Road To Chlifa:

The Road to Chlifa Michèle Marineau, Susan Ouriou, 1995 Tells the sad story of Karim's migration from Lebanon to Montreal detailing how when a bomb destroys his home in Beirut he meets up with his girlfriend's sister Maha and baby brother and they journey to Chlifa where Maha dies in Karim's arms The Road to Chlifa Michèle Marineau, Susan Ouriou, 2015-07

Road to Chlifa Michele Marineau, 2002-09-01 Tells the sad story of Karim's migration from Lebanon to Montreal detailing how when a bomb destroys his home in Beirut he meets up with his girlfriend's sister Maha and baby brother and they journey to Chlifa where Maha dies in Karim's arms (Re)imagining the World Yan Wu, Kerry Mallan, Roderick McGillis, 2013-06-18

Re Imagining the world Children's Literature's Response to Changing Times considers how writers of fiction for children imagine the world not one universal world but different worlds imaginary strange familiar even monstrous worlds The chapters in this collection discuss how fiction for children engages with some of the changes brought about by new technologies information literacy consumerism migration politics different family structures cosmopolitanism new and old monsters They also invite us to think about how memory shapes our understanding of the past and how fiction engages our emotions our capacity to empathise and our desire to discover and what the future may hold The contributors bring different perspectives from education postcolonial studies literary criticism cultural studies childhood studies postmodernism and the social sciences With a wide coverage of texts from different countries and scholarly and lively discussions this collection is itself a testament to the power of the human imagination and the significance of children's literature in the education of young people

The Bekaa Ray Sproule, 2024-07-08 An adventure tale with murder intrigue treasure and romance amid intimations of a past where Phoenician triremes sailed the Mediterranean Sea set in 1957 strife ridden Lebanon It follows freelance journalist Matthew Thorne from Montreal Paris and Beirut to Lebanon's Bekaa Valley in pursuit of the murder of an old mercurial college friend

Young Adult Literature and Adolescent Identity Across Cultures and Classrooms Janet Alsup, 2010-07-02 Taking a critical research oriented perspective this book explores the theoretical empirical and pedagogical connections between reading and teaching young adult literature in middle and secondary classrooms and adolescent identity development

Challenging Stories Anne Burke, Ingrid Johnston, Angela Ward, 2017-07-31 How can Canadian educators begin to instill cultural sensitivity and social awareness in elementary and secondary school students This vital text attempts to answer that question by bringing together literacy scholars and practicing teachers in a unique cross Canadian exploration of children's literature and social justice Through reflection on the experience of teaching with various Canadian texts including picture books novels and graphic novels the contributors behind Challenging Stories create a pedagogy of discomfort that will encourage both educators and their students to develop critical literacy skills The compelling contributions to this collection highlight the complexities of teaching with texts that address issues of discrimination historical marginalization colonialism racial and gender intolerance sexual orientation language and cultural diversity The authors offer first hand insight into the possibilities and challenges of implementing curricular and pedagogical changes to promote equity and social justice in the classroom Featuring the stories of participating teachers and an annotated bibliography of children s literature this invaluable resource will prove to be essential reading for current and future educators

Windows and Words Susan-Ann Cooper,Aïda Hudson,2003 Windows and Words is a collection of seventeen essays that confirms and celebrates the artistry of Canadian Children s Literature There are essays that survey a wealth of English language fiction from the internationally acclaimed work of Lucy Maud Montgomery the aboriginal adolescent novel to the increasingly multi cultural character of children s books Others examine book illustration visual literacy and the creative partnership seen in the picture book and its art design With contributions by two Governor General s Award winning authors Janet Lunn and Tim Wynne Jones and a final commentary by Elizabeth Waterson the heart of this collection offers a unique perspective on the artistry of writing for children and claims a rightful place for Canadian children s literature as literature

