Geography of Newfoundland James Patrick Howley,1876 Having worked on the Newfoundland Geological Survey Howley saw the need for an up to date textbook on the geography of Newfoundland This book was the result of Howley s efforts and became a standard text that was used for many years in schools on the island Martianus Capella in the Late Middle Ages and Renaissance Katie Reid,2023-10-09 In this book Katie Reid argues that the fifth century author Martianus Capella was a significant influence in the late Middle Ages and Renaissance His poetic encyclopaedia The Marriage of Philology and Mercury was a source for writing on the liberal arts allegory and classical mythology from 1300 to 1650 In fact writers of this period had much more in common with Martianus Capella than they did with older ancients like Homer and Virgil As such we must reshape our understanding of late medieval and Renaissance encounters with the classical world by exploring their roots in Late Antiquity Annual Report Newfoundland. Downward Mobility Katherine Binhammer,2020-04-28 How do the stories we tell about money shape our economies Beginning in the late eighteenth century as constant growth became the economic norm throughout Europe fictional stories involving money were overwhelmingly about loss Novel after novel tells the tale of bankruptcy and financial failure of people losing everything and ending up in debtor s prison of inheritances lost and daughters left orphaned and poor In Downward Mobility Katherine Binhammer argues that these stories of ruin are not simple tales about the losers of capitalism but narratives that help manage speculation of capital s inevitable collapse Bringing together contemporary critical finance studies with eighteenth century literary history Binhammer demonstrates the centrality of the myth of downward mobility to the cultural history of capitalism and to the emergence of the novel in Britain Deftly weaving economic history and formal analysis Binhammer reveals how capitalism requires the novel s complex techniques to render infinite economic growth imaginable She also explains why the novel s signature formal developments owe their narrative dynamics to the contradictions within capital s form Combining new archival research on the history of debt with original readings of sentimental novels including Frances Burney s Cecilia and Camilla Sarah Fielding s David Simple and Oliver Goldsmith s The Vicar of Wakefield Downward Mobility registers the value of literary narrative in
