programming a useful addition to a growing number of books about American television in the post network era American Studies Julie Christie Melanie Bell, 2019-07-25 Julie Christie's prickly relationship with stardom is legendary This fascinating text provides a comprehensive account of Christie's career from her emergence in the 1960s to present day It moves from analysing her star persona to exploring her performance and her politics and in doing so raises important questions for the film industry

Genre-Busting Dark Comedies of the 1970s Wes D. Gehring, 2016-03-29 This examination of dark comedies of the 1970s focuses on films which concealed black humor behind a misleading genre label All That Jazz 1979 is a musical about death hardly Fred and Ginger territory This masking goes beyond misnomer to a breaking of formula that director Robert Altman called anti genre Altman's MASH 1970 ridiculed the military establishment in general the Vietnam War in particular under the guise of a standard military service comedy The picaresque Western Little Big Man 1970 turned the bluecoats vs Indians formula upside down the audience roots for the Indians instead of the cavalry The book covers 12 essential films including Harold and Maude 1971 Slaughterhouse Five 1972 One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest 1975 and Being There 1979 with notes on A Clockwork Orange 1971 These films reveal a compounding complexity that reinforces the absurdity at the heart of dark comedy

Script Culture and the American Screenplay Kevin Alexander Boon, 2008-01-10 By considering the screenplay as a literary object worthy of critical inquiry this volume breaks new ground in film studies Though the history of the screenplay is as long and rich as the history of film itself critics and scholars have neglected it as a topic of serious research Script Culture and the American Screenplay treats the screenplay as a literary work in its own right presenting analyses of screenplays from a variety of frameworks including feminism Marxism structuralism philosophy and psychology In distancing the text of screenplays from the on screen performance typically associated with them Kevin Alexander Boon expands the scope of film studies into exciting new territory with this volume Script Culture and the American Screenplay is divided into two parts Part 1 provides a general background for screenplay studies tracing the evolution of the screenplay from the early shot lists and continuities of George M Li's and Thomas Harper Ince to the more detailed narratives of contemporary works Part 2 offers specific primarily thematic critical examinations of screenplays along with discussions of the original screenplay and the screenplay adaptation In all Boon explains that screenplay criticism distinguishes itself from traditional film studies in three major ways The primary focus of screenplay criticism is on the screenplay rather than the film the focus of screenplay studies is on the screenwriter rather than the director and screenplay criticism like literary criticism is written to illuminate a reader's understanding of the text Boon demonstrates that whether we are concerned with aesthetics and identifying rules for distinguishing the literary from the non literary or whether we align ourselves with more contemporary theories which recognize texts as distinguishable in their inter relationships and marked difference screenplays constitute a rich cache of works worthy of critical examination Film scholars as well as students of film creative writing and literary studies will appreciate this singular volume

The Lost Decade Chris Horn,2023-10-19 Provides an analysis of Hollywood from a fresh viewpoint that shows the careers of Robert Altman Francis Coppola William Friedkin and others in the 1980s as far from conforming to a monolithic pattern of decline but rather as diverse and complex responses to political and industrial changes The 1980s are routinely seen as the era of the blockbuster and of Reaganite entertainment whereas the dominant view of late 1960s and early 1970s American film history is that of a Hollywood Renaissance a relatively brief window of artistry based around a select group of directors Yet key directors associated with the Renaissance period remained active throughout the 1980s and their work has been obscured or dismissed by a narrow singular model of American film history This book deals with industrial contexts that conditioned these directors ability to work creatively but it is also very much about the analysis of individual films bringing to light a range of unheralded work from the visual experimentation of One from the Heart Coppola 1981 to the experimental production contexts of Secret Honor Altman 1984 and the stylistic lan of To Live and Die in L A Friedkin 1985 Behind the homogenous picture of the decline of the auteur in 1980s American cinema are films and careers that merit greater attention and this book offers a new way to perceive individual films American film history and the viability of sustained authorial creativity within post studio era Hollywood
