Roundtable Pulpit Where Leadership And Preaching Meet:

The Roundtable Pulpit John S. McClure, 1995 Collaboration is one of the best ways to make a difference when leading a congregation Now John S McClure shows how collaborative preaching is the best way to inspire and guide a congregation Most preachers use a sovereign leader centered style or an inductive consultative style of preaching John McClure shows why these styles are sometimes manipulative and ineffective they do not take seriously the spiritual wisdom and tested experience that are present in God's people the laity In collaborative preaching a revolving expanding roundtable is established where a pastor and as many as ten church members meet to discuss the concerns and ministries of the congregation The pastor speaks prophetically each Sunday on behalf of this roundtable and honors the Holy Spirit who is at work among the whole people

The Witness of Preaching Thomas G. Long, 2005-01-01 This thorough revision of this classic text is even clearer and more helpful than the first edition Long has updated the language expanded the key chapter on biblical exegesis and has included more examples of sermon forms illustrations and conclusions

Preaching as Spiritual Leadership Michael E. Connors, CSC, 2021-05-15 In this unique resource Fr Michael E Connors CSC gathers and expertly guides the collective wisdom of experienced preachers and homilists to provide a unique resource that examines the preacher's unique role as shepherd and a spiritual leader The chapters will investigate these dual roles according to the roots of the Catholic spiritual tradition and provide practical advice for priests deacons seminarians in homiletics classes or preaching classes retreat leaders RCIA catechists all who preach Preaching as Spiritual Leadership provides solutions to the following questions How is preaching embedded in the Church's pastoral mission What does it mean to be a shepherd and spiritual leader for others How can a preacher flourish in the role of spiritual leader How can we lead others into committed discipleship through preaching To be a shepherd and spiritual leader the preacher must be in some sense a mystic who is filled with the Lord's gracious presence a presence to be shared with others Homilists are a sacramental people they must also be a mystagogues ministers who can both lead the community's ritual celebrations and help the People of God to plunge into the liturgy with lively faith to touch the holy realities behind them

Preaching the Headlines Lisa L. Thompson, 2021-08-31 Preachers often feel stuck when met with quickly shifting and dense media topics that flood the headlines If and when they determine it is appropriate to address issues that arise in the news cycle they are often at a loss for how to speak about them from the pulpit When preachers understand that a responsibility to sustain life is embedded in the purposes of preaching they discover greater fluidity between the everyday world the biblical text and preaching itself Preaching the Headlines reframes preaching as an ongoing conversation between the modern world and the world of the Bible exploring where the divides between the two may be less rigid than we often acknowledge The preacher uses what they know about life as a bridge to the text while life in the text provides the bridge back to faith in the contemporary world The goal of the book is to help preachers do theological reflection on the everyday world as an integral part of sermon development The process offered in this book is not a substitute for basic methods of sermon development nor a model of exegesis for preaching Preachers will use this process as a supplement alongside their current method of sermon preparation Before the preacher can ever translate the meaning embedded in the headlines they have to learn more about the topics they seek to preach about They do this by digging behind the headlines and expanding their own resources beyond theological traditions alone This work is done in order to think earnestly about how faith might spur transformative action in our world for more just ways of living together

Preaching in the Purple Zone Leah D. Schade, 2019-04-23 Preaching in the Purple Zone is a resource for helping the church understand the challenges facing parish pastors while encouraging and equipping preachers to address the vital justice issues of our time This book provides practical instruction for navigating the hazards of prophetic preaching with tested strategies and prudent tactics grounded in biblical and theological foundations Key to this endeavor is using a method of civil discourse called deliberative dialogue for finding common values among politically diverse parishioners Unique to this book is instruction on using the sermon dialogue sermon process developed by the author that expands the pastor's level of engagement on justice issues with parishioners beyond the single sermon This book equips clergy to help their congregations respectfully engage in deliberation about hot topics find the values that bind them together and respond faithfully to God's Word

