Structure and Cognition in Art Dorothy K. Washburn, 1983-07-21 The essays in this 1983 volume present an innovative and unified approach to the archaeological analysis and interpretation of art and design From Tamaki-Makaurau-Rau to Auckland Russell Stone, 2013-10-01 Drawing on oral histories of the indigenous Maori peoples of the area archaeological evidence and early missionaries diaries and histories this model of local history provides a comprehensive contextual history of the city of Auckland from first settlement of the area about 800 years ago up to 1840 Embedded Symmetries Dorothy K. Washburn, 2004-10-15 Scholars representing several disciplines examine how patterns and symmetry are expressed and resonate in a variety of man s creations and cultures The Wider Domain of Evolutionary Thought D.R. Oldroyd, K. Langham, 2012-12-06 Only in fairly recent years has History and Philosophy of Science been recognized though not always under that name as a distinct field of scholarly endeavour Previously in the Australasian region as elsewhere those few individuals working within this broad area of inquiry found their base both intellectually and socially where they could In fact the institutionalization of History and Philosophy of Science began comparatively early in Australia An initial lecturing appointment was made at the University of Melbourne immediately after the Second World War in 1946 and other appointments followed as the subject underwent an expansion during the 1950s and 60s similar to that which took place in other parts of the world Today there are major Departments at the University of Melbourne the University of New South Wales and the University of Wollongong and smaller groups active in many other parts of Australia and in New Zealand Australasian Studies in History and Philosophy of Science aims to provide a distinctive publication outlet for Australian and New Zealand scholars working in the general area of history philosophy and social studies of science Each volume will comprise a group of essays on a connected theme edited by an Australian or a New Zealander with special expertise in that particular area The series should however prove of more than merely local interest Papers will address general issues
