Seafaring Woman:

Women Sailors and Sailors' Women David Cordingly, 2001-04-15 For centuries the sea has been regarded as a male domain Fisherman navy officers pirates and explorers roamed the high seas while their wives and daughters stayed on shore Oceangoing adventurers and the crews of their ships were part of an all male world or were they In this illuminating historical narrative maritime scholar David Cordingly shows that in fact an astonishing number of women went to sea in the great age of sail Some traveled as the wives or mistresses of captains A few were smuggled aboard by officers or seaman A number of cases have come to light of young women dressing in men s clothes and working alongside the sailors for months and sometimes years In the U S and British navies it was not uncommon for the wives of bosuns carpenters and cooks to go to sea on warships Cordingly s tremendous research shows that there was indeed a thriving female population from female pirates to the sirens of legend on and around the high seas A landmark work of women s history disguised as a spectacularly entertaining yarn Women s Sailors and Sailor s Women will surprise and delight readers Seafaring Woman Dorothy Dowdell, 1988 Sailorwomen: Seafaring Adventurers of Yesteryear Pasquale De Marco, 2025-05-21 In a world dominated by men there are those who dare to break the mold and sail against the tide This book tells the stories of extraordinary women who defied societal norms and embarked on remarkable maritime adventures From ancient seafaring civilizations to the golden age of exploration and beyond women have played a vital role in shaping maritime history They have sailed as pirates privateers merchant sailors and fishers They have fought in naval battles led expeditions and made groundbreaking contributions to maritime science and technology These women faced countless challenges and discrimination but they persevered proving their resilience courage and determination They navigated treacherous waters endured harsh conditions and overcame prejudice to pursue their dreams of adventure freedom and equality Their stories are a testament to the indomitable spirit of women and their ability to thrive in even the most challenging environments They serve as an inspiration to all who dare to break down barriers and defy expectations In this book you will meet fearless pirates like Grace O Malley and Zheng Yi Sao pioneering explorers like Bessie Coleman and Nellie Bly and skilled navigators like Annie Edson Taylor and Maria Reiche You will learn about the contributions of women to maritime science and technology from Rachel Carson s groundbreaking work on marine conservation to Sylvia Earle s deep sea exploration Their stories are a celebration of the diversity resilience and achievements of women in the maritime world They remind us that the sea has always been a place of opportunity and empowerment for women and that they continue to play a vital role in shaping its future If you like this book write a review on google books Seafaring Women David Cordingly, 2002-03-12 For centuries the sea has been regarded as a male domain but in this illuminating historical narrative maritime scholar David Cordingly shows that an astonishing number of women went to sea in the great age of sail Some traveled as the wives or mistresses of captains others were smuggled aboard by officers or seamen And Cordingly has unearthed stories of a number of young women who dressed in men's clothes and worked alongside sailors for months sometimes years without ever revealing their gender His tremendous research shows that there was indeed a thriving female population from pirates to the sirens of myth and legend on and around the high seas A landmark work of women's history disguised as a spectacularly entertaining yarn Women Sailors and Sailor's Women will surprise and delight Maritime Women: Global Leadership Momoko Kitada, Erin Williams, Lisa Loloma Froholdt, 2015-02-05 This exciting new WMU book series volume features the first attempt to include detailed experiences of women in the maritime sector at a global level It highlights the achievement of women in the maritime sector in particular women's leadership and service to the sustainable development of the maritime industry The volume contains contemporary studies on maritime women and follows an interdisciplinary approach It offers an overview of women's integration into the maritime sector since the late 1980s as well as benchmarking its impact on various levels such as policy employment education leadership and sustainability Even 20 years after the Beijing Declaration gender related challenges at work still remain in the maritime sector for example lack of gender policy difficulty in work life balance access to education and leadership opportunities The book addresses a series of recommendations that may further help the integration of women into the maritime sector Seafaring Women Linda Grant De Pauw, 1982 Discusses women at sea throughout history in both feminine and masculine roles including those of pirate warrior whaler trader and the greatly expanding roles of recent times Women of Piracy Brittany VandeBerg, 2023-01-20 Drawing from an interdisciplinary body of research and data Women of Piracy employs a criminological lens to explore how women have been involved in and impacted by maritime piracy operations from the 16th century to present day piracy off the coast of Somalia The book challenges and resists popular understandings of women as peripheral to the criminal enterprise of piracy by presenting and analyzing their roles and experiences as victims perpetrators and criminal justice actors showing that women have been and continue to be central figures in maritime piracy Unfolding in three parts part one sets the context by providing readers with a history of the masculinization of the sea Part two focuses on the gendered division of labor in piracy operations discussing how and why the roles and responsibilities associated with this gendered labor have emerged persisted evolved and or ceased over time as well as considering which roles and responsibilities appear to be context specific and which seem to transgress geographical locations Part three explores how women have or have not been brought to justice for their participation in crimes of piracy as well as the roles of women in efforts to combat piracy The overarching objective is to ignite a broader discussion about the various cultural social historical and economic forces that create opportunities for women to participate in maritime piracy and counter piracy why women continue to be invisible figures of piracy and what implications this has for how we study police and bring pirates to justice The first criminologically grounded global study exploring the continuity and evolution of women in maritime piracy this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of criminology gender feminist studies international relations anthropology history and political geography It will also be useful to maritime and law enforcement professionals

