Angels of Mercy Eileen Crofton, 2013-07-04 They may have been angels of mercy But they were also angels with attitude real women with real guts This is the little known story of the gritty and free spirited women who in 1914 put aside their fight for the vote to set up a hospital in an abandoned French abbey to treat the appalling injuries sustained on the Western Front Uniquely in that theatre the hospital was staffed entirely by women doctors surgeons nurses bacteriologists radiographers orderlies and ambulance drivers In the face of opposition from the military and medical establishments and in the teeth of many hardships they succeeded in establishing one of the most effective and longest serving frontline military hospitals of the First World War

The Women of Royaumont Eileen Crofton, 1997 This story relates the wartime experiences of a group of women who ran a hospital near the trenches during World War I often under conditions of great hardship Told largely through letters home and diaries this book throws light on wartime conditions and the cause of women's suffrage

Reassessing the Roles of Women as 'Makers' of Medieval Art and Architecture, 2012-05-07 These volumes propose a renewed way of framing the debate around the history of medieval art and architecture to highlight the multiple roles played by women Today's standard division of artist from patron is not seen in medieval inscriptions on paintings metalwork embroideries or buildings where the most common verb is made fecit At times this denotes the individual whose hands produced the work but it can equally refer to the person whose donation made the undertaking possible Here twenty four scholars examine secular and religious art from across medieval Europe to demonstrate that a range of studies is of interest not just for a particular time and place but because from this range overall
