Roaring Nineties Story Of The Goldfields:

The Roaring Nineties Katharine Susannah Prichard, 1949 Mining Tycoons in the Age of Empire, 1870-1945

Raymond E. Dumett, 2016-12-05 The years of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries aptly described by Mark Twain as the Gilded Age witnessed an unprecedented level of technological change material excess untrammled pursuit of profit and imperial expansion Within this dynamic and often ruthless environment many colorful characters strode across the world stage among them the great mining tycoons who with the thousands of prospectors diggers shift bosses timbermen blastmen and muckers in mining enterprise constituted one of the major spearheads of global capitalistic expansion and colonial exploitation This volume which carries the epic story to the mid twentieth century provides a truly international perspective on the role of mining entrepreneurs investors and engineers in shaping the economic and political map of the globe in testing management techniques and in setting a vogue for extravagant displays of wealth among the world's rich Each chapter is loosely focussed on a biographical account of a particular mining tycoon that allows for broad and comparative accounts to be made about the individuals their business interests the technologies they employed and the national and international political considerations under which they operated Furthermore this structure also allows for consideration of the effect that these tycoons had on the countries and territories in which they worked particularly the often long lasting impact on indigenous populations the environment transport links and economic development By approaching the subject matter through this stimulating mix of cultural social economic business and colonial history many intriguing and thought provoking conclusions are reached that will reward any scholars with an interest late nineteenth and early twentieth century history Australian Literature in the German Democratic Republic Nicole Moore, Christina

Spittel, 2016-06-19 An account of fraught and complex cross cultural literary exchange between two highly distinct even uniquely opposed reading contexts Australian Literature in the German Democratic Republic has resonance for all newly global reckonings of the cultural Cold War Working from the extraordinary records of the East German publishing and censorship regime the authors materially track the production and reception of one country's corpus as envisioned by another The 90 Australian titles published in the GDR form an alternative canon revealing a shadowy literary archive that rewrites Australia's postwar cultural history from behind the iron curtain and illuminates multiple ironies for the GDR as a reading nation This book brings together leading German and Australian scholars in the fields of book history German and Australian cultural history Australian and postcolonial literatures and postcolonial and cross cultural theory with emerging writers currently navigating between the two cultures A Gregarious Culture Miles Franklin, 2001 No Marketing Blurb