Iron Men, Wooden Women Margaret S. Creighton, Lisa Norling, 1996-05 From the voyage of the Argonauts to the Tailhook scandal seafaring has long been one of the most glaringly male dominated occupations In this groundbreaking interdisciplinary study Margaret Creighton Lisa Norling and their co authors explore the relationship of gender and seafaring in the Anglo American age of sail Drawing on a wide range of American and British sources from diaries logbooks and account ledgers to songs poetry fiction and a range of public sources the authors show how popular fascination with seafaring and the sailors rigorous male only life led to models of gender behavior based on iron men aboard ship and stoic women ashore Yet Iron Men Wooden Women also offers new material that defies conventional views The authors investigate such topics as women in the American whaling industry and the role of the captain's wife aboard ship They explore the careers of the female pirates Anne Bonny and Mary Read as well as those of other women transvestite heroines who dressed as men to serve on the crews of sailing ships And they explore the importance of gender and its connection to race for African American and other seamen in both the American and the British merchant marine Contributors include both social historians and literary critics Marcus Rediker Dianne Dugaw Ruth Wallis Herndon Haskell Springer W Jeffrey Bolster Laura Tabili Lillian Nayder and Melody Graulich in addition to Margaret Creighton and Lisa Norling

Maritime Professions

,2023-03-13 On a global scale more than 40 million people make their living working directly at sea as fishers seafarers in aquaculture or seabed mining or related occupations such as dockworkers shipbuilding logistics maritime administration secondary branches of shipping marine tourism and other maritime professions The study of maritime labour and occupations is still under represented in the social sciences and humanities With the present volume we attempt to fill this gap by representing recent research on maritime professions from a sociological perspective drawing on a wide variety of disciplinary approaches and subject matters Jack London and the Sea Anita Duneer,2022-09-06 The call of the sea The maritime romantic ideal on the San Francisco Bay Hell ships and seafaring women Crafting the sea in Martin Eden The specter of survival cannibalism Trading in imperialism Local history and colonial complexities The Pirate Queen Barbara Sjöholm,2015-04-07 The Pirate Queen begins in Ireland with the infamous Grace O Malley a ruthless pirate and scourge to the most powerful fleets of sixteenth century Europe This Irish clan chieftain sea captain and pirate queen was a contemporary of Elizabeth I a figure whose life is the stuff of myth Regularly raiding English ships caught off Ireland's west coast O Malley was purported to have fought the Spanish armada just hours after giving birth to her son She had several husbands in her lifetime and acquired lands and castles that still dot the Irish coastline today But Grace O Malley was not alone Since ancient times women have rowed and sailed commanded and fished built boats and owned fleets As pirate captain's wives lighthouse keepers and sailors in disguise they've explored coastlines and set off alone across unknown seas Yet their incredible contributions have been nearly erased from the history books In The Pirate Queen Barbara Sjöholm brings some of these extraordinary women back to life taking the reader on an unforgettable journey from the wild Irish coast to the haunting Scandinavian fjords in this meticulously researched colorfully written and truly original work

Corporate Social Responsibility in the Maritime Industry Lisa Loloma Froholdt,2018-03-16 This book addresses the environmental legal social and economic aspects of corporate social responsibility in the maritime industry It discusses the voluntary aspects of the CSR concept and how the lines between informal and formal rules are merging and becoming fuzzy Further it shows how regulation is enhancing responsibility and sustainability in the maritime industry The book gathers the experiences of the WMU IMO UN and public and private actors in developing and developed countries in the maritime industry Women in Logistics and Transport Nor Aida Abdul Rahman,Zawiah Abdul Majid,Nurhayati Mohd Nur,Nihan Senbursa,2025-05-21 This book details the challenges and opportunities for gender equality in the logistics and transport sectors Drawing on real world insights from maritime rail aviation and humanitarian logistics contributors explore the unique barriers that women face in these traditionally male dominated fields Each chapter is contributed by academics and industry leaders many of whom are active members of the Women in Logistics and Transport WiLAT association and the Chartered Institute of Logistics and Transport CILT Key topics discussed include women's empowerment and leadership capacity building sectoral challenges gender bias and career obstacles Offering insights into gender equality and inclusive leadership

this book will interest researchers policymakers and professionals in aviation rail and maritime transport sectors

