John Wright's

collection of interviews and stories about Ralph Stanley puts readers around a campfire at a bluegrass festival while old timers weave yarns far into the night. Told by those who create, produce, stage, love, and virtually live for old-time mountain music, these tales come from the longtime coworkers, sidemen, promoters, friends, and others in the orbit of the music legend. The storytellers include a scholar who knew Stanley from the early days, the housewife who ran the Stanley Brothers Fan Club, and a souvenir seller for whom the discovery of Stanley's music was almost a religious experience. Wright also uses these invaluable oral histories as a foundation to describe and evaluate Stanley's long career with the Clinch Mountain Boys and the development of his music after the death of his brother Carter. An appendix covers Ralph's prolific recording activity through the mid-1990s, including a breathtaking forty-five albums comprising more than 550 songs and tunes. A LIFE

LONG JOURNEY TO WAR AND HOME Edward Cyr, 2021-02-16. Edward Eddie Cyr MSN explores his life-long journey from a background as a second-generation immigrant to US Army colonel and nurse anesthetist in a war zone within the War on Terror through his three deployments. His journey to his military career and experiencing war was influenced by his first-generation French-Canadian father with his six brothers, along with his mother's two first-generation Italian brothers who all served in World War II. He experienced the tribulations of growing up in the 1950s and 60s in a multicultural Greatest Generation family which had a strong sense and pride of military service. Eddie early on experienced learning disabilities which were not initially recognized while being the first in his father's family to graduate from college. Eddie met his wife Patricia in college in the nursing program that they both matriculated. Their marriage is blessed with five daughters and eleven grandchildren. This journey explores the decisions and difficulties from a young childhood through adulthood into his post-military career. His committing to both a military and civilian career while navigating the difficulties of three deployments both in the war zone and multiple serious issues at home It is a story of belief in self determination the love of a spouse and family his military family and friendships along with the advantages available to each of us if we trust in God and Country all the while willing to work for what we believe we can accomplish This is his story of not only of war and the issues of separation from family but how he developed his desire to serve in uniform from the very beginning John Cangelosi:
