Searching For Krisztina:

Plays from Romania: Dramaturgies of Subversion Mihaela Panainte, Matéi Visniec, György Dragomán, András Visky, Giuvlipen Theatre Company, 2021-09-23

Plays from Romania Dramaturgies of Subversion reflects the diversity of dramatic writing exploring the past and present of Romania and takes stock thirty years after the collapse of communism. In addition to plays originally written in Romanian the collection includes work by German, Hungarian and Roma authors born and/or working in Romania and brings together plays written during the communist period and its aftermath. The plays included in the collection, edited and translated by Jozefina Komporalý and fully published for the first time in English, demonstrate broad variety in terms of form and content ranging from family dramas to allegories and absurdist experiments to modular texts rooted in open dramaturgy and are the work of both individual playwrights and the results of collective creation. These works share a preoccupation with critically reflecting urgent concerns rooted in Romanian realities and are notable dramaturgical experiments that push the boundaries of the genre. In addition, these plays also seek novel ways to examine universal experiences of the human condition such as love, loss, abuse, betrayal, grief, violence, manipulation and despair. This unique anthology celebrates the renewed vitality and variety of writing for the stage after 1990 and endeavours to place Romanian theatre in a forward-looking transnational context.

Lowlands (Niederungen) by Herta Müller adapted for the stage by Mihaela Panainte (German). This stage adaptation is based on a volume of short stories by Herta Müller written in German in 1982 and focuses on the perspective of a child narrator by way of a series of episodes that centre on mundane aspects of daily life in a remote village against the backdrop of the oppressive atmosphere of mid-twentieth-century Romania.

The Spectator Sentenced to Death (Spectatorul condamnat la moarte) by Matéi Visniec (Romanian). This play is a bitter parody of the Stalinist justice system which totally disregards the fundamental question whether the accused is actually guilty or not.

The Passport (Kalucsni) by György Dragomán (Hungarian). This play is set pre-1989 in a typical small town in the Transylvanian province of Romania in which the lives of the various social classes and the fate of the persecuted and that of those who persecute are closely intertwined.

The Man Who Had His Inner Evil Removed (Omul din care a fost extras răul) by Matéi Visniec (Romanian). This topical play is a sharp reflection on the voluntary servitude in which we place ourselves often unawares in conditions of our contemporary consumer culture and a fierce critique of increasingly dominant tendencies to abandon moral criteria in political life.

Stories of the Body (Artemisia, Eva, Lina, Teresa) by András Visky (Hungarian). The cycle Stories of the Body comprises four plays based on real-life stories as experienced by remarkable women including Mother Teresa and Italian Renaissance painter Artemisia Gentileschi and are connected to various cities including Budapest, Cluj, Kolozsvár, Kolkata and Rome from the 17th to the 21st century.

Sexodrom by Giuvlipen Theatre Company, Mihaela Drăgan, Antonella Lerca, Duda Nicoleta, Ghita Zita (Moldovan), Bety Pisica, Oana Rusu, Raj Alexandru, Udrea based on a concept by Bogdan Georgescu (Roma). This is a work of collective creation by members of the Roma Theatre company Giuvlipen aiming to homeownership is reconfiguring urban space class subjects gender selfhood and ways of life in the reform era New seemingly individualistic lifestyles mark a dramatic move away from yearning for a social utopia under Maoist socialism Yet the privatization of property and urban living have engendered a simultaneous movement of public engagement among homeowners as they confront the encroaching power of the developers This double movement of privatized living and public sphere activism Zhang finds is a distinctive feature of the cultural politics of the middle classes in contemporary China Theoretically sophisticated and highly accessible Zhang s account will appeal not only to those interested in China but also to anyone interested in spatial politics middle class culture and postsocialist governing in a globalizing world Unsolved