The Formative Power of Your Congregation Christina Jones Davis, Tim Shapiro, 2024-09-16 The formative power of a congregation serves as a primary catalyst for human development A congregation also forms a person's life Congregations are often well versed in matters of Christian formation and spiritual maturation But what about how human beings develop as people Insights from human development also known as developmental psychology provide an additional lens through which one can understand how humans are formed throughout life Working with 30 congregations the authors developed learning experiences presented here as case studies so that participants designed experiences that support human development at the intersection of congregational practices and various aspects of life parenting social justice vocation the arts and more Participating congregations extended beyond the volunteer based organization to be one of the primary places where people learned to be more human using the simple yet multi dimensioned phrase The Formative Power of Your Congregation is written for clergy and laity who long for a congregation that supports human flourishing as much or more than the growth or existence of the church We will introduce you to a framework of how congregations participate in the development of human beings Furthermore you will be introduced to particular congregations that applying the framework support participant growth in eight markers that support the flourishing of a person's life Moving churches from a loose volunteer association you will learn how your congregation can form people in lives of meaning and purpose

Writing for the Ear, Preaching from the Heart Donna Giver-Johnston, 2021 In Writing for the Ear Preaching from the Heart Donna Giver Johnston teaches preachers how to communicate effectively how to get away from their notes and make a more personal connection with their listeners

Grounded in a theology of the incarnation she offers a step by step method for writing sermons with the fewest most impactful and memorable words and delivered by heart to communicate a message that captures the ears and hearts of listeners

From Nomads to Pilgrims Diana Butler Bass, J. Stewart-Sicking, 2005-12-30 In The Practicing Congregation Alban 2004 Diana Butler Bass explored the phenomenon of intentional congregations an emerging style of congregational vitality in which churches creatively and intentionally re appropriate traditional Christian practices such as hospitality discernment contemplative prayer and testimony Against the steady flow of stories highlighting mainline decline The Practicing Congregation suggested that there is a new and often overlooked renaissance occurring in mainline Protestant churches The success of The Practicing Congregation made it clear that the next step was to provide examples that would illustrate the concepts laid out in that initial work In From Nomads to Pilgrims the editors continue to build this narrative gathering specific stories of congregational vitality and transformation from participants in their research at the Project on Congregations of Intentional Practice a Lilly Endowment Inc funded study at Virginia Theological Seminary Including stories from a variety of faith traditions across the U S From Nomads to Pilgrims explores how intentional congregations develop how they negotiate the demands of interpreting traditional Christian practices in a postmodern culture how these practices lead to congregational and personal transformation Each chapter is an instructive case study illustrating a unique expression of the vitality experienced by a congregation that intentionally reclaims a traditional Christian practice The pastors who have been involved in these congregations stories share their practical wisdom gained through the experience of leading these churches how intentional congregations develop how they negotiate the demands of interpreting traditional Christian practices in a postmodern culture how these practices lead to congregational and personal transformation

Preaching at the Crossroads David J. Lose, 2013-12-01 The world is changing and preaching needs to do the same With that change the notion of truth need not be surrendered in a postmodern age but it must be approached differently David Lose argues that preaching is a confession made openly for the hearers to embrace and engage in the midst of the real lived world they experience

Hear Her Voice Christine Redwood, 2024-08-01 How does our gender impact our preaching Can women express anger in a sermon Why use a first person narrative sermon structure After preaching for several years Christine Redwood realized both her preaching role models and her theology had come predominantly from men so she spent the next six years researching feminist scholars and their readings of stories from the book of Judges In this accessible book she shares what she has learnt including sample sermons and exercises for preachers wanting to grow in their craft This is essential reading for preachers wanting to amplify marginal voices

