Philosophical Hermeneutics and the Priority of Questions in Religions Nathan Eric Dickman, 2022-02-24 Buddhas gods prophets and oracles are often depicted as asking questions But what are we to understand when Jesus asks Who do you say that I am or Mazu the Classical Zen master asks Why do you seek outside Is their questioning a power or weakness Is it something human beings are only capable of due to our finitude Is there any kind of question that is a power Focusing on three case studies of questions in divine discourse on the level of story the god depicted in the Jewish Bible the master Mazu in his recorded sayings literature and Jesus as he is depicted in canonized Christian Gospels Nathan Eric Dickman meditates on human responses to divine questions He considers the purpose of interreligious dialogue and the provocative kind of questions that seem to purposefully decenter us drawing on methods from confessionally oriented hermeneutics and skills from critical thinking He allows us to see alternative ways of interpreting religious texts through approaches that look beyond reading a text for the improvement of our own religion or for access to some metaphysically transcendent reality This is the first step in a phenomenology of religions that is inclusive diverse relevant and grounded in the world we live in

Beyond Transcendence in Law and Philosophy Louis E. Wolcher, 2023-03-31 What is the law of the law What produces our craven subservience to linguistic norms and our shocking indifference to the phenomenon of universal suffering In a path breaking new work of philosophy Louis Wolcher seeks to answer these questions from the standpoint of Zen Buddhism Bringing an Eastern sensibility into contact with three of the most important themes in Western philosophy Beyond Transcendence in Law and Philosophy meticulously investigates three of the twentieth century s most important philosophers Martin Heidegger on being Emmanuel Levinas on ethics and Ludwig Wittgenstein on language In the context of the larger Western obsession with transcending the ordinary Louis Wolcher argues that the yearning for transcendence is born of the illusion that there is a fundamental difference between the ordinary and the profound Employing Zen koans and stories to advance a deflationary view of language and knowledge he goes on to argue that the norms of transcendence to which we cling are not eternal truths but artefacts of desperate minds adrift on a sea of impermanence What used to seem so majestically True Right and Just thus shows itself to be utterly mundane as merely true right and just What is left however is not nihilism for clinging to a view of nothingness is just as deluded as clinging to a view of somethingness but rather a new beginning of compassionate concern for the suffering of others Beyond Transcendence in Law and Philosophy is a strikingly original synthesis of Eastern and Western thought It will enlighten philosophers and legal theorists as well as those who are interested in or open to the insights of Zen Buddhism

Entangling Vines, 2013-03-18 Entangling Vines is a translation of the Shumon Kattoshu the only major koan text to have been compiled in Japan rather than China Most of the central koans of the contemporary Rinzai koan curriculum are contained in this work Indeed Kajitani Sonin 1914 1995 former chief abbot of Shokoku ji and author of an annotated modern Japanese translation of the Kattoshu commented that herein are compiled the basic Dharma materials of the koan system A distinctive feature of Entangling Vines is that unlike the Gateless Gate and Blue Cliff Record it presents the koans bare with no introductions commentaries or verses The straightforward structure of its presentation lends the koans added force and immediacy emphasizing the Great Matter the essential point to be interrogated while providing ample material for the rigors of examining and refining Zen experience Containing 272 cases and extensive annotation the collection is not only indispensable for serious koan training but also forms an excellent introduction to Buddhist philosophy

Realizations of Great Beings Brother Phap Hai, 2021-09-28 A pithy guide to the Buddha's instructions to unlock the powerful insights that make us great by wise, warm and humorous Brother Phap Hai, the most senior Australian Dharma teacher ordained by Thich Nhat Hanh. In this essential sutra for sincere practitioners, the Buddha says: If you would like to be enlightened, take on these eight subjects for meditation and apply their corresponding insights to your daily life. Brother Phap Hai's lively down-to-earth explanation of spirituality's original self-help manual makes this book a must-read for all seeking inspiration on the path of self-realization and compassion. Beginning with a brief historical overview of the sutra's origins, Brother Phap Hai explores each of the eight realizations and shares a story in each chapter from his own journey to become a monk himself. Ordaining as a Buddhist monk in 1997 while still in his twenties, Brother Phap Hai has been practicing mindfulness on a daily basis for much of his adult life. Zen Master Thich Nhat Hanh authorized him to teach in 2003 and since then he has guided and mentored thousands of students in meditation. Brother Phap Hai calls the Buddha's Discourse on the Eight Realizations of Great Beings his Desert Island Sutra because it distills the essence of the Buddhist path. In his words, it is everything you need in a practical meditation manual: a very structured exposition of realizing the entirety of the Buddhist path for yourself.
