Sea Battles In Closeup The Age Of Nelson Sea Battles In Closeup:

Sea Battles in Close-up, the Age of Nelson David Lyon, 1996 There are few more potent images of naval warfare than that of the dying Admiral Lord Nelson at the moment of his greatest triumph the defeat of the joint French and Spanish fleets at Trafalgar The triumph at Trafalgar was the culmination of an era of growing British pre eminence at sea and foreshadowed the increasing power and prestige bestowed on Britain during the 19th century through the domination of the seas by the Royal Navy Covering many of the most significant naval actions of the second half of the 18th century and the beginning of the 19th century Sea Battles in Close up The Age of Nelson is a fascinating account of the nature of naval warfare in the era of sail and the personalities involved Initially looking at the organisation and tactics of fighting at sea in the period the book then examines in detail a number of major engagements These include Quiberon Bay in 1759 The Nile in 1798 and Lissa in 1811 as well as Trafalgar itself Also covered is an examination of single ship actions and the attempts to defeat the Barbary Corsairs The book is fully illustrated with a superb selection of line drawings etchings and other contemporary pictures which graphically explore both the theory and practice of naval combat in the period

English/British Naval History to 1815 Eugene L. Rasor, 2004-10-30 The English British have always been known as the sailor race with hearts of oak the Royal Navy as the Senior Service and First Line of Defense It facilitated the motto The sun never set on the British Empire The Royal Navy has exerted a powerful influence on Great Britain its Empire Europe and ultimately the world This superior annotated bibliography supplies entries that explore the influence of the English British Navy through its history This survey will provide a major reference guide for students and scholars at all levels It incorporates evaluative qualitative and critical analysis processes the essence of historical scholarship Each one of the 4 124 annotated entries is evaluated assessed analyzed integrated and incorporated into the historiographical scholarship The Changing Face Of Battle Bryan Perrett, 2012-10-11 A fascinating study of the changing face of the art of warfare over the past 2000 years by one of today s most readable historians Mankind has always been in conflict Without war there would be no peace no stability no safety Men go to war to defend or acquire territory that they see as rightly theirs to defend or impose beliefs that they hold as fundamental truths In 2 000 years while the causes of battle have hardly changed the conduct of battle has changed and developed apace Technology advances weaponry becomes ever more powerful military thinking shifts again and again In THE CHANGING FACE OF BATTLE historian Bryan Perrett reviews that continuous process of change from AD 9 through to the Gulf War By analysis of some 30 significant battle confrontations he shows in clear detail just how advanced we now are in the art of warfare Nelson's Victory Peter Goodwin, 2012-11-19 With the approach of the 200th anniversary of the Royal Navy s greatest battle off Cape Trafalgar on October 21st 1805 much attention will be given to our most tangible symbol of that most ferocious engagement Nelson s fully preserved flagship HMS Victory Much has been written about HMS Victory but it is often simplistic and romanticised or clearly aimed at the technical requirements of the naval historian In Nelson's Victory Peter Goodwin adopts a fresh approach to explain the workings of the only surviving line of battle ship of the Napoleonic Wars As Victory was engaged in battle during only two per cent of her active service Peter Goodwin also provides a glimpse into life and work at sea during the other ninety eight per cent of the time As technical and historical advisor to the ship in Portsmouth he is in a unique position to investigate and interpret not only the ship's structure but also the essential aspects of shipboard life victualling organisation discipline domestic arrangements and medical care In his role as Keeper and Curator of the ship the author has been asked thousands of questions by visitors and historians alike In this volume he has selected 101 of the most important and telling questions and provides full and detailed responses to each What types of wood were used in building Victory What was Victory's longest voyage How much shot was fired from her guns at Trafalgar How many boats did Victory carry What was prize money What was grog When did her career as a fighting ship end and How many people visit Victory each year Power at Sea Lisle A. The Arts of Leadership Keith Grint,2000-04-13 Leadership is still much discussed studied and sought after even though we now live in supposedly more democratic times with flatter organizations and empowered employees But how can we best understand leadership Are leaders born or made Do they have particular traits or are we all potential leaders Do the requirements for leadership change over time or are there timeless patterns Do traditional approaches help us to pick and develop leaders or are there alternative ways that advance our understanding In this book Keith GrintDSwho has been studying and teaching leadership for over a decadeDSinvestigates the notion of leadership in a series of historical case studies and rich essay portraits of some of the most famous and infamous leaders e g Florence Nightingale Richard Branson Horatio Nelson Martin Luther King Henry Ford etc The scenarios are drawn from right across the spectrum to include business politics society and the military The first part of the book considers four sets of parallel cases where leadership appears to be a major explanation of success and failure The second part takes the four critical issues arising from these parallel cases identity strategic vision organizational tactics and persuasive communication and explores them in detail One main reason we have such difficulty in explaining and enhancing leadership Grint argues is because we often adopt perspectives and models that obscure rather than illuminate the issues involved The reliance upon traditional scientific analysis has not provided the anticipated advances in our understanding because leadership is more fruitfully considered as an art or more exactly an array of arts rather than as a science Grint s rich and meticulously researched profiles combine to reveal these Arts of Leadership