Ethical Approaches to Preaching John S. McClure, 2021-02-23 Different ethical situations require different homiletical responses John McClure organizes recent literature on ethics and preaching into four ethical approaches Does your situation require public moral leadership Then a communicative ethic is best Does your situation require the development of countercultural moral character Then a witness ethic is best Does your situation require ethical consciousness raising and organizing for social justice Then a liberationist ethic is best Does your situation require genuine moral conversation and the discernment of shared commitments in spite of our differences Then a hospitality ethic is best Each ethical approach is briefly and carefully explored correlated with appropriate contexts and situations and demonstrated with model sermons The result is a useful handbook for quickly discerning what ethical approach is needed how to preach that approach and what to expect as a result Preaching in an Age of Globalization Eunjoo Mary Kim, 2010-01-01 There are many books on the market that address how culture race gender or economic status affect the way preachers preach and congregations hear sermons This is the first book to address preaching that promotes solidarity across these differences Preaching needs to be targeted to specific contexts But how can a preacher handle specific contexts when we live in a globalized world What does local context mean and who defines it Kim develops the concept of trans contextual preaching to show how preachers can respect diversity and global connections She develops a new theology of preaching examines the modes of biblical interpretation appropriate for trans contextual preaching and explores designs for sermons Sample sermons from the author provide excellent illustrations What's Right with Preaching Today? Mike Graves, Andre Resner, 2021-03-09 In 1928 when Riverside Church NYC pastor Harry Emerson Fosdick asked the question in Harpers Magazine What's the Matter with Preaching Today he did not know that one response to that question had just entered the world in Humboldt Tennessee Fred B Craddock revolutionized preaching theory and practice by flipping pulpit logic from deductive to inductive often called the preaching as storytelling revolution and in so doing brought renewed interest and impact to the practice of preaching effectively rescuing it from an often tedious and moralizing fate With Fred preaching was anything but boring Rather it was an exciting and enlightening ride that led to the renewal of faith To honor Craddock's legacy Mike Graves and Andr Resner invited ten leading voices in homiletics to identify something that is right about preaching today In addition they issued a call to a wide variety of people to contribute stories about Fred's impact on their lives and ministries Twenty seven remembrances of Fred are included here throughout the book If you appreciate effective and engaging preaching as either a preacher or listener the essays and remembrances here will speak to you and provide encouragement about preaching's present and future With contributions from Ronald J Allen Barbara K Lundblad Alyce McKenzie Debra J Mumford Luke Powery Andre Resner Richard Ward Dawn Ottoni Wilhelm Paul Scott Wilson Crossover Preaching Jared E. Alcántara, 2015-10-08 In our increasingly pluralistic and multicultural society there is a need for preaching that is capable of crossing cultural boundaries and engaging multiple contexts Jared Alcántara's exciting new work proposes an intercultural and improvisational account of preaching in conversation with the legacy of Gardner C Taylor The Sacramentality of Preaching Todd Townshend, 2009 In the time of the church transformation renewal and the process of coming to faith rely on the symbolic efficacy of speech where God is encountered as a word The Sacramentality of Preaching examines the thought of Louis Marie Chauvet and incorporates it into contemporary homiletical theory in order to bolster and renew Christian proclamation that has an intentionally sacramental character Liturgical preachers will find practical pathways frameworks and common language through the use of this innovative sacramentology

