Sculpture The Adventure Of Modern Sculpture In The Nineteenth And Twentieth Centuries:

Sculpture Antoinette Le Normand-Romain,1987 Sculpture: The adventure of modern sculpture in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries ,1996 The adventure of modern sculpture in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries ,1996 Sculpture Antoinette Le Normand- Romain,1987 Escultura pública: without special title Liisa Flora Voionmaa Tanner,2005 Extensive research regarding the public statues and monuments of the capital city of Santiago in Chile First volume reviews Chile s political history and the importance 19th century commemorative monuments emblems numismatic and modern sculpture has had in the symbolic construction of national identity with definitions of nomenclature and collective and artistic symbols The second volume is a guide with purposed urban tours to visit the main public art located in the civic center of the city Sculpture ,1996 Skulpturens historie fra oldtiden til vore dage Sculpture Volume 4 The Adventure of Modern Sculpture in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries Antoinette Le Normand-Romain,1996 History of Art Horst Woldemar Janson,Anthony F. Janson,2004 For forty years this widely acclaimed classic has remained unsurpassed as an introduction to art in the Western world boasting the matchless credibility of the Janson name This newest update features a more contemporary more colorful design and vast array of extraordinarily produced illustrations that have become the Janson hallmark A narrative voice makes this book a truly enjoyable read and carefully reviewed and revised updates to this edition offer the utmost clarity in contributions based on recent scholarship Extensive captions for the book s incredible art program offer profound insight through the eyes of twentieth century art historians speaking about specific pieces of art featured throughout Significantly changed in this edition is the chapter on The Late Renaissance in which Janson offers a new perspective on the subject tracing in detail the religious art tied to the Catholic Reform movement whose early history is little known to many readers of art history Janson has also rearranged early Renaissance art according to genres instead of time sequence and he has followed the reinterpretation of Etruscan art begun in recent years by German and English art historians With a truly humanist approach this book gives written and visual meaning to the captivating story of what artists have tried to express and why for more than 30 000 years

Sculpture Brooke Barrie,1979 Archaism, Modernism, and the Art of Paul Manship Susan Rather,2014-11-06 Archaism an international artistic phenomenon from early in the twentieth century through the 1930s receives its first sustained analysis in this book The distinctive formal and technical conventions of archaic art especially Greek art particularly affected sculptors some frankly modernist others staunchly conservative and a few who like American Paul Manship negotiated the distance between tradition and modernity Susan Rather considers the theory practice and criticism of early twentieth century sculpture in order to reveal the changing meaning and significance of the archaic in the modern world To this end and against the background of Manship s career she explores such topics as the archaeological resources for archaism the classification of the non Western art of India as archaic the interest of sculptors in modern dance Isadora

Duncan and Ruth St Denis and the changing critical perception of archaism Rather rejects the prevailing conception of archaism as a sterile and superficial academic style to argue its initial importance as a modernist mode of expression The early practitioners of archaism including Aristide Maillol Andr Derain and Constantin Brancusi renounced the rhetorical excess overrefined naturalism and indirect techniques of late nineteenth century sculpture in favor of nonnarrative stylized and directly carved works for which archaic Greek art offered an important example Their position found implicit support in the contemporaneous theoretical writings of Emmanuel L wy Wilhelm Worringer and Adolf von Hildebrand The perceived relationship between archaic art and tradition ultimately compromised the modernist authority of archaism and made possible its absorption by academic and reactionary forces during the 1910s By the 1920s Paul Manship was identified with archaism which had become an important element in the aesthetic of public sculpture of both democratic and totalitarian societies Sculptors often employed archaizing stylizations as ends in themselves and with the intent of evoking the foundations of a classical art diminished in potency by its ubiquity and obsolescence Such stylistic archaism was not an empty formal exercise but an urgent affirmation of traditional values under siege Concurrently archaism entered the mainstream of fashionable modernity as an ingredient in the popular and commercial style known as Art Deco Both developments fueled the condemnation of archaism and of Manship its most visible exemplar by the avant garde Rather's exploration of the critical debate over archaism finally illuminates the uncertain relationship to modernism on the part of many critics and highlights the problematic positions of sculpture in the modernist discourse

