S. Beaver: the Ship that Saved the West* Derek Pethick, 1970 The Beaver James P. Delgado, 1993 The Hudson's Bay Company's paddle steamship the Beaver was the first and for many years the only steam vessel on the coast of British Columbia In 1888 her long and successful career came to a sad end on the rocks of Prospect Point but she remains an object of fascination to divers This is the biography of the Beaver a ship that made an unparalleled contribution to the history of the west coast

S.S. Beaver; the Ship That Saved the West [by] Derek Pethick Derek William Pethick, 1970 Sam Hill's Peace Arch Richard Clark, 2005 Standing but a stone's throw from the continent's western shoreline Samuel Hill a Quaker devoted to peace and a road builder rolling in wealth addressed 4 000 celebrants gathered at the United States Canada border on the Fourth of July 1915 There they celebrated a century of international peace and the opening of the Pacific Highway now known simply as the I 5 As the ceremony closed one member of the crowd stood and proposed construction of an international arch of peace at the site whereon they stood Hill agreed and acted upon the proposal Six years later on September 6 1921 Samuel Hill stood before a crowd estimated at 10 000 or more and dedicated the International Peace Arch to the cause of world peace War satisfies neither the victors nor the vanquished he said opening his dedicatory address Perfect peace alone satisfies For more than 80 years the Peace Arch has stood between freeway lanes where millions of travelers heading south into Washington state or north into British Columbia have seen it as a symbol of peace resident of Blaine Washington whose home is but one block from Peace Arch State Park completed an exhaustive manuscript after fifteen years of research The Peace Arch standing on beautiful international parkland has also been enshrouded with myths and mysteries that Clark has uncovered in the course of his research Peace Arch devotees long forgotten have been restored to remembrances they have long deserved Vital facts long lost have been recovered and given merited recognition The Peace

Arch has been the setting of devotion and demonstrations queens and quarrels marriages and marching bands But in its history so notably marked by variation ranging from violence to indifference peace has remained its ongoing theme

Glyphs and Gallows Peter Wilton Johnson,1999 In 1995 Peter Johnson went looking for a rare set of petroglyphs located on the outer coast of Vancouver Island near an abandoned whaling village Encouraged by archival research that yielded court records 90 year old correspondence and a tantalizing 1926 newspaper article Peter sought to tie these glyphs to the 1869 wreck of the trading barque John Bright and the bizarre colonial trial that followed He found more questions than answers Why for example were two Nuuchahmuls men so readily hung from a gallows erected in front of their village at Hesquiat And how did this event relate to the rock carvings that Peter knew existed in a cove many miles south along the life saving West Coast Trail by the Graveyard of the Pacific This story explores the significance of particular petroglyphs colonial injustice and the European trading mentality on the west coast at the time of contact Peter interweaves a personal journal with historical narrative in order to produce a lively account of the relationship between our coastal history and a little known Aboriginal art form
