming criminals What benefit might be realized from such an approach and at what cost Working from limited data on program efficacy and on criminal careers the authors of this report made rough estimates of the costs and benefits of four early interventions prenatal home visits by child care professionals followed by four years of day care training for parents with young children who have shown aggressive behavior incentives to induce disadvantaged high school students to graduate and monitoring and supervising young delinquents All except the first appeared to be at least as cost effective as a popular but very different approach to crime reduction California s three strikes law The advantages of parent training and graduation incentives in particular are so large that some advantage is likely to be found even under assumptions differing substantially from those made here This report updates information contained in MR 699 UCB RC IF published in 1996

Combating Violence and Delinquency Coordinating Council on Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (U.S.),DIANE Publishing Company,1996 An 8 point statement of objectives strategies designed to strengthen State local initiatives to reduce juvenile violence to increase the capacity of the juvenile justice system to respond to prevent delinquency Presents innovative effective strategies designed to reduce violence victimization describes how communities can generate solutions how individuals groups can prevent or reduce violence in their neighborhoods Provides important information about Federal training technical assistance grants research evaluation other resources that support these efforts Extensive bibliography Combating Violence and Delinquency ,1996 "Boot Camp" Drug Treatment and Aftercare Interventions Ernest L. Cowles,Thomas C. Castellano,Laura A. Gransky,1995 Administrative Notes ,1994-10-31

Children at Risk Arthur V. Carrington,2002 There was a day when society shielded its children from the often cruel world At least in the so called developed countries the exposure of children to the worst perversions society can conjure up has never been greater Children have reached the exalted level of being treated seduced and targeted to as a market This bibliography brings together the literature providing access by subject groupings as well as author and title indexes