A Century of Sculpture in Texas, 1889-1989 Patricia D. Hendricks, Becky Duval Reese, 1989 The Oxford History of Western Art Martin Kemp, 2000

The Oxford History of Western Art is the new authority on the development of visual culture in the West over the last 2700 years from the classical period to the end of the twentieth century OHWA is an innovative and challenging reappraisal of how the history of art can be presented and understood None of the currently available general histories of art offers the wealth of perspectives and cross media references of this book Through a carefully devised modular structure readers are given insights not only into how and why works of art were created but also how works in different media relate to each other across time Here uniquely is not the simple linear story of art but a rich series of stories told from varying viewpoints The founding principle of the book has been to use carefully selected groupings of pictures to give readers a sense of the visual texture of the various periods and episodes covered The 167 illustration groups supported by explanatory text and picture captions create a sequence of visual tours not merely a procession of individually great works viewed in isolation but juxtapositions of significant images that powerfully convey a sense of the visual environments in which works of art need to be viewed in order to be understood and appreciated The aim throughout has been to make the shape and nature of these visual presentations a stimulating and rewarding experience allowing readers to become active participants in the process of interpretation and synthesis Another key feature of the narrative is the re definition of traditional period boundaries Rather than relying on conventional labels such as Medieval Renaissance Baroque etc five major phases of significant historical change are established that unlock longer and more meaningful continuities The art of classical antiquity from c 600 BC to the fall of Rome in AD 410 The establishment of visual culture in Europe from 410 to 1527 the sack of papal Rome European visual regimes from 1527 to 1770 The era of revolutions 1770 to 1914 Modernism and after 1914 to 2000 This new framework shows how the major religious and secular functions of art have been forged sustained transformed revived and revolutionized over the ages how the institutions of Church and State have consistently aspired to make art in their own image and how the rise of art history itself has come to provide the dominant conceptual framework within which artists create patrons patronize collectors collect galleries exhibit dealers deal and art historians write The text has been written by a team of 50 specialist authors working under the direction of Professor Martin Kemp one of the UK's most distinguished art historians Whilst bringing their own expertise and vision to their sections each author was also asked to relate their text to a number of unifying themes and issues including written evidence physical contexts patronage viewing and reception techniques gender and racial issues centres and peripheries media and condition the notion of art and current presentations Though the coverage of topics focuses on European notions of art and their transplantation and transformation in North America space is also given to cross fertilizations with other traditions including the art of Latin America the Soviet Union India Africa and Afro Caribbean Australia and Canada Professor Kemp and his team similarly deal generously with the applied arts and reproductive media such as photography and prints The result is a vibrant vigorous and revolutionary account of Western art serving both as an inspirational introduction for the general reader and an authoritative source of reference and guidance for students

A Hero's Many Faces T. Schult, 2009-04-08 Raoul Wallenberg is remembered for his humanitarian activity on behalf of the Hungarian Jews at the end of World War II and as the Swedish diplomat who disappeared into the Soviet Gulag in 1945 This book examines how thirty one Wallenberg monuments in twelve countries on five continents commemorate the man

Constructions of Media Authorship Christiane Heibach, Angela Krewani, Irene Schütze, 2020-11-23 The author is dead long live the author This paradox has shaped discussions on authorship since at least the 1960s when the dominant notion of the individual author genius was first critically questioned The ongoing discussion has mainly focused on literature and the arts but has ignored nearly any artistic practice beyond these two fields Constructions of Media Authorship aims to fill this gap the volume's interdisciplinary contributions reflect historical and current artistic practices within various media and attempt to grasp them from different perspectives The first part sheds a new light on different artistic and design practices and questions the still dominant view on the individual identifiable author The second part discusses creative practices in literature emphasizing the interrelation of aesthetic discourses and media practices The third part investigates authoring in audiovisual media especially film and TV while the final part turns to electronic and digital media and their collective creativity and hybrid mediality The volume is also an attempt to develop new methodological approaches focusing on the interplay between various human and non human actors in different media constellations
