Colonial Settlers on the River Torrens Roger Irvine, 2019-01-30 The Kurna people lived peacefully and productively along the River Torrens or Karrawirra Parri for millennia This book describes their way of life and their displacement by the first generation of European settlers The outstanding achievement of the settlers on the upper Torrens was the contribution they made to the development of horticulture They transitioned from grains and livestock to producing huge quantities of melons and an impressive diversity of fruits vines and vegetables Roger Irvine details the lives of these settler families including notables such as Charles Campbell who gave his name to Campbell Town Joseph Ind whose property Little Paradise provided a name for another suburb and A J Murray who chose Athelstone as the name of his farm for reasons now difficult to trace The inhabitants of the upper Torrens have witnessed many changes including both setbacks and successes Colonial Settlers on the River Torrens reflects on an area that has had many incarnations and the river that continues to flow through it

Between Duty and Design John J. Taylor, 2014 Annotation The architectural work of Joseph John Talbot Hobbs is impossible to overlook in Perth and Western Australia It dominates public spaces as well as domestic and business streetscapes A strong sense of duty determined that the diminutive fifty year old architect soldier J J Talbot Hobbs would in 1914 voyage to the First World War where he survived the horrors of Gallipoli and the Western Front Hobbs powerful organisational skills positioned him as Australia s highest ranking soldier in Europe after the Great War Organiser of Australian war memorials in France and Belgium his stellar designs both there and throughout Western Australia are now largely forgotten Who was J J Talbot Hobbs that he was considered to be of such importance at the time of his death that a memorial was built in one of the most prominent places in the state s capital city of Perth Between Duty and Design is a meticulous biography of the man soldier and architect highlighting his place as a citizen of national importance

Australia Harry Margalit, 2019-11-15 This book tells the story of the architects and buildings that have defined Australia s architectural culture since the founding of the modern nation through Federation in 1901 That year marked the beginning of a search for better city forms and buildings to accommodate the changing realities of Australian life and to express an emerging distinctive and eventually confident Australian identity While Sydney and Melbourne were the settings for many of the major buildings all states and territories developed architectural traditions based on distinctive histories and climates Harry Margalit explores the flowering of these many architectural variants from the bid to create a model city in Canberra through the stylistic battles that opened a space for modernism to the idealism of postwar reconstruction and beyond to the new millennium Australia reveals a vibrant and influential culture of the built environment at its best when it matches civic idealism with the sensuality of a country of stunning light and landscapes
