Robert Rauschenberg: Man at Work, 1997 For the New York Times Rauschenberg was a Titan of American art for Guggenheim Director Thomas Krens the Picasso of the second half of the 20th century Rauschenberg made his name in 1953 by his apparently crazy action of erasing a De Kooning drawing With so called Combines which united trash from the streets of New York with painting in the Abstract Expressionist style he introduced reality and sculptural plasticity into the pictorial image preparing the way for Pop Art Chris Granlund visited this multi faceted artist in his Florida studio in 1997 also interviewing such important friends and colleagues as Merce Cunningham and Leo Castelli Robert Rauschenberg's »Erased de Kooning Drawing« (1953) Gregor Stemmrich, 2023-01-01 Erased de Kooning Drawing ist ein Kunstwerk das auf radikale Weise die Definition von Kunst und das Verständnis von Autorschaft herausfordert Drei amerikanische Künstler waren 1953 an seiner Erschaffung beteiligt Robert Rauschenberg radierte eine Zeichnung Willem de Koonings aus der mit einem gewissen Widerwillen sein Einverständnis gegeben hatte Jasper Johns versah es anschließend seiner ersten Präsentation mit einem Label das maßgeblich zu seiner Wahrnehmung als eigenständigem Werk beitrug Das zu etwas Neuem transformierte Blatt wurde in den 1950er Jahren als Neo Dada aufgefasst in den 1960ern als Beginn der Konzeptkunst und in den 1980er Jahren als Aufbruch in die Postmoderne Zahlreiche Künstler innen bezogen sich auf das Werk und Rauschenberg selbst griff es immer wieder auf Es erwies sich als Testfall für Bestimmungen von Modernismus Literalismus und Postmodernismus Gregor Stemmrichs kenntnisreiche kunsttheoretische Betrachtung arbeitet die anhaltende Relevanz des Werks für die Theorie des Bildes des Index der Spur des Allegorischen und der Frage nach Appropriation heraus Robert Rauschenberg Branden W. Art After the Bomb Darrell D. Davisson,2008 This book is requisite reading material for any person claiming to be an educated and informed member of the global community Our understanding in the West of the Eastern cultures specially the different cultures involving the Muslims is alarmingly low The book strives to offer a view from the ground a keyhole perspective that offers the readers a close and personal peek into some of the ethical underpinnings and the philosophical guiding parameters that inform the Muslim and the Eastern mind There are over 1.3 billion Muslims in the world It would be a serious intellectual fallacy to assume that they are all homogenous or to be more preposterous assume they are all terrorists It is extremely tragic that it took the Iranian hostage crisis to teach us about Shia Islam and 9 11 to teach us about

Wahabi Islam Properly acquired knowledge not just what we learn from the media will allow us to be anticipatory and rational rather than being reactive and emotional For the Muslim reader specially the children and the youth the book strives to offer a deeper understanding of Islam beyond the boundaries of ritual Islam into the wide open space of spiritual and intellectual Islam To inspire them to appreciate and live up to the wonderful legacy of Islam and not to be mired down into some deviant interpretations of people with questionable motives The book is designed to encourage the process of tearing down walls and building bridges We share common dreams aspirations and challenges We share a common globe and a common destiny The author believes that there are no clashes of civilizations just clashes of ignorance and misunderstanding

Remaking the Readymade Adina Kamien-Kazhdan,2018-05-11 Replication and originality are central concepts in the artistic oeuvres of Marcel Duchamp and Man Ray Remaking the Readymade reveals the underlying and previously unexplored processes and rationales for the collaboration between Duchamp Man Ray and Arturo Schwarz on the replication of readymades and objects The 1964 editioned replicas of the readymades sent shock waves through the art world Even though the replicas undermined ideas of authorship and problematized the notion of identity and the artist they paradoxically shared in the aura of the originals becoming stand ins for the readymades Scholar poet dealer Arturo Schwarz played a crucial role opening the door to joint or alternate authorship an outstanding relationship between artist and dealer By unearthing previously unpublished correspondence and documentary materials and combining this material with newly conducted exclusive interviews with key participants Remaking the Readymade details heretofore unrevealed aspects of the technical processes involved in the re creation of iconic long lost Dada objects Launched on the heels of the centenary of Duchamp s Fountain this new analysis intensifies and complicates our understanding of Duchamp and Man Ray initial conceptions and raises questions about replication and authorship that will stimulate significant debate about the legacy of the artists the continuing significance of their works and the meaning of terms such as creativity originality and value in the formation of art

