Kokoszka,2023-08-25 T D Kokoszka grew up in Texas with a Jewish mother and a Polish American father While he was aware of roots going back to Eastern Europe from both families he found it hard to learn very much about them He knew that Polish people would whack one another with palm leaves around Easter and he knew that his great grandmother purportedly believed in forest spirits known as borowy However it wasn't until he was in his teens that he became vaguely aware of an ancient people known as the Slavs who gave rise to the Polish Ukrainian Russian Serbian Bulgarian Slovakian Slovene and Czech languages It quickly became clear to him that this was a family of cultures currently under represented in popular culture and even in western scholarship Not simply a regurgitation of scholarship from the Soviet period and presenting new analyses by using previously neglected resources Bogowie A Study of Eastern Europe's Ancient Gods offers one of the most painstaking scholarly reconstructions of Slavic paganism These new resources include not only an overview of folklore from many different Slavic countries but also comparisons with Ossetian culture and Mordvin culture as well as a series of Slavic folktales that Kokoszka analyzes in depth often making the case that the narratives involved are mythological and shockingly ancient Readers will recognize many European folktale types and possibly learn to look at these folktales differently after reading this book      Pagan Portals - Breath of Spring Melusine Draco,2023-01-27 Candlemas Imbolc is the re awakening of the Old Lass within Old Craft belief and also coincides with the Roman Candelaria and Fornicalia a spring corn festival celebrated in honour of Fornax goddess of ovens and observed by each ward of the city All this merging of primitive origins and rites belonging to the European pre urban agricultural culture meant that it also commemorated the search for Persephone by her mother and the festival of candles symbolizing the return of the Light So it continued to be performed until the Christian era when it was transformed into Candalmas in AD494 In pre Christian times Imbolc observance began the night before 1st February and celebrants prepared for a visit from Brigid into their homes by crafting an effigy of the goddess from bundles of oats and rushes The clothed effigy was placed in a basket overnight and the day was celebrated by burning lamps and lighting bonfires in tribute to her Traditions from both the pagan celebration and the Christian observance of St Brigid s Day can be found in the modern Imbolc festivities while celebrants sometimes make a Brigid s Cross out of reeds as well as a Brigid corn doll or effigy
