Captain Alex MacLean Don MacGillivray, 2008-11-01 Alex MacLean was the inspiration for the title character in Jack London's bestselling novel The Sea Wolf. Originally from Cape Breton, MacLean sailed to the Pacific side of North America when he was twenty-one and worked there for thirty-five years as a sailor and sealer. His achievements and escapades while in the Victoria fleet in the 1880s laid the foundation for his status as a folk hero. But this biography reveals more than the construction of a legend. Don MacGillivray opens a window onto the sealing dispute brought the United States and Britain to the brink of war with Canadian sealing interests frequently enmeshed in espionage, scientific debate, diplomatic negotiations, and vexing questions of maritime and environmental law. Reimagining the American Pacific Rob Wilson, 2000 Discusses the makings of the American Pacific: locality, location, identity as space and ground of cultural production and the way this region can be linked to Asia and the Pacific as well as to American mainland. Englisch-deutsches und deutsch-englisches Wörterbuch Lucas, 1868 Sea Wolf Kathryn White, 2016-08-11 Maya's little brother Ethan is always telling stories about the Sea Wolf, the monster in the sea around Black Rock. Maya doesn't believe Ethan's lies, but she does believe the sea is dangerous, so when Ethan tries to prove he can kayak to Black Rock, she knows she has to try to save him. Will either of them make it back from the dark and deadly sea? Bloomsbury High/Low books encourage and support reading practice by providing gripping age-appropriate stories for struggling and reluctant readers: those with dyslexia or those with English as an additional language. Printed on tinted paper and with a dyslexia-friendly font, Sea Wolf is aimed at readers aged 9 and has a manageable length: 64 pages and reading age 7. Produced in association with reading experts at CatchUp, a charity which aims to address underachievement caused by literacy and numeracy difficulties. Englisch-Deutsches und Deutsch-Englisches Wörterbuch mit besonderer Rücksicht auf den gegenwärtigen Standpunkt der Literatur und Wissenschaft Newton Ivory Lucas, 1868 Sailor Talk Mary K. Bercau Edwards, 2021-03-01 This book investigates the highly engaging topic of the literary and cultural significance of sailor talk. The central argument is that sailor talk offers a way of rethinking the figure of the nineteenth-century sailor and sailor writer whose language articulated the rich, layered and complex culture of sailors in port and at sea. From this argument, many other compelling threads emerge, including questions relating to the seafarer's multifaceted identity, maritime labor, questions of performativity, the ship as theater, the varied and multiple registers of sailor talk, and the foundational role of maritime language in the lives and works of Herman Melville, Joseph Conrad, and Jack London. The book also includes nods to James Fenimore Cooper, Rudyard Kipling, and Robert Louis Stevenson. Meticulous scholarly research underpins the close readings of literary texts, and the scrupulously detailed biographical accounts of three major sailor writers The author's own lived experience as a seafarer adds a refreshingly materialist dimension to the subtle literary readings The book represents a valuable addition to a growing scholarly and political interest in the sea and sea literature By taking the sailor's viewpoint and listening to sailors' voices the book also marks a clear intervention in this developing field St. Nicholas Mary Mapes Dodge, 1920 Hunting the Last Great Pirate Michael Edward Ashton Ford, 2020-05-30 In 1827 the Duke of Wellington former Commander in Chief of the British Army and British Prime Minister ordered the withdrawal of British soldiers from the island of Ceylon after years of bloody conflict there English cargo vessels including the unarmed English Quaker ship Morning Star were despatched to sail to Colombo to repatriate wounded British soldiers and a cargo of sealed crates containing captured treasure By January 1828 Morning Star was anchored at Table Bay Cape Town before joining an armed British convoy of East Indiamen heading north Heavily laden she struggled to keep up with the ships ahead The notorious pirate Benito de Soto was the master of a heavily armed pirate ship lying in wait off Ascension Island in the mid Atlantic to pick off stragglers from passing convoys Morning Star was easily overhauled by the pirate and stopped with cannon fire Her captain and officers were executed and the attackers fled to Spain with cargo stolen from the stricken ship Later de Soto buried the treasure and travelled to British ruled Gibraltar with forged identity documents to sell the spoils The authorities however discovered his identity and he was arrested Despite the absence of eye witness evidence that he was the pirate captain he was convicted of piracy before a British judge and jury and hanged at Gibraltar in early 1830 It is clear that proof of de Soto's guilt in court was lacking but astonishingly when renovations were being carried out at de Soto's former home village in Galicia Spain in 1926 much of the treasures he had plundered from Morning Star were found buried in the grounds there Almost 100 years later British justice administered in London and Gibraltar was vindicated Adventures of Carl Rydell Carl Rydell, 1924
