The Lady of LA Sunny Blue,2024-09-16 The Chinese Ladys of Los Angeles by Sunny Blue is about 25 Chinese American women from different countries who come to the United States to pursue the American dream They learn and grow in the midst of confusion and suffering refine their personalities in the midst of moral and legal conflicts and walk out of their own paths in the pursuit of love and money Faith and Power in Japanese Buddhist Art, 1600-2005 Patricia J. Graham,2007-09-30 Faith and Power in Japanese Buddhist Art explores the transformation of Buddhism from the premodern to the contemporary era in Japan and the central role its visual culture has played in this transformation Although Buddhism is generally regarded as peripheral to modern Japanese society this book demonstrates otherwise Its chapters elucidate the thread of change over time in the practice of Buddhism as revealed in temple worship halls and other sites of devotion and in imagery representing the religion s most popular deities and religious practices It also introduces the work of modern and contemporary artists who are not generally associated with institutional Buddhism and its canonical visual requirements but whose faith inspires their art The author makes a persuasive argument that the neglect of these materials by scholars results from erroneous presumptions about the aesthetic superiority of early Japanese Buddhist artifacts and an asserted decline in the institutional power of the religion after the sixteenth century She demonstrates that recent works constitute a significant contribution to the history of Japanese art and architecture providing evidence of Buddhism's compelling presence at all levels of Japanese society and its evolution in response to the needs of new generations of supporters About Japan, 1916