Stories for Every Classroom Beverly A. Brenna ,2015 Academic study of children s literature has explored various aspects of diversity however little research has examined Canadian books that portray characters with disabilities This relevant and timely text addresses the significant dearth of research by exploring the treatment of disability in Canadian literature for young people Engaging and highly accessible this text will assist teachers teacher educators and teacher candidates in finding and using books about characters where disability is a part of their characterization supporting the development of curricula that reflect critical literacy and social justice issues Stories for Every Classroom explores the historical patterns and trends theoretical frameworks and critical literacy methods used to understand and teach children s literature and its portrayal of characters with disabilities It provides educators with curriculum ideas and enriches the body of resources shared with children in K 12 settings for the purposes of developing imagination empathy and understanding of self and others Featuring author portraits comprehensive annotated bibliographies of contemporary Canadian children s books that depict characters with disabilities and read on bibliographies that provide connections with other books in the field this unique text will be an invaluable resource for educators

Alternating Narratives in Fiction for Young Readers Perry Nodelman,2017-04-17 This book is about the implications of novels for young readers that tell their stories by alternating between different narrative lines focused on different characters It asks if you make sense of fiction by identifying with one main character how do you handle two or more of them Do novels with alternating narratives diverge from longstanding conventions and represent a significant change in literature for young readers If not how do these novels manage to operate within the parameters of those conventions This book considers answers to these questions by means of a series of close readings that explore the structural educational and ideological implications of a variety of American British Canadian and Australian novels for children and for young adults

Translating Canada Luise von Flotow,Reingard M. Nischik,2007-10-25 In the last thirty years of the twentieth century

Canadian federal governments offered varying degrees of support for literary and other artistic endeavour A corollary of this patronage of culture at home was an effort to make the resulting works available for audiences elsewhere in the world Current developments in the study of translation and its influence as cultural transfer have made possible new assessments of such efforts to project a national image abroad Translating Canada examines cultural materials exported by Canada in addition to those selected for acquisition by German publishers theatres and other culture brokers It also considers the motivations of particular translators and the reception by German reviewers of works by a wide variety of Canadian writers novelists and poets playwrights and children s authors literary and social critics Above all the book maps for its readers a number of significant though frequently unsuspected roles that translation assumes in the intercultural negotiation of national images and values The chapters in this collection will be of value to students teachers and scholars in a number of fields Informed lay readers too will appreciate the authors insights into the different ways in which translation has contributed to German reception of Canadian books and culture

Sanctioned Ignorance Paul Martin, 2013-11-15 There is no such thing as the ivory tower Rather there sit side by side numerous windowless towers of knowledge each seeming to have only a small entrance and no discernable exit Paul Martin Multilingual multicultural and vast Canada enjoys a rich diversity of literatures So why does Canadian Literature as it has been taught fail to encompass a common geography history and government yet reveal the diverse experiences of its immigrants long term residents and original peoples Martin s research interviews with 95 professors in 27 universities maps the institutional chasms in communication and the nature of their persistence His own example of venturing out from his tower to dialogue with colleagues shows a way toward cultivating a conception of the literatures of Canada that is expansive and inclusive Canadianists professors of English French Postcolonial and Comparative Literatures and leaders in education will profit from Martin s frank investigations

Contemporary Authors Scot Peacock, Terrie M. Rooney, 1998-10 Your students and users will find biographical information on approximately 300 modern writers in this volume of Contemporary Authors R Authors in this volume include Diane Arbus Nina Kiriki Hoffman Michael Moore

Inter- and Transcultural Learning in the Context of Canadian Young Adult Fiction Grit Alter, 2015 Within the past few years transcultural learning has become one of the key terms in TEFL theory Central concerns in current research include differentiating between inter and transcultural learning navigating processes of understanding otherness and assessing cultural competences Using these aspects this study investigates texts recommended for cultural learning and key components of implementing literature in ELT The results call for a more holistic perception of alterity and argue in favour of transcultural literature as a basis for transcultural learning All of this dissertation is in English Subjects Literary Criticism Education Series Fremdsprachendidaktik in globaler Perspektive Vol 5
