Royal Society For The Protection Of Birds Year:

The Royal Society for the Protection of Birds Royal Society for the Protection of Birds,1937* The International Convention for the Protection of Birds Concluded in 1902 Ottó Herman,1907 The Ibis ,1905 The Bulletin of the Massachusetts Audubon Society ,1922 Zoological Society Bulletin New York Zoological Society,1914 The Shipley Collection of Scientific Papers ,1921 The January I Saved the World Steve Moreby,2013-12-08 The January I Saved the World is a practical response to Gandhi s challenge We must be the change we want to see in the world Written by Steve Moreby environmental scientist and social justice activist this book presents a day by day series of ideas and resources for making small improvements both to your own life and the world The January I Saved the World takes 31 different ideas and finds the underlying rational basis for why they are likely to be effective in creating positive change The first installment in a series this ebook contains over a hundred links to a wide range of online resources Year Book 1990 Patricia Dent,2013-10-22 This comprehensive yearbook is the only compendium in any language of policy scientific and legal developments concerning the occurrence regulation and control of marine pollution The breadth of scope of the volume reflects the increasing concern at all levels of government scientific enquiry and society with these issues Comprehensive updates of marine related legislation and the activities of a number of international and intergovernmental organisations are included Forewords to each chapter are contributed by prominent politicians and experts in the field of environmental science Over 200 references and numerous tables and illustrations augment the wealth of data within the text including several case studies and coverage of recent conventions In the light of increasing pressure on the marine environment from human activities the yearbook provides a unique contribution to the study of marine pollution worldwide Journal of the Royal Society of Arts Royal Society of Arts (Great Britain),1907 Bird Notes and News ,1922 Conservation Concepts Kurt Jax,2023-10-31 This book provides a review of the multitude of conservation concepts both from a scientific philosophical and social science perspective asking how we want to shape our relationships with nature as humans and providing guidance on which conservation approaches can help us to do this Nature conservation is a contested terrain and there is not only one idea about what constitutes conservation but many different ones which sometimes are conflicting Employing a conceptual and historical analysis this book sorts and interprets the differing conservation concepts with a special emphasis on narrative analysis as a means for describing human nature relationships and for linking conservation science to practice and to society at large Case studies illustrate the philosophical issues and help to analyse major controversies in conservation biology While the main focus is on Western ideas of conservation the book also touches upon non Western including indigenous concepts The approach taken in this book emphasises the often implicit strategic and societal dimensions of conservation concepts including power relations In finding a path through the multitude of concepts the book showcases that it is necessary to maintain the plurality of approaches in order to successfully address different situations and societal choices Overall this book highlights the very tension which conservation biology must withstand between science and society between what is possible and what we want individually or as a society or even more what is desirable Bringing some order into this multitude will support more efficient conservation and conservation biology This book will be of great interest to students and scholars studying nature conservation from a variety of disciplines including biology ecology anthropology sociology geography and philosophy It will also be of use to professionals wanting to gain an understanding of the broad spectrum of conservation concepts and approaches and when to apply them
