new transformations in Hispano art as the artists experimented with colonial art forms and modernist trends in painting photography and sculpture Drawing on native and non native sources of inspiration they generated alternative lines of modernist innovation and mestizo creativity These lines expressed Hispanos cultural and ethnic affiliations with local Native peoples and with Mexico and presented a vision of New Mexico as a place shaped by the fissures of modernity and the dynamics of cultural conflict and exchange A richly illustrated work of cultural history this first book length treatment explores the important yet neglected role Hispano artists played in shaping the world of modernism in twentieth century New Mexico A Contested Art places Hispano artists at the center of narratives about modernism while bringing Hispano art into dialogue with the cultural experiences of Mexicans Chicanas/os and Native Americans In doing so it rewrites a chapter in the history of both modernism and Hispano art Published in cooperation with The William P Clements Center for Southwest Studies Southern Methodist University Sculptures ,2001 Tribal Art ,2007 Quarterly journal of the art culture and history of traditional peoples and Old World civilizations The Shape of Power Karen Lemmey,Tobias Wofford,Grace Yasumura,2024-11-12 A major new survey of American sculpture exploring how it both reflects and redefines concepts of race and identity in the United States How does American sculpture intersect with the history of race in the United States The three dimensional qualities of sculpture give it a distinct advantage over other art forms in capturing a subject s likeness and our minds can swiftly conjure a body and racialize it from the most minimal of prompts The Shape of Power examines the role of American sculpture from the nineteenth century to today in understanding and constructing the concept of race in the United States and how this medium has shaped the way generations have learned to visualize and think about race Exploring the relationship between sculpture and ideas about race in the United States this book provides fresh perspectives on artists ranging from Hiram Powers Edmonia Lewis and Augusta Savage to Barbara Chase Riboud Titus Kaphar Raven Halfmoon Sanford Biggers Betye Saar Yolanda Lopez and Simone Leigh It reveals how sculptors use this versatile medium to challenge discriminatory ideologies and entrenched social and cultural constructions of race while offering bold new visions of community identity and selfhood Featuring superb illustrations of sculptural works in a broad range of media The Shape of Power contributes new scholarship to the understudied field of American sculpture which hasn t been the subject of a major publication survey in more than fifty years Published in association with the Smithsonian American Art Museum Washington DC Exhibition Schedule Smithsonian American Art Museum Washington DC November 8 2024 September 14 2025

Africa's Struggle for Its Art Bénédicte Savoy, 2022-04-05 A major new history of how African nations starting in the 1960s sought to reclaim the art looted by Western colonial powers For decades African nations have fought for the return of countless works of art stolen during the colonial era and placed in Western museums In Africa's Struggle for Its Art Bénédicte Savoy brings to light this largely unknown but deeply important history One of the world's foremost experts on restitution and cultural heritage Savoy investigates extensive previously unpublished sources to reveal that the roots of the struggle extend much further back than prominent recent debates indicate and that these efforts were covered up by myriad opponents Shortly after 1960 when eighteen former colonies in Africa gained independence a movement to pursue repatriation was spearheaded by African intellectual and political classes Savoy looks at pivotal events including the watershed speech delivered at the UN General Assembly by Zaire's president Mobutu Sese Seko which started the debate regarding restitution of colonial era assets and resulted in the first UN resolution on the subject She examines how German museums tried to withhold information about their inventory and how the British Parliament failed to pass a proposed amendment to the British Museum Act which protected the country's collections Savoy concludes in the mid 1980s when African nations enacted the first laws focusing on the protection of their cultural heritage Making the case for why restitution is essential to any future relationship between African countries and the West Africa's Struggle for Its Art will shape conversations around these crucial issues for years to come
