Romanticism and Religion from William Cowper to Wallace Stevens Gavin Hopps, 2016-04-08 The relationship between literature and religion is one of the most groundbreaking and challenging areas of Romantic studies Covering the entire field of Romanticism from its eighteenth century origins in the writing of William Cowper and its proleptic stirrings in Paradise Lost to late twentieth century manifestations in the work of Wallace Stevens the essays in this timely volume explore subjects such as Romantic attitudes towards creativity and its relation to suffering and religious apprehension the allure of the veiled and the figure of the monk in Gothic and Romantic writing Miltonic light and inspiration in the work of Blake Wordsworth Shelley and Keats the relationship between Southey's and Coleridge's anti Catholicism and definitions of religious faith in the Romantic period the stammering of Romantic attempts to figure the ineffable the emergence of a feminised Christianity and a gendered sublime the development of Calvinism and its role in contemporary religious controversies Its primary focus is the canonical Romantic poets with a particular emphasis on Byron whose work is most in need of critical re evaluation given its engagement with the Christian and Islamic worlds and its critique of totalising religious and secular readings The collection is an original and much needed intervention in Romantic studies bringing together the contextual awareness of recent historicist scholarship with the newly awakened interest in matters of form and an appreciation of the challenges of postmodern theory Robert Southey, 1960 The Image of the Middle Ages in Romantic and Victorian Literature Kevin L. Morris, 2019-06-26 Originally published in 1984 The Image of the Middle Ages in Romantic and Victorian Literature looks at the impact of medievalism in the 18th and 19th centuries and the importance of post Enlightenment literary religious medievalism The book suggests that religious medievalism was not a superficial cultural phenomenon and that the romantic spirit with which it was chronologically connected was intimately associated with the metaphysical The book suggests that this belief gave birth to the metaphysical yearning and cultural expression of the eighteenth and nineteenth century The book seeks to clarify the post Enlightenment relationship between aesthetic culture and aesthetic religion romanticism medievalism and religious trends The Private Journal of Aaron Burr, During His Residence of Four Years in Europe Aaron Burr, 1838 Journals of a Residence in Portugal, 1800-1801 Robert Southey, 1960 General Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum. ### Spatial Imaginings in the Age of Colonial Cartographic Reason

Nilanjana Mukherjee,2020-05-18 This volume explores how India as a geographical space was constructed by the British colonial regime in visual and material terms It demonstrates the instrumentalisation of cultural artefacts such as landscape paintings travel literature and cartography as spatial practices overtly carrying scientific truth claims to materially produce artificial spaces that reinforced power relations It sheds light on the primary dominance of cartographic reason in the age of European Enlightenment which framed aesthetic and scientific modes of representation and imagination The author cross examines this imperial gaze as a visual perspective which bore the material inscriptions of a will to assert possess and control The distinguishing theme in this study is the production of India as a new geography sourced from Britain s own interaction with its rural outskirts and domination in its fringes This book Addresses the concept of production of space to study the formulation of a colonial geography which resulted in the birth of a new place later a nation Investigates a generative period in the formation of British India c 1750 1850 as a colonial territory vis vis its representation and reiteration in British maps landscape paintings and travel writings Brings Great Britain and British India together on one plane not only in terms of the physical geo spaces but also in the excavation of critical domains by alluding to critics from both spaces Seeks to understand the pictorial grammar that legitimised the expansive British imperial cartographic gaze as the dominant narrative which marginalised all other existing local ideas of space and inhabitation Rethinking colonial constructions of modern India this volume will be of immense interest to scholars and researchers of modern history cultural geography colonial studies English literature cultural studies art visual studies and area studies

Keighren, Charles W. J. Withers, Bill Bell, 2015-05-11 In eighteenth and nineteenth century Britain books of travel and exploration were much more than simply the printed experiences of intrepid authors They were works of both artistry and industry products of the complex and often contested relationships between authors and editors publishers and printers These books captivated the reading public and played a vital role in creating new geographical truths In an age of global wonder and of expanding empires there was no publisher more renowned for its travel books than the House of John Murray Drawing on detailed examination of the John Murray Archive of manuscripts images and the firm's correspondence with its many authors a list that included such illustrious explorers and scientists as Charles Darwin and Charles Lyell and literary giants like Jane Austen Lord Byron and Sir Walter Scott Travels into Print considers how journeys of exploration became published accounts and how travelers sought to demonstrate the faithfulness of their written testimony and to secure their personal credibility This fascinating study in historical geography and book history takes modern readers on a journey into the nature of exploration the production of authority in published travel narratives and the creation of geographical authorship a journey bound together by the unifying force of a world leading publisher Journal of Education, 1900 Hispanic American Report Ronald Hilton, 1961