Working Out Gender Margaret Walsh, 2017-03-02 Working out Gender brings together leading scholars and young researchers to examine the various ways in which gender is currently being used in labour history Having been a dynamic and contentious category of historical analysis since the mid 1980s gender continues to incite much debate This volume seeks a more informed view about labour history both by advancing the position of women and making their lives central to learning and by examining men as gendered persons and discussing the social construction of masculinity A broad perspective of labour history is scrutinised on both sides of the Atlantic though the emphasis is given to European experiences Themes examined include work and workplace activities the working classes masculinity and politics and the timespan ranges from the eighteenth century to recent times

“They Took to the Sea” : Jewish History and Culture in Maritime Perspective(s) Björn Siegel, Joachim Schlör, Kobi Cohen-Hattab, Franziska Weinmann, Dalia Wassner, Michael Studemund-Halévy, Frank Jacob, Allison Schachter, Sebastian Schirrmeister, Caroline Jessen, Elias S. Jungheim, Saskia Fischer, Jessica Cooperman, Caroline Emig, Shai Ginsburg, 2023-03-22 The sea and maritime spaces have long been neglected in the field of Jewish studies despite their relevance in the context of Jewish religious texts and historical narratives The images of Noah s arche king Salomon s maritime activities or the miracle of the parting of the Red Sea immediately come into mind however only illustrate a few aspects of Jewish maritime activities Consequently the relations of Jews and the sea has to be seen in a much broader spatial and temporal framework in order to understand the overall importance of maritime spaces in Jewish history and culture Almost sixty years after Samuel Tolkowsky s pivotal study on maritime Jewish history and culture and the publication of his book They Took to the Sea in 1964 this volume of PaRDeS seeks to follow these ideas revisit Jewish history and culture from different maritime perspectives and shed new light on current research in the field which brings together Jewish and maritime studies The articles in this volume therefore reflect a wide range of topics and illustrate how maritime perspectives can enrich our understanding of Jewish history and culture and its entanglement with the sea especially in modern times They study different spaces and examine their embedded narratives and functions They follow in one way or another the discussions which evolved in the last decades focused on the importance of spatial dimensions and opened up possibilities for studying the production and construction of spaces their influences on cultural practices and ideas as well as structures and changes of social processes By taking these debates into account the articles offer new insights into Jewish history and culture by taking us out to sea and inviting us to revisit Jewish history and culture from different maritime perspectives

Social Inequality and Human Security Christian Ploberger, 2025-09-05 This book collates case studies of national and subnational efforts to alleviate inequality and implement development and security policy more effectively collaboratively and multidimensionally While inequality is a fundamental developmental challenge and a global phenomenon responsibility largely falls to the state to address it This book seeks to provide a specific framework to analyse these efforts at the national and sub national levels It does so through the United Nations concept of Human Security whose five core principles provide a good means of addressing inequality s various facets Each chapter opens by highlighting the specific aspect of human security that is being addressed Specific issues covered in the volume include local economic development maritime economies fishing communities governance and public administration This book will be of keen interest to scholars of development studies inequality especially social inequality and area studies

Maritime Skills on Vessels & Shore - The STCW Convention's Relevance & Recommendations Dr. (Capt.) Vivek Jain, 2023-07-11 This Book is of the seafarers by the seafarers for the seafarers Seafarers are the core of all maritime trade and their expectations perspectives alone should be at the centre of all solutions for maritime skills Taking this standpoint the editor has explored the issues of maritime skills with critical gaps following a framework of research methodology The issue of critical gaps in maritime skills is further exacerbated due to the impact on seafarers caused by changes in the ecosystem status relationship with stakeholders technology focus on renewable energy anxiety levels and so forth Furthermore stakeholders can no longer ignore the fact that seafarers are leaving a seagoing career after working for only a few years Therefore the editor has also explored the need to prepare seafarers for transition into maritime shore jobs to preserve their maritime skills within the maritime industry This exhaustive book can be used as a guide for further revisions or a revamp of the current STCW Convention The editor thereafter divided the researched critical gaps in maritime skills into four groups Jain s Model for Maritime Skills Panoptic Social Intelligence Upskilling Reskilling for onboard vessels skills and Portable Skills for future shore jobs Panoptic and Social Skills are core skills required for both on board vessels as well for maritime shore jobs Thereafter the editor embarked on a voyage to discover persuade collaborate with a number of exceptionally experienced subject matter experts over many months to collaboratively pursue many mini research projects across all selected maritime skills adopting specific methodology to plug these critical gaps These experts were drawn 1 from countries such as India the Philippines Romania South Korea Malaysia UAE the UK and Singapore 2 from both genders 3 from deck engine professionals settled ashore 4 with current experience in the industry and or at sea at a fundamental level and 5 from seafaring supplying nations recognising experiencing the relevant socio economic circumstances of seafarers From this book seafarers will not only find ideas on how to plug gaps in their maritime skills but also how they can transition with their existing skills to other maritime jobs such as marine superintendents marine managers designated persons ashore managers supervising new build second hand vessels IT managers in the maritime domain marine surveyors marine experts investigators marine pilots in ports maritime arbitrators managers in shipyards and so forth The solutions in this book will also resolve the issue of the shortage and retention of seafarers
