Royal African Company:

The Royal African Company Kenneth Gordon Davies,1970 Freedom's Debt William A. Pettigrew,2013-12-30 In the years following the Glorious Revolution independent slave traders challenged the charter of the Royal African Company by asserting their natural rights as Britons to trade freely in enslaved Africans In this comprehensive history of the rise and fall of the RAC William A Pettigrew grounds the transatlantic slave trade in politics not economic forces analyzing the ideological arguments of the RAC and its opponents in Parliament and in public debate Ultimately Pettigrew powerfully reasons that freedom became the rallying cry for those who wished to participate in the slave trade and therefore bolstered the expansion of the largest intercontinental forced migration in history Unlike previous histories of the RAC Pettigrew s study pursues the Company s story beyond the trade s complete deregulation in 1712 to its demise in 1752 Opening the trade led to its escalation which provided a reliable supply of enslaved Africans to the mainland American colonies thus playing a critical part in entrenching African slavery as the colonies preferred solution to the American problem of labor supply The Case of the Royal-African Company ,1710 The Case of the Royal African Company of England ,1744 The Royal African Company of England and the Interlopers Emmett James Smith,1930 Royal African Company's Reasons for Asking One Hundred Eighty Thousand Pounds for Their Property in Africa Royal African Company,1749* A Supplement to the Royal-African-Company's Memorial Royal African Company, The Present State of the Royal African Company Royal African Company,1711 The Case of the Royal African Company of England Royal African Company (AFRICA),1730 The Case of the Royal-African-Company and of the Plantations Royal African Company,1714 The Royal African Company and Separate Traders Agreed Royal African Company,1712 The Case of the Royal African Company of England Royal African Company,1710 An Abstract of the Case of the Royal African Company of England Royal African Company,1729 The Royal African Company K.