Strategy in the American War of Independence Donald Stoker, Kenneth J. Hagan, Michael T. McMaster, 2009-10-16 This book examines the strategies pursued by the Colonies and the other combatants in the American War for Independence placing the conflict in its proper global context Many do not realize the extent to which the 1775 colonial rebellion against British rule escalated into a global conflict Collectively this volume examines the strategies pursued by the American Colonies Great Britain France Spain and Holland and the League of Armed Neutrality placing the military naval and diplomatic elements of the struggle in their proper global context Moreover assessing how each nation prosecuted their respective wars provides lessons for current students of strategic studies and military and naval history This book will be of great interest to students of strategic studies American history Military History and political science in general Donald Stoker is Professor of Strategy and Policy for the US Naval War College s Monterey Program in Monterey California He joined the Strategy and Policy faculty in 1999 and has taught both in Monterey and Newport Kenneth J Hagan Professor Emeritus the U S Naval Academy is currently Professor of Strategy and Policy for the U S Naval War College s Monterey Program Michael T McMaster is a Professor at the U S Naval War College in Monterey He is a retired U S Navy Commander

500 Great Military Leaders Spencer C. Tucker, 2014-12-16 This insightful encyclopedia examines the most influential commanders who have shaped military history and the course of world events from ancient times to the present From Alexander the Great and Attila the Hun to Ho Chi Minh and Colin Powell 500 Great Military Leaders provides readers with insight into the most innovative and prominent individuals who have led armies to victory on battlefields all over the world The broad coverage ranges from military leaders from the ancient world to the present day including political figures who directed war efforts and those who were responsible for major technological improvements This encyclopedia goes beyond providing factual information about each individual s life to delve into the greater historical context and impact on their contemporaries as well as on future military history The presentation of information is designed to enable readers to both observe the gradual evolution of warfare over time and clearly perceive the differences in tactics used by generals with varying military resources at their disposal The entries include not only information on the individual s life and work but a summary statement that assesses successes and failures across each leader s career and summarizes the overall impact Each entry also provides several references for further reading about that individual The accessible writing style of this resource and in depth information and analyses make it appropriate for high school and undergraduate level students as well as scholars of military history and individuals who simply enjoy reading about military history Reader's Guide to Military History Charles Messenger, 2013-10-31 This book contains some 600 entries on a range of topics from ancient Chinese warfare to late 20th century intervention operations Designed for a wide variety of users it encompasses general reviews of aspects of military organization and science as well as specific wars and conflicts The book examines naval and air warfare as well as significant individuals including commanders theorists and war leaders Each entry includes a listing of additional publications on the topic accompanied by an article discussing these publications with reference to their particular emphases strengths and limitations Air University Library Index to Military Periodicals ,1997 Admirals in the Age of Nelson Lee Bienkowski, 2003 The author makes liberal use of primary source material and quotes for the first time from letters and journal entries previously unknown to the public Among those profiled are admirals who achieved their fame during keynote battles the noble born Lord Howe at the Glorious First of June Lord Duncan at Camperdown Sir John Duckworth at San Domingo and Lord de Saumarez at Algeciras Two Ships, Two Oceans, Two Wars Colin B. Nichols, 2018-01-04 Convinced that Napoleon was about to declare war once more the British Government ordered a secret press of seamen in 1803 This book records how the ensuing events affected one man in particular Joseph Bates a 21 year old merchant seaman who proved to be of exceptional ability rising to the rank of lieutenant The book is based largely on the logs of the two ships in which he sailed the frigate HMS Cerberus and the sloop of war HMS Racoon supplemented by eye witness accounts official letters medical notes and the secret diary of one of Joseph's shipmates Pressed in Chatham on 6th May a few days before Britain declared war on France he spent the next 12 years before his release from the Royal Navy The author brings to life the detail of everyday events on board as Joseph is promoted from able seaman servicing in the foretop to coxswain quartermaster midshipman master's mate and lieutenant Joseph's service however was full of more dramatic events deaths by drowning falls from the rigging cholera or tuberculosis He was engaged in battles attacks on the French coast the capture of a town in the Caribbean an explosion in the Racoon that killed many of the crew and the near sinking of the ship But there were lighter moments the celebrations on crossing the Equator and riding horses borrowed from the Mexican army One highlight found in the secret diary of a shipmate is his single handed attempt to transport a very large hog back to the ship After capturing the last American fort on the Pacific coast Joseph's ship sailed to Hawaii and Tahiti hunting American shipping Her mission completed Racoon once more rounded to the Horn and as a final duty escorted a convoy back to England Joseph's service was ended Sea History ,1998 British Atlantic, American Frontier Stephen John Hornsby, 2005 A pioneering work in Atlantic studies that emphasizes a transnational approach to the past