Dialogical Preaching Marlene Ringgaard Lorensen, Ph.D.,2013-11-20 Dialogical Preaching Bakhtin Otherness and Homiletics explores the genre of preaching in light of theories of dialogicity and carnivalization developed by Mikhail Bakhtin The Bakhtinian approach to preaching evokes ways in which historical acts and embodied experiences are transcribed in literary genres The theories of carnivalization manifest the dynamic other oriented interaction between reflexive texts and embodied acts Experiences of otherness and difference play a central role in human communication as well as in theological descriptions of the relationship between God and humans One of the central aims of this book is to explore ways in which others different from the designated preacher influence contemporary preaching practices and in that sense can be seen as co authors As material for this investigation the book provides analyses of four theologians who have contributed significantly to contemporary homiletical developments namely those of the American homileticians Charles Campbell John S McClure and James H Harris and the Danish Systematic Theologian Svend Bjerg The homiletical analyses lead to the thesis that the dialogical encounter between author and addressees analyzer and analyzed is one of the conditions of interpretation and communication rather than a disturbance The communication theoretical and practical theological analyses are discussed in light of Kierkegaard s Barth s and J ngel s emphasis on the qualitative difference between God and humans These concluding reflections suggest ways in which inter human otherness can function as a dynamically conjoining rather than mutually exclusive difference between God as the Wholly Other and other wise humans Under the Oak Tree

Ronald J. Allen,John S. McClure,O. Wesley Allen Jr.,2013-11-06 Two trends in the early twenty first century intersect to give this volume immediate relevance 1 The emerging postmodern ethos in North America is calling into question many things we have taken for granted including the purposes of the church and 2 our time is increasingly fractious as groups with distinct worldviews become polarized and often antagonistic Eleven noted contributors join a growing current that sees conversation as an image to refresh our thinking about the nature and purpose of the church and as a process in which individuals and communities with different perspectives come together for real understanding Under the Oak Tree employs the image of Sarah and Abraham greeting three visitors under the Oaks of Mamre as an image for the church as a community of conversation a community that opens itself to the otherness of the Bible voices in history and tradition others in the contemporary social and ecological worlds Furthermore the book shows how conversation can lead the church to action The book takes a practical approach by exploring how conversation can shape key parts of the church s life Topics include preaching worship formation evangelism pastoral care mission and ecumenism social witness and the relationship of Christianity to other religions Foundational chapters consider God as conversational the church as community of conversation and the minister as conversation leader Lament-Driven Preaching Eliana Ah-Rum Ku,2024-03-04 This book challenges Christian communities to engage in lament a mode of existence characterized by impassioned expression witnessing and personal or social protest in the face of evil and injustice reflecting a profound yearning for God's saving presence Divine lament responds to and expresses solidarity with human suffering unveiling multiple facets of God's image and demonstrating a profound sense of divine compassion Drawing on the Book of Lamentations Korean concepts related to suffering han and hanpuri the Paschal Triduum narratives and recent homiletic discourses on suffering the author investigates how complex issues related to grief and hope can be addressed in preaching without diminishing the harsh reality of affliction Designed to assist preachers this book encourages a more intentional approach to addressing suffering specifically by advocating for lament as a transitional space between affliction and hope Furthermore readers are invited to contemplate the significance of the church which within a world in decline embodies the body of Christ manifesting both the demise and resurrection of God

The New Interpreter's® Handbook of Preaching, 2010-11-01 The New Interpreter's Handbook of Preaching is a major reference tool for preaching with articles on every facet of Christian sermon preparation and delivery This resource is both scholarly and practical It focuses on the most distinctive feature and greatest strength of homiletics as a discipline It is rooted in interdisciplinary scholarship and it develops theory geared to practice Its theory arises out of the study of both excellent preaching past and present and actual sermon preparation and composition When theory and practice critique each other it is possible to produce guidelines that assist greater excellence and economy in preaching the gospel Excellence in standards is an area in which homiletics needs to grow and this project will be both a means to encourage and develop it A guiding question throughout will be Will it preach The answers will be offered in the sense that here is something that works well rather than here is something to try Preachers will turn to this resource with the expectation that they will find scholarly treatment of topics brief bibliographies of relevant key books and articles along with practical methodological suggestions for preachers to employ The contributors are homileticians preachers and writers in various disciplines who are committed to the pulpit through practice

Best Advice for Preaching John S. McClure, 1998-01-01 A bright new resource for working preachers Packed with preaching wisdom from twenty seven outstanding American preachers from various religious and ethnic backgrounds
