The Search for Meaning Phillip L. Berman, 1990 What do Americans as a people believe in What are the experiences that have transformed their lives How does faith in God in human goodness in politics progress money or pleasure illuminate our actions Private Needs, Public Selves John K. Roth, 1997 Polls through the 90s show that many Americans believe the nation is in a period of spiritual decline yet public religious display and discussion often is deemed politically incorrect Philosopher John K Roth feels that more outward sharing of religious beliefs thoughts and ideas would bridge the gap between our private needs and our public selves and would give Americans of differing faiths a common identity The American Paradox Patrick J. Gallo, 1999 The Cathedral of the World Forrest Church, 2010-10-12 Described by Cornel West as a towering public intellectual and the leading universalist philosopher of his generation Forrest Church was one of the preeminent liberal theologians of our time His final gift The Cathedral of the World draws from the entire span of Church's life's work to leave behind a clear statement of his universalist theology and liberal faith Giving new voice to the power of liberal religion Church invites all seekers to enter the Cathedral of the World home to many windows but only one Light

What Is Truth? James Emery White, 2006-09-01 SEARCHING FOR ABSOLUTES IN A POSTMODERN WORLD In this postmodern age truth especially religious or moral truth is widely criticized and constantly challenged yet perhaps more important than ever It was this realization that led James Emery White to examine the concepts of truth as held by five twentieth century theologians Cornelius Van Til Millard J Erickson Francis A Schaeffer Donald G Bloesch Carl F H Henry

Road-book America Rowland A. Sherrill, 2000 Sketching the socially marginal ingenuous traveling characters common to both old and new versions Sherrill shows how the new American picaresque transforms the satirical aims of the original into an effort to map and catalog the immensity and variety of America BOOK JACKET The Rise of the Nones James Emery White, 2014-04-29 The single fastest growing religious group of our time is those who check the box next to the word none on national surveys In America this is 20 percent of the population Exactly who are the unaffiliated What caused this seismic shift in our culture Are our churches poised to reach these people James Emery White lends his prophetic voice to one of the most important conversations the church needs to be having today He calls churches to examine their current methods of evangelism which often result only in transfer growth Christians moving from one church to another rather than in reaching the nones The pastor of a megachurch that is currently experiencing 70 percent of its growth from the unchurched White knows how to reach this growing demographic and here he shares his ministry strategies with concerned pastors and church leaders Handbook for the Soul Benjamin Shield, Richard Carlson, 2025-05-01 America's most celebrated spiritual writers offer inspiring words on the state of the soul today This collection of more than thirty original essays addresses both the importance of caring for and nourishing the soul and the ways in which these individuals tend to their own souls on a day to day basis A Strategy For Reaching Secular People Ernan A. Norman, D. Min., 2007-05-11 Dr Ernan A Norman D Min has identified strategies to implement John 13:35. All people will know that you are my followers if you love each other. An excellent source for the essential principles of discipleship in a postmodern world. This book is written in nontechnical language based on the experiences as a student pastor and professor. I believe that the concepts presented are fundamental and are in harmony with the model demonstrated by Jesus during His ministry on earth. Meeting people at their level, putting their needs ahead of His own, treating people with respect, befriending the nonreligious, and inviting them into a relationship with Himself are some of the concepts that are identified and supported as strategies for reaching secular people. This book is an outstanding and important piece of work and easily readable. I would urge a strategy for reaching secular people on members and leaders in every church if they are willing to challenge basic assumptions and embrace change relative to reaching lost people. Strategies that remove the barriers that keep people from hearing about God's love and to create a warm, friendly, uncritical, and nonjudgmental attitude of acceptance are clearly presented. Full of practical how-tos and watchouts, this book by Ernan Norman is for individuals serious about sharing the love of God. As we interact with and minister to secular people, matters such as marriage and family, academics, employment, addictions, and human rights must be addressed. Norman clearly gives strategies for intentional efforts to reach secular postmodern men and women in our day. The central concept is the example of Jesus that we should follow. A must read. Weymouth Spence, Ed D, President of Washington Adventist University.

Becoming Religious, 1999. Becoming Religious: Understanding Devotion to the Unseen presents the lives of fourteen contemporary South Georgians who, in the manner of religious believers around the world, devote themselves to supernatural powers and goals. The book is a contemporary treatment of the classical question raised by F. Max Müller in 1882: Why we believe, why we are conscious of things which we can neither perceive with our senses nor conceive with our reason. People everywhere are religious. Müller noted, and wherever there is religion, the question whence it came cannot be long suppressed.

Rethinking the Church James Emery White, 2003-07. An innovative evangelistic pastor guides local church leaders to rethink their ministry's unique purpose and mission within the community.

Being God's Partner Rabbi Jeffrey K. Salkin, 2013-04-03. What is spirituality anyway? Isn't spirituality about emotion? And isn't work about the rational mind? Too often we divorce our work life from our real life, from our innermost beliefs and convictions. But work can be as much a part of our life and as much a vehicle for spiritual growth and personal understanding as going to synagogue or church on Saturday or Sunday or taking a walk in the woods or reading quietly to our kids at bedtime. In fact, work may be among the most potent vehicles for fulfilling our spiritual life because for many of us it presents the best opportunities to meld community and social and economic productivity with personal belief and individual talent. From the Introduction by Norman Lear: Being God's Partner will help people of every faith reconcile the cares of their work and the strivings of their souls and restore the hidden link between them. By exploding our assumptions that work and spirituality are irreconcilable, Salkin explores how spirituality can enhance our 9 to 5 lives. It is time to be as rich internally as we are externally, he writes.

offering soul stirring ways to smuggle religion into our workplace Thought provoking practical and exhilarating Being God s Partner goes beyond just talking about the subject to give you specific actions to take and connections to make right now to help infuse our lives with greater meaning purpose and satisfaction and invigorate all that we do      Creativity and Spirituality

Earle J. Coleman,1998-02-27 From the architecture of Frank Lloyd Wright to the rock gardens of Zen Buddhism Coleman explores applied fine and folk arts in order to uncover points of coalescence between art and religion Drawing from six living faiths Buddhism Christianity Hinduism Islam Judaism and Taoism this book philosophically analyzes relations between art and religion in order to explain how the concepts art beauty creativity and aesthetic experience find their place or counterparts in religious discourse and experience Coleman repeatedly shows that aesthetic ideas can serve as bridges to spiritual categories as when he relates aesthetic bliss to the peace that passes all understanding The author follows a three fold approach first he examines ideas and motifs from religious classics in world literature such as Lao Tzu s Tao Te Ching and The Interior Castle by Teresa of Avila in order to relate them to aesthetic phenomena Second he turns to the statements of artists such as Leo Tolstoy Vincent van Gogh Paul Gauguin Shih t ao and Wassily Kandinsky for themes and practices that have religious significance Third he analyzes and evaluates the writings of various theoreticians philosophers theologians art critics sociologists and psychologists on the relations between art and religion Coleman demonstrates for example that Martin Buber s I Thou relationship captures much that is central to art creativity and aesthetic experience as well as to religious life Among the themes that receive sustained treatment are the varieties of union in art and religion the child as a paradigm for artists and saints and creativity as essential to religion Finally the author critically weighs proposed distinctions between art and religion and between the broader categories of the aesthetic and the spiritual rejecting some and showing how others are compatible with his proposal that the aesthetic and the spiritual are cognate categories      ASanto!
