LaGrand,2002 More than an outgrowth of public policy implemented by the Bureau of Indian Affairs the exodus of American Indians from reservations to cities was linked to broader patterns of social and political change after World War II Indian Metropolis places the Indian people within the context of many of the twentieth century s major themes including rural to urban migration the expansion of the wage labor economy increased participation in and acceptance of political radicalism and growing interest in ethnic nationalism Jacket Reports of Cases Argued and Determined in the Supreme Court of the State of Montana .. Montana.
