Minority Issues in Europe: Rights, Concepts, Policy Tove H. Malloy, 2013-10-16 Minorities have been part of European history and politics since the middle of the 16th Century often seen as obstacles to state building and later as a threat to nation building Traditional minorities have had to fight their own way to be able to remain in their homelands while new arrivals have been met with rejection and were expected to return home Minorities are still seen as a threat to peace and security and mostly as outsiders In the early 21st Century of inter connected societies minorities are more than ever an issue often seen as a threat to social cohesion This book provides the advanced student with a multi disciplinary informed perspective on minority history and politics as well as social and cultural issues related to minority identity and minority existence in Europe

Ethnologia Europaea vol. 46:1 Laura Stark, 2016-05-30 Special issue Muslim Intimacies In every society individual choice and freedom are shaped at least to some degree by the needs of familial and marital institutions Currently negotiations between individuals and families are undergoing transformations due to late modern processes such as recent waves of mass migration the increasing transnationalism of everyday practices global commerce in ideas and images and the expansion of information technology into all corners of people's lives Some of the greatest challenges are experienced by Muslim families the majority of the world's Muslims live in extreme poverty and in Europe anti Muslim sentiment has found a firm foothold in public attitudes and debates This special issue explores the dilemmas facing transnational Muslim families as well as those who feel the impact of late modern transformations in societies where they have lived for generations Five scholarly articles address family dynamics among Muslims in Finland Anne H kkinen Ethiopia Outi Fingerroos Italy and Sweden Pia Karlsson Minganti Morocco Raquel Gil Carvalheira and Tanzania Laura Stark these are complemented by the insightful commentary by Garbi Schmidt The aim of this theme issue is to develop new ways of talking about the links between Islam family and the individual which move away from the ethnocentrism of Western concepts and pay greater attention to the desires and goals of those studied This volume includes two open issue contributions Magdalena Elchinova scrutinizes identity construction among Orthodox Bulgarians based in Istanbul and in the context of the post Fordist creative city Ove Sutter analyses the playful and performative protests of activists following the declaration of the so called Danger Zone 2014 in Hamburg Germany

Democratization and Ethnic Minorities Jacques Bertrand, Oded Haklai, 2013-10-23 Many new democracies are characterized by majority dominance and ethnocentrism Varying paths or transitions toward democracy create very different outcomes for how ethnic identities communities and politics are recognized This book illustrates the varied consequences of democratization from ethnic violence new forms of accommodation to improve minorities status or sometimes only minor improvements to life for ethnic minorities The book treads a nuanced path between conflicting myths of democratization illustrating that there are a variety of outcomes ranging from violence or stability to the extension of rights representation and new resources for ethnic minorities Contributors discuss the complex mechanisms that determine the impact of democratization of ethnic minorities through five factors inherited legacies from the pre transition period institutional configurations elite strategies societal organization and international influences Global in scope this book features a broad range of case studies both country specific and regional including chapters on Nigeria Kenya Turkey and Taiwan Eastern Europe the former Soviet Union Southeast and East Asia This book provides new insights and makes an important contribution to existing debates Democratization and Ethnic Minorities will be essential reading for students and scholars of democratization nationalism ethnic conflict and ethnic politics political science history and sociology Living Intersections: Transnational Migrant Identifications in Asia Caroline Plüss, Chan Kwok-bun, 2012-03-13 This book presents ground breaking theoretical and empirical knowledge to produce a fine grained and encompassing understanding of the costs and benefits that different groups of Asian migrants moving between different countries in Asia and in the West experience The contributors all specialist scholars in anthropology geography history political science social psychology and sociology present new approaches to intersectionality analysis focusing on the migrants performance of their identities as the core indicator to unravel the mutual constitutivity of cultural social political and economic characteristics rooted in different places which characterizes transnational lifestyles The book answers one key question What happens to people communities and societies under globalization which is among others characterized by increasing cultural disidentification Peace and Conflict in Inter-Group Relations Agnes Katalin Koós, 2014-11-18 The book ventures into the explanation of intra state communal conflict more narrowly of the conflict between majority and minority communal groups and develops arguments that highlight the causal impact of intergroup economic inequality Its quest for empirical support has led to the compilation of three large inter related datasets typifying the condition of minorities worldwide They are mainly based on the Ethnic Power Relations Minorities at Risk and Quality of Government data yet also involve information from a multitude of other sources such as national statistics cross national demographic surveys and the World Directory of Minorities and Indigenous Peoples The group level data featuring 860 communal groups show that an impressive forty five percent of the world s population do not belong to the majority communal group in their country As reasonably feared minorities are in general politically less empowered than their pluralities and also poorer Results from multivariate regression analysis corroborate the deleterious impact of horizontal economic inequality on inter group hostility measured either as group grievance or violent conflict The double measurement substantiates the intuition that not all low to medium strength hostility is doomed to develop into violent conflict In fortunate conditions intergroup disputes can be solved or compromises may be reached without turning to violence Part of the analytical efforts have been directed towards detecting the differences between the causes of communal and non communal social conflicts and also towards deciphering which institutional conditions aggravate and which mitigate communal conflicts A large number of variables in the regression models attempt to operationalize constellations that influence the evolution of conflicts either toward peaceful solutions or toward armed collision The policy implications of the findings are not trivial Positive discrimination which in the United States is known as Affirmative Action is often resisted by denying the unfortunate facts that make it necessary In addition currently the policies recommended for heterogeneous societies are also fiercely debated between advocates of power sharing arrangements and those who would like to facilitate the communal homogenization of each state This latter type of constitutional engineering is at variance with the political empowerment of minorities a measure that could alleviate tensions rooted in economic disadvantages

Democracy and Conflict Resolution Miriam Fendius Elman,Oded Haklai,Hendrik Spruyt,2014-01-06 Studies of the Israeli Palestinian conflict typically focus on how international conditions drive the likelihood of conflict resolution By contrast Democracy and Conflict Resolution considers the understudied impact of domestic factors Using the contested theory of democratic peace as a foundational framework the contributors explore the effects of various internal influences on Israeli government practices related to peace making electoral systems political parties identity leadership and social movements Most strikingly Democracy and Conflict Resolution explores the possibility that features of democracy inhibit resolution of conflict a possibility that resonates far outside the contested region In reflecting on how domestic political configurations matter in a practical sense this book offers policy relevant and timely suggestions for advancing Israel s capacity to pursue effective peacemaking policies

Effective Participation of National Minorities and Conflict Prevention William Romans,Iryna Ulasiuk,Anton Petrenko Thomsen,2019-10-21 The effective management of differences between groups within democracies means moving beyond the examination of individual rights In the field of national minorities conflict prevention diplomacy promoting the effective participation of national minorities in public life is a primary objective Enhancing participation encourages a sense of belonging contributes to societal integration and promotes cohesion within the multi ethnic state The Lund Recommendations on the Effective Participation of National Minorities in Public Life directly address these challenges and the OSCE High Commissioner on National Minorities works with states and national minority groups to advance functional solutions that reduce tensions and foster stability This volume analyses the components of a balanced legal and policy framework related to effective participation of national minorities with a view to preventing conflict and reviews the related work of the OSCE and other international organisations
