Road Past Altamont:

The Road Past Altamont Gabrielle Roy, 1993-01-01 First published in French in 1966 The Road Past Altamont pierces to the heart of a child's world creating a delicate yet substantial network of impressions emotions and relationships In her writing Gabrielle Roy allowed nothing extraneous or false to stand according to the translator Joyce Marshall The literary style of Roy whose fiction reflects her childhood on the Canadian prairie has often been compared to that of Willa Cather The Road Past Altamont takes a sensitive French Canadian girl Christine from childhood innocence to maturity Four connected stories reveal profound moments during her early years in the vastness of Manitoba Christine's testament to Grandmother's creative power her great adventure with an old gentleman at Lake Winnipeg and her clandestine one with a crude family of movers her journey through time and space with aging Maman all these characters and events convey Gabrielle Roy's preoccupation with childhood and old age the passage of time and mystery of change and the artist's relation to the world

Representation and Design Pauline E. Head, 1997-02-06 Representation and Design examines Old English poetry from the point of view of its interpretation beginning with the assumption that Anglo Saxon concepts of reading were probably very different from those that dominate our own literary culture The book insists on the semantic interaction of representation and design two aspects of Old English poetry that traditionally have been examined separately and draws on Anglo Saxon pictorial art as a model throughout It disputes the conventional dichotomy that interpretation makes between content and form redefines content as a particular mode of representation a reflection of texts and ideologies and recognizes form as complex and meaningful design so that the two no longer can be distinguished in the process of interpretation The author examines a range of texts Beowulf The Wanderer the Exeter Book riddles manuscript illuminations and the sculpture of the Ruthwell cross in order to consider the place of the reader the frame and the past in Anglo Saxon representation Through this process she traces a fluidity of signification and suggests that an Anglo Saxon aesthetic would be both complex and enigmatic

Profiles in Canadian Literature Jeffrey M. Heath, 1991-09-01 A series of essays on Canadian authors profiling the writers work providing insight into themes and giving a chronology of the authors life
