Davisson,2008 This book is requisite reading material for any person claiming to be an educated and informed member of the global community Our understanding in the West of the Eastern cultures specially the different cultures involving the Muslims is alarmingly low The book strives to offer a view from the ground a keyhole perspective that offers the readers a close and personal peek into some of the ethical underpinnings and the philosophical guiding parameters that inform the Muslim and the Eastern mind There are over 1.3 billion Muslims in the world It would be a serious intellectual fallacy to assume that they are all homogenous or to be more preposterous assume they are all terrorists It is extremely tragic that it took the Iranian hostage crisis to teach us about Shia Islam and 9/11 to teach us about Wahabi Islam Properly acquired knowledge not just what we learn from the media will allow us to be anticipatory and rational rather than being reactive and emotional For the Muslim reader specially the children and the youth the book strives to offer a deeper understanding of Islam beyond the boundaries of ritual Islam into the wide open space of spiritual and intellectual Islam To inspire them to appreciate and live up to the wonderful legacy of Islam and not to be mired down into some deviant interpretations of people with questionable motives The book is designed to encourage the process of tearing down walls and building bridges We share common dreams aspirations and challenges We share a common globe and a common destiny The author believes that there are no clashes of civilizations just clashes of ignorance and misunderstanding Tamarind Marjorie Devon, 2000-02 An essential addition to the library of anyone concerned with contemporary printmaking The Print Collector's Newsletter, 1996 The Grove Encyclopedia of American Art Joan M. From Pop to Now Sonnabend Gallery (New York, N.Y.), Rachel Haidu, 2002 Taking one of Andy Warhol's famous Campbell soup can paintings as its starting point From Pop to Now presents a definitive survey of works collected by international gallery owners Ileana and Michael Sonnabend over the last four decades For more than half a century the Sonnabends have been a seminal force in the contemporary art world often showing bold new work considered impossible to sell or too difficult for the times In Paris from 1962 to 1973 and in New York from 1970 to the present the Sonnabend galleries shows have showcased a virtual who's who of contemporary art spanning the full gamut of artistic exploration from Pop Art to

Minimalism and Conceptualism from painting and sculpture to video and photography During the height of the Pop movement Ileana was dubbed the Mom of Pop Art and the impact made by her artists at the time among them Jasper Johns Robert Rauschenberg Cy Twombly Andy Warhol Roy Lichtenstein Claes Oldenburg and James Rosenquist is now as legendary as Sonnabend's passion for collecting contemporary art Committed to exposing audiences in Europe and the United States to the most exciting contemporary work on both continents the Sonnabends brought to New York the works of Italian Arte Povera artists Mario Merz Gilberto Zorio Jannis Kounellis and Pier Calzolari and other Europeans including Bernd and Hilla Becher Christian Boltanski and Anselm Kieffer More than a collection From Pop to Now looks at a pivotal time in contemporary art history bringing together not only the names that have made history but also the seminal artworks that have defined a generation American Art Directory 2009 National Register Publishing, 2008
