Rosaura en bicicleta Daniel Barbot, Morella Fuenmayor, 1990 A woman has difficulty finding a bicycle for her pet hen Rosaura

Children's Books from Other Countries Carl M. Tomlinson, 1998-01-15 Every child is entranced by the magic of story regardless of national boundaries Many of the most memorable childhood stories have their origins in other countries Exposing children to this multi national body of literature introduces them to the great diversity of people and cultures that populate the world at a young age enabling them to become more thoughtful and generous individuals Children's Books from Other Countries is a complete and current guide to international children's literature The concept of a bibliography of international children's literature is not new In the past many books have accomplished this task The last two decades however have not yet produced a current reference source devoted to international children's books. Children's Books from Other Countries wonderfully rectifies this lack of attention. An introductory essay provides an overview of the field including a discussion on the rationale of sharing international books with children, a brief history of the children's literature movement, related books and awards, and basic information about the International Board on Books for Young People (IBBY) and its American branch, the United States Board on Books for Young People (USBBY). An annotated bibliography contains over 700 titles from 29 different countries printed between 1950 and 1996. All titles are available in English; many have been translated, and others have originated in other English-speaking countries. The titles are organized by genre and have been selected for their high quality. They are primarily targeted for children ages 0-14, although a few outstanding young adult titles are included. Winners of the Mildred Batchelder Award and the Hans Christian Andersen Medal are listed in the appendix. Indexes include Author, Title, Index, Country of Origin, Index, and Subject Index. Affordable and readable, this timely resource is certainly a must for librarians and teachers and other professionals working with children. Sponsored by the United States

For much of its history, children's literature has been overlooked or looked down on by scholars. But in recent years, children's literature has assumed greater importance as literary critics, psychologists, anthropologists, and historians have begun to discover what children and parents have known for centuries: that this is a literature of extraordinary richness, depth, and delight. The Encyclopedia captures and elucidates this richness in four volumes and 3,200 signed entries. It offers comprehensive coverage of children's literature from medieval chapbooks of moral instruction for children to J. K. Rowling's immensely popular Harry Potter books. Unlike other references, the Encyclopedia not only documents but also interprets every work, major and minor, that has played a role in the history of children's literature in the world. General essays illuminate prominent trends, themes, genres, and the traditions of children's literature in many countries. In addition, the Encyclopedia provides biographies of important writers as well as extensive coverage of illustrators with numerous examples of their work. Sociocultural developments such as the impact of toys, films, animation, the Internet, literacy libraries and librarians censorship the multicultural expansion of the field and other issues related to the appreciation and dissemination of children s literature are also addressed While the Encyclopedia concentrates on the tradition known best by its readership it also covers the international development of children s literature and offers an unprecedented treatment of works from Australia Canada New Zealand India Pakistan African countries and other nations Its over 800 distinguished contributors come from around the world and include such renowned scholars and writers as Gillian Avery Peter Hunt Klaus Doderer Hansa Heino Ewers Jean Perrot Denise Escarpit Brian Alderson and Betsy Gould Hearne A Z organization accessible writing plentiful illustrations cross references bibliographies a comprehensive index and a systematic outline make the Encyclopedia an invaluable and easy to use research reference Dlm Early Childhood Express / a Bicycle for Rosaura \(Rosaura en Bicicleta\) Pam Schiller,2003-09 High quality literature enables you to Stimulate young readers Keep children active and interested in the stories Develop unit themes MultiCultural Review ,2008 Laura Esquivel's Mexican Fictions Elizabeth Moore Willingham,2012-05-18 This book now available in paperback is the first in depth review and assessment of Laura Esquivel criticism Outstanding essayists from diverse critical perspectives in Latin American literature and film explore Esquivel s critical reputation contextualize her work in literary movements and consider her four novels as well as the film based on Like Water for Chocolate The book begins with An Introduction to Esquivel Criticism reviewing 20 years of global praise and condemnation Elena Poniatowska in an essay provided in the original Spanish and in translation reflects on her first reading of Like Water for Chocolate From unique critical perspectives Jeffrey Oxford Patrick Duffey and Debra Andrist probe the novel as film and fiction The Rev Dr Stephen Butler Murray explores Esquivel s spiritual focus while cultural geographer Maria Elena Christie uses words and images to compare Mexican kitchen space and Esquivel s first novel Elizabeth Coonrod Martinez and Lydia H Rodriguez affirm divergent readings of The Law of Love and Elizabeth M Willingham discusses the contested national identity in Swift as Desire Jeanne L Gillespie and Ryan F Long approach Malinche A Novel through historical documents and popular and religious culture In the closing essay Alberto Julian Perez contextualizes Esquivel s fiction within Feminist and Hispanic literary movements This book has won the Harvey L Johnson Book Award for 2011 conferred by the South Central Organization of Latin American Studies at its 44th annual Congress in Miami Florida March 9 2012 Dlm Early Childhood Express Daniel Barbot,WrightGroup/McGraw-Hill,2002-02-01 A woman has difficulty finding a bicycle for her pet hen Rosaura