The Man from the Third Row Fredrik Gustafsson,2016-10-01 Until his early retirement at age 50 Hasse Ekman was one of the leading lights of Swedish cinema an actor writer and director of prodigious talents Yet today his work is virtually unknown outside of Sweden eclipsed by the filmography of his occasional collaborator and frequent rival Ingmar Bergman This comprehensive introduction the Making Images Move Gregory Zinman, 2020-01-03 Making Images Move reveals a new history of cinema by uncovering its connections to other media and art forms. In this richly illustrated volume, Gregory Zinman explores how moving image artists who worked in experimental film pushed the medium toward abstraction through a number of unconventional filmmaking practices, including painting and scratching directly on the film strip, deteriorating film with water, dirt, and bleach, and applying materials such as paper and glue. This book provides a comprehensive history of this tradition of handmade cinema from the early twentieth century to the present, opening up new conversations about the production, meaning, and significance of the moving image. From painted film to kinetic art and from psychedelic light shows to video synthesis, Gregory Zinman recovers the range of forms, tools, and intentions that make up cinema's shadow history, deepening awareness of the intersection of art and media in the twentieth century and anticipating what is to come. Frank O'Hara Lytle Shaw, 2006-06 Providing a synthesis of New York's artistic and literary worlds, this book uses social and philosophical problems involved in reading a coterie to propose a language for understanding the poet, art critic, and Museum of Modern Art curator Frank O'Hara. Art and Design in 1960s New York Amanda Gluibizzi, 2021-02-26 Art and Design in 1960s New York explores the mutual influence between fine art and graphic design in New York City during the long decade of the 1960s. Beginning with advertising's creative revolution and its relationship to pop artists, the book traces design and art's developing interest in responses to civic problems such as the proliferation of billboards, navigation through the city's streets and subways, and issues of deteriorating infrastructure. The strategies exploited by these artists and designers resulted in similar approaches to visual imagery and shared techniques for thinking about and responding to the city in which they lived.

London's New Scene Lisa Tickner, 2020-07-07 A groundbreaking and extensively researched account of the 1960s London art scene. In the 1960s, London became a vibrant hub of artistic production. Postwar reconstruction, jet air travel, television, arts programs, new color supplements, a generation of young artists, dealers, and curators, the influx of international film companies, the projection of creative Britain as a national brand, all nurtured and promoted the emergence of London as a new capital of art. Extensively illustrated and researched, this book offers an unprecedented rich account of the social field that constituted the lively London scene of the 1960s. In clear, fluent prose, Tickner presents an innovative sequence of critical case studies, each of which explores a particular institution or event in the cultural life of London between 1962 and 1968. The result is a kaleidoscopic view of an exuberant decade in the history of British art. Trisha Brown Susan Rosenberg, 2016-11-01 Trisha Brown re-shaped the landscape of modern dance with her game-changing and boundary-defying choreography and visual art. Art historian Susan Rosenberg draws on Brown's archives as well as interviews with

Brown and her colleagues to track Brown's deliberate evolutionary trajectory through the first half of her decades long career Brown has created over 100 dances six operas one ballet and a significant body of graphic works This book discusses the formation of Brown's systemic artistic principles and provides close readings of the works that Brown created for non traditional and art world settings in relation to the first body of works she created for the proscenium stage Highlighting the cognitive kinesthetic complexity that defines the making performing and watching of these dances Rosenberg uncovers the importance of composer John Cage's ideas and methods to understand Brown's contributions One of the most important and influential artists of our time Brown was the first woman choreographer to receive the coveted MacArthur Foundation Fellowship Genius Award

Quilt Culture Cheryl B. Torsney, Judy Elsley, 1994 As a blanket a commemorative covering and a work of art the quilt is a nearly universal cultural artifact In recent years it has been recognized as one of our most compelling symbols of cultural diversity and the power of women In this collection Cheryl B Torsney and Judy Elsley bring together eleven provocative essays on the quilt as metaphor in literature history politics and philosophy This interdisciplinary approach makes Quilt Culture an extraordinarily rich exploration of a cultural artifact whose meaning is far more complex than that of a simple bed covering Publishers website
