Roy De Maistre The Australian Years 1894-1930:

Roy de Maistre Heather Johnson, Heather Melrose Johnson, 1995 This text explores de Maistre's work in the context of the art produced in England from 1930-1968. It discusses the light shed on current concerns in art and theory and reproduces many of de Maistre's work. It is a sequel to the book Roy de Maistre The Australian Years 1894-1930 Australian Art

Andrew Sayers, 2001 This comprehensive survey uniquely covers both Aboriginal art and that of European Australians providing a revealing examination of the interaction between the two. Painting, bark art, photography, rock art, sculpture and the decorative arts are all fully explored to present the rich texture of Australian art traditions. Well-known artists such as Margaret Preston, Rover Thomas and Sidney Nolan are all discussed as are the natural history illustrators, Aboriginal draughtsmen and pastellists whose work is only now being brought to light by new research. Taking the European colonization of the continent in 1788 as his starting point, Sayers highlights important issues concerning colonial art and women artists in this fascinating new story of Australian art. The Life, Art and Religious Iconography of David

Wright Peter French, 2016-01-14 This book showcases the contribution Australian contemporary glass artist David Wright has made to Australian art and international glassmaking. From 1970 until 2014, David Wright produced hundreds of high-quality art glass windows for Australian public, private and sacred spaces including significant national churches, chapels and synagogues. Yet little scholarly research on the artist and his place in Australian art history exists. Including the first catalogue raisonné ever produced on the artist combined with a close examination of his opus, his influences, manufacturing methods and personal history, this book demonstrates for the first time the extraordinary contribution David Wright made to Australian art and contemporary glassmaking. Grace Crowley's Contribution to Australian Modernism and

Geometric Abstraction Dianne Ottley, 2010-02-19 Grace Crowley has been recognized as a product of European modernism and was one of the leading innovators of geometric abstraction in Australia. Having studied in Paris in the 1920s with one of the leading art teachers, writers and theorists, André Lhote, she returned to Australia having mastered the complex mathematics and geometry of the golden section and dynamic symmetry that had become a framework for modernism. Through her teaching of these compositional techniques at the most progressive modern art school in Sydney in the 1930s, she became a crucial influence on the group of artists now recognized as the historical forerunners to American colour field painting introduced to Australia in the 1960s and Australian abstraction. Through her close friendship with Anne Dangar, who played a critical role in the success of Albert Gleizes' utopian art colony in rural France, Crowley maintained contact with mainstream European modernism and links to the Abstraction-Creation Group in Paris. During the 1940s and 1950s, Crowley worked with fellow artist Ralph Balson and together they developed their own style of geometric abstract art which reflected the spiritual dimensions of Kandinsky and Mondrian. Although undervalued in her own time, the sincerity and uncompromising quality of her work that transcends national boundaries makes her one of the most important Australian women artists of her generation      American Impressionism & Realism Helene Barbara Weinberg, Queensland Art Gallery, 2009 An exhibition publication featuring curatorial essays and works from the Metropolitan Museum of Art New York

Twentieth Century Australian Art , 2000      After Francis Bacon Nicholas Chare, 2017-07-05 Like an analyst listening to a patient this study attends not just to what is said in David Sylvester's interviews with Francis Bacon but also crucially to what is left unspoken to revealing interruptions and caesuras Through interpreting these silences After Francis Bacon breaks with stereotypical ideas about the artist's work and provides new readings and avenues of research After Francis Bacon is the first book to give extended consideration to the way the reception of Bacon's art including Gilles Deleuze's influential text on the artist has been shaped by the Sylvester interviews and to move beyond the limiting effects of the interviews providing fresh interpretations Nicholas Chare draws upon recent developments in psychoanalysis and forensic psychology to present innovative readings of Bacon's work primarily based on the themes of sadomasochism and multi sensory perception Through bringing Bacon's paintings into dialogue with Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness and the film Alien he also provides original insights into the ethical relevance the artist's works have for today This study addresses the complexities of the artist's practice particularly in relation to sexuality and synaesthesia and additionally forms a crucial intervention within current debates about creative writing in art history

Who's who of Australian Writers , 1995      Roy de Maistre Heather Johnson, 1998      Australian Journal of Art , 1991      Europa! Europa? Sascha Bru, Jan Baetens, Benedikt Hjartarson, Peter Nicholls, Tania Ørum, Hubert Berg, 2009-10-29 The first volume of the new series European Avant Garde and Modernism Studies focuses on the relation between the avant garde modernism and Europe It combines interdisciplinary and intermedial research on experimental aesthetics and poetics The essays written by experts from more than fifteen countries seek to bring out the complexity of the European avant garde and modernism by relating it to Europe's intricate history multiculturalism and multilingualism They aim to inquire into the divergent cultural views on Europe taking shape in avant garde and modernist practices and to chart a composite image of the other Europe's that have emerged from the contemporary avant garde and experimental modernism How did the avant garde and modernism in and outside Europe give shape to local national and pan European forms of identity and community To what extent does the transnational exchange and cross fertilisation of aesthetic tendencies illustrate the well rehearsed claim that the avant gardes form a typically European phenomenon Dealing with canonised as well as lesser known exponents of modernism and the avant garde throughout Europe this book will appeal to all those interested in European cultural literary and art history

Ghost Nation Laurie Duggan, 2001 A vividly written account of Australia's visual arts from Federation through to the end of the Depression the period from which the modernist movement evolved Poet Laurie Duggan draws together areas of Australian cultural history which have formerly been treated through separate disciplines eg modernism and feminism      Australian Art in the National Gallery of Australia National Gallery of Australia, Anne Gray, 2002 Australian art in the National
